Truth Disappointed

Good evening Charles. Yes, is Berthard. I welcome you once again to our class, both old members and new. It is wonderful to be our class increase in size. Personalities present are very interesting. We have a very, very, very, very, very, very interesting class. We are very listening for your Thought Adjusters' voice verily, that Spirit, permeated in your personal consciousness.

This evening's class will be on service. Let us think back to our lives by Ways early days in our lives when we began our lives that first taking of what our service really means. Think back to those early days in our lives. Think back to those early days in our lives when we began to do our class calling for another individual to help their life be a little finer. It may have been some little assistance, it may have been a little, it may have been a little, it may have been a contributing assist.

Think back for a moment and see that beginning service year. As you remembered that time in your lives, you will see that it was a very, very, very, very, very,
