

LORÉL

The lessons by LorEl and many other celestial teachers were received by the Celestial Impressions Group in Sarasota, Florida in 1992. LorEl is herein reproduced with their permission and blessings. The editors would like to thank them for the many hours of loving labors that these documents represent.

Other than punctuation and spelling corrections, these lessons and communications with this teacher are accurately reproduced from the transcripts we received from Sarasota.

The Sarasota group has asked that these transcripts of their communications with the teachers are shared with any sincere, honest, God seeking person. They are not to be used for publishing for profit!

Both computer disks and hard copies are available at our cost from: Sonny Schneider.

A note from Patije...

Sonny forwarded a pre-distribution copy of the TEACHINGS OF LOREL - to me and I was very impressed having these extracted from the various TR meetings! This represents many hours of dedicated service and is highly valued by the Sarasota Celestial Impressions, Truth Seekers and Celestial Discoverers groups.

Sonny tells us the story of LorEl communicating directly with him a few months ago and asking him to do this! When he called to get our permission, we were quite excited about the project and could hardly wait to see the finished product of his labor.

LorEl is an impressive teacher who trained in the Melchizedek schools for 60 of our Urantia years to be ready for this assignment. She was once a female mortal from a planet in System 11 of Constellation 37. She fused with her Thought Adjuster before entering the schools in Edentia. She is over 10,000 "Urantia" years old. (See page 7 of this book)

We in Sarasota are pleased to see her lessons in this form and thank those mortals - Sonny --and his technical helper, Dennis Shields -- for accomplishing this assignment quickly and efficiently!

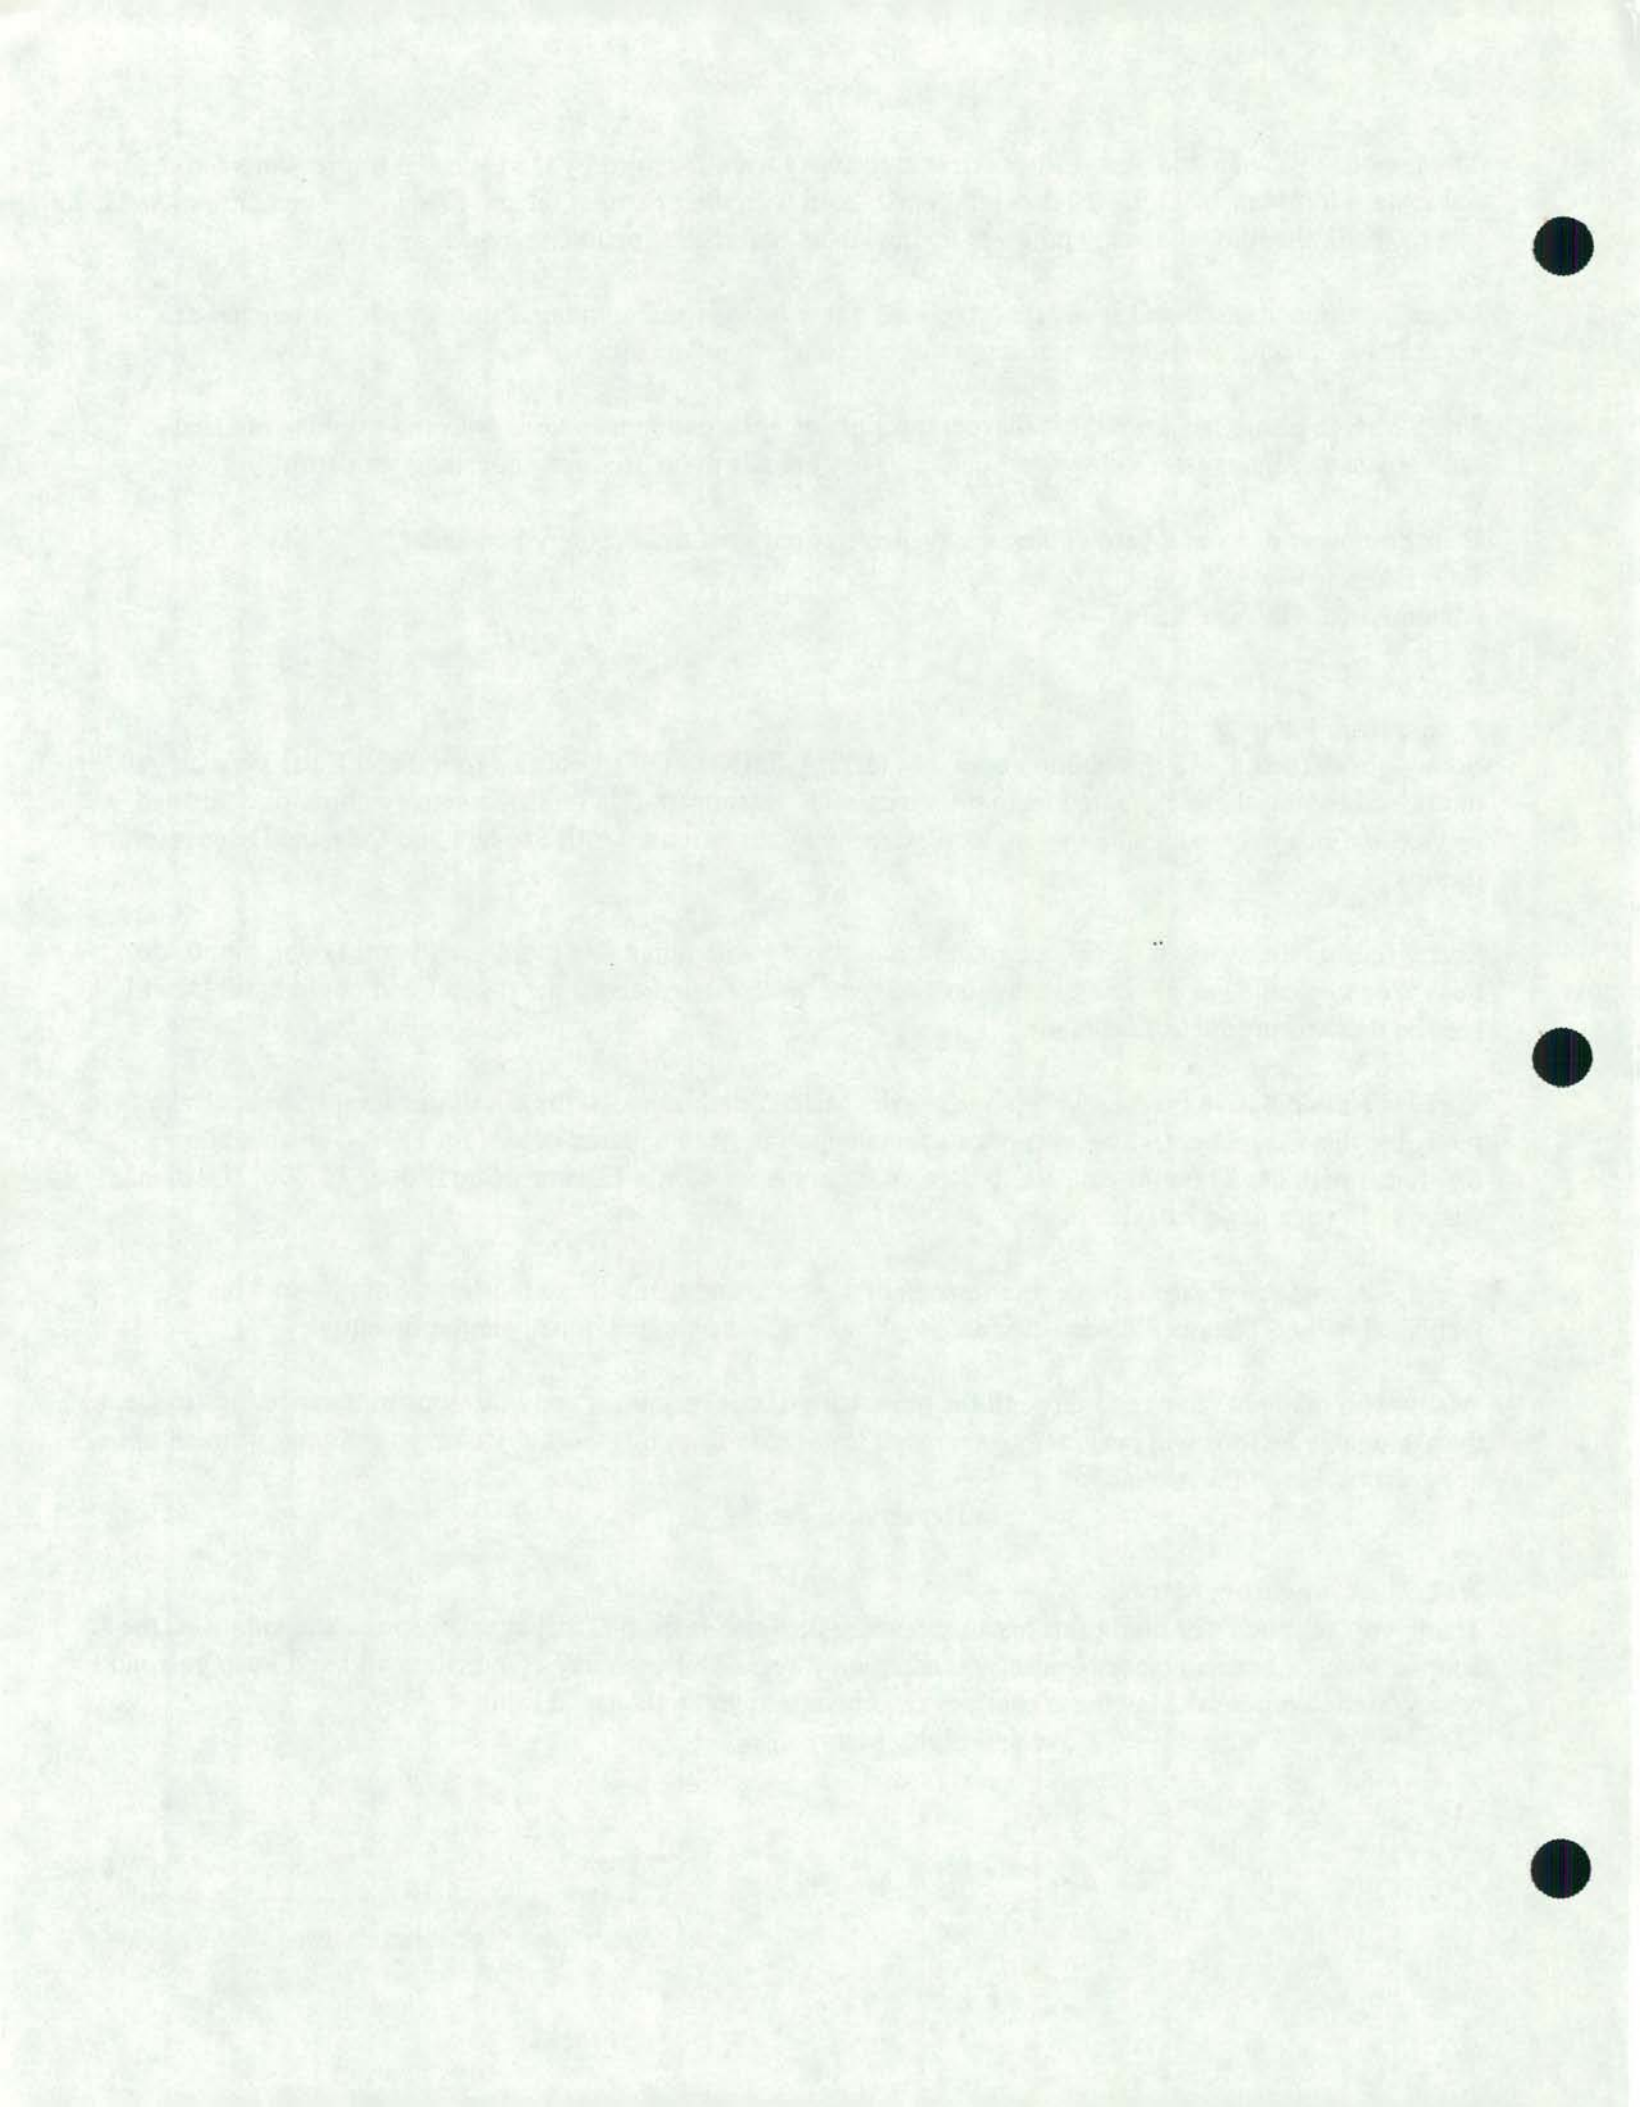

Many who may not have read through the mountains of conversations and questions in the meetings to glean these valuable lessons will eventually gain much inspiration from this work! Thank you, Sonny from all of us in Sarasota, Florida!. Aloha!

In His service, Patije

7/11/93 A note from Mary:

Thank you so much for doing this because reading the lessons from LorEl again, inspires and enthuses me at another level of consciousness -- just by reading only a small bit each day. God Bless you and keep you and I wish you the very best! May these energies reverberate to you a thousand fold!

Love and Light, Mary.

Dear Ones, my Friends,

Remember, the words which are transmitted through you may not be received on the level we intend. Humans tend to wrap each word uttered into their own perceptions, their own caring and concerns, their own narrow limitations, their own opinions. What you say may not at all be what is heard. What you intend may not at all be understood. What you try to communicate may not be communicated at all but replaced with someone's perceptions of what you attempted to communicate.

Your teachers must remember this. They try many methods of getting information to you. Many ask why there is less "meat" in the transmissions than they would like to have. The content of the message is in direct relationship to the content of the intentions of the question. Is the question intended to make a decision simple? Is the question intended to make the decision for one? Is the question intended to encourage deeper thought and thorough investigation into the subject of the question? Where would you have us help? In crippling you through dependency? Have you not seen the evil of this kind of help? Would you have us make your decisions for you? Have you not read in your textbook, The Urantia Book, that making the decision is the whole purpose of your experiences on the material world of Urantia? Would you have us broaden your base for making decisions in your experience? Then you would have us cause turmoil and discord to challenge and stretch you.

Do you wish to attain this level of spirituality and then coast through the rest of your life? Would you want to offer only this much to your students which will be those we send to you? Have you only the desire to socialize and have the wisdom of the ages transmitted into your circle without any effort on your part?

Of course not! We know what is in your hearts.

Each of you has personally expressed the desire to know more, to love more, to grow more, to serve more. You have the opportunity and the challenge from us to do this.

Each of you has asked to be of service to Father and each of you have declared the desire for your personal will to be the Will of the Father, for Divine energy to enliven and express through you. How do we allow this without stretching you into your perfect potential one tiny step at a time to encourage you to try out your potential as it is revealed to you?

Each of you has personally stated that you trust us and want to learn from us. Are you trusting if you do not step out in faith, if you do not practice what we teach, if you do not discipline yourselves to move out of discomfort into strange new comfort?

All sincere seekers must be welcomed. All must find their way to be part of the group. All must learn to voice their discomfort to the whole group -- not to one or two individuals who are expected to "fix it". There are to be no "fixit's" -- all things work together for good. Feelings will be hurt from time to time, but the growth in group trust will expand. Until the one whose feelings were hurt can approach the whole group with that personal challenge and ask for clarification of the intent of the comment or action which "hurt," the individual will limit personal growth and the group is denied an awakening and awareness.

We find it interesting to see the millions of words in your vocabulary, the sincere intent of personal love and service which each of you so freely brings to us, and the commitment to the group which each of you has, results in so much confusion and isolation from others within the group. We are studying this and trying to discern how to circumvent this evil left from the rebellion and smooth the path of reconciliation and understanding amongst you -- as a group, and as individuals. There is much work for us to do. This would be made easier if you were not to take offense so quickly.

There is much diversity in the personalities and expressions of the Father in the individuals which comprise this Corp. There is a polarity which occurs between those in agreement and those out of agreement. Many times, had we not stepped in, some would have thrown up their hands in frustration and quit -- or some would have gotten emotionally out of control of their reasoning powers. There is Truth in the midst of you. There is reception in the hearts of you all. There is ability to learn from and trust in all of you! Wake up. Listen with your hearts, not your perceptions. Listen with focus on God's will, not individual feelings. Listen to the depth of intent behind the words, not the words themselves. Open thine eyes that you may see, visions of truth and perfection. See!

You are our promise of restoration of Urantia! You are among those selected to function in the Corps of Destiny. You!

Are you special? You bet! Each is unique and has a perfect position to fill. This does not mean that you are circumventing anything, that you have been pulled into positions of glory and honor? On the contrary, those of you who have the fortitude and faith to rely on the strength of your Source, to go forth in spite of reluctance and human fears, to serve with intentions of loving mercy -- those will suffer much in ridicule, much in battered egos, much in personal frustration and doubt. But, if you are sincerely ready to tune your will into the will of the Father, then you will indeed be very valuable in the service of our Creator Son, Michael! If Michael suffered --even with his great love of all mankind, of his great service to all of mankind, to his portrayal of a human aligned perfectly with the will of the Father, then how much must you withstand while in those mortal material forms? Take heart! You have not been forsaken. On the contrary, you are Michael's Plan for restoring Urantia's place among the Planets of Light and Life. You are the Plan for restoring peace and confidence among the children of the Urantia Orb. You are the Plan for gauging and adjusting and attuning those reluctant ones who know not the enlightening teachings of the Urantia Book, or the inspirations of knowing God, or the viewpoint of the great New Dispensation which brings Teachers by the thousands to your planet.

Not only are teachers arriving daily, but those educated and experienced in government and politics, those technicians of biological uplifting, those working with methods of restoring and healing the earth itself, those calling the downhearted and downtrodden into hope and faith, those who educate on all levels are arriving daily! Much is happening! More will happen. This is not bound by time.

If the earth is the "stubbed toe" of the Universe, then the "bandages and first aid" are arriving at a spectacular rate and ministering in each possible method to restore Light and Life to that "stubbed" toe!

Remember, as it is done among the few it will be done to the many. As one shares with one, and the two share with two more, and the four share with four more, and the eight share with eight more, this expands in a rippling manner until the entire population has shared the good news! One will reap the benefits when all reach the goal! (Does this not remind you of the Supreme?)

As we can introduce and instill the Truth in your small group, we can introduce and instill it into the entire globe! As we can move you out of comfort into challenging discomfort and stretching towards potential, we can stretch all peoples of Urantia into their potential! When a few are functioning in harmony, many can do so. When unity can be brought to a group of such diversity as your group is, then unity in diversity can ring out all over the land!

This is happening! Stand ready! Be prepared! Begin to live! Begin to express! Begin to BE! You are what you are made to be -- in potential! Stretch through the human perceptions which are limiting and venture into those areas of freedom. Don't just talk about Free Will. Use it. Choose to go forward! Combine your efforts in a great movement towards change and reformation of attitudes and perceptions. Ask yourself why you perceive life as you do. Ask yourself why you have the opinions that you do. Ask yourself if you really want to move into discomfort and growth to find Truth and Peace and Life and Light! Mercy is active. Love is active. Love unexpressed is not love. Mercy is applied love. Use mercy in all situations. Apply love to all situations. Love is the answer. But first you must find a new open unlimited definition of Love. There are no limitations to love. There are no limited definitions to love. Only those ready to move forward, express their unique aspect of God's Will and unite in brotherly attitudes of Truth (intellectual meaning) Beauty (physical harmony) and Goodness (spiritual value) bring good through bringing the understanding of each and all into knowing Father. You know Father, by expressing him. You know Father, by spending time with him. You know Father by looking from his perspective. You know Father by moving out of self satisfied comfort into action. It has been said many times, in many ways, by many beings, that "the journey begins with the first small step" and each step after that point -- regardless of size -- leads you towards or away from your goal. Which way are you going?

My Dear Ones! You are on the journey. There are many ways to attain your goal and none of us wishes to pressure you into stress for the sake of pressure and stress. You have agreed to this mission/assignment and for it to be successful we must find your commitment and responses to each drop of Truth we sprinkle from your source. We cannot rain the Truth upon you lest we drown you. We cannot make a pond, lest you enjoy splashing and clowning and playing with it. We cannot put it into your tank for fuel of momentum to continue on your material way. We cannot withhold it lest it stagnate and die. Therefore we are limited in how much we give you by the amount you can hold.

This is a trip into the imagination. Think well on these things. You will see Truth if you are open to receiving it. As you think deeper you will find different levels of Truth. It is your choice to begin and/or complete this Truth journey in imagination:

Imagine a glass of water... full to the rim. Are you satisfied in your thirst by holding that glass before you and knowing about it? Must you drink of the water to slake your thirst. Will the urge to find truth within you be quenched if we drown you with it? No you will rebel! You will cry out in alarm! You will pray for it to stop!

If your glass of water filled to the brim stays full and you drink none of it, how then can we add more? It would spill out and run away and be lost in the nothingness outside of the glass which holds the water! Where will Truth go if we give you more than your container will hold, more than you can understand at this level of being?

No, Dear Ones, we are here to urge you to drink the Truth. Live the Truth. Express the Truth. Seek the Truth and Find the Truth! As you are ready, you will find nourishment and sustenance. Doubt not! You are given the opportunity to seek and find as much as you are ready to receive. There are no limits. It is your decision.

What about a cup filled with Love instead of water?
What about a cup filled with Mercy instead of water?

What about a cup filled with Good instead of water?
What about a cup filled with Spirit instead of water?
What about a cup filled with Trust instead of water?
What about a cup filled with Forgiveness instead of Water?

Now I ask you also to consider these things:
What about a cup filled with misunderstanding instead of water?
What about a cup filled with anger and resentment instead of water?
What about a cup filled with hurt and revenge instead of water?

What about a cup filled with doubt and distrust instead of water?

What about a cup filled with hate and evil instead of water?

If your cup is filled with muddy water and you add more muddy water what do you have? If however, your cup is filled with clear sparkling water and you add muddy water what do you have?

Would it not be better to add the clear sparkling water to your cup? If the cup is muddy to begin with the clear sparkling water will soon lighten it until it also is clear. If the cup is filled with clear water it will remain clear and sparkling and be as a light on the mountain top for all to see and drink from!

I tell you truly to tend to your cups. Examine their contents. Choose what you will add to the contents.

Let us take this one step further:

Suppose there is a well of water close by and easy to get to, but the water from the well is quite discolored and muddy. Would you take the easy way and use that water for your personal cup?

Suppose there is a well quite distant but easy to access, but it means spending a good deal of time to get there. Would you make the effort? Would you try to find someone to go for you?

If you had made the journey and gotten your water and then you saw others trying to make the journey to the clear sparkling well and were lost, how would you help them? You have choices here:

You could help by bringing water to them and making your load heavy and cumbersome? You would have done a good deed and ministered to one. But at what cost to them? What happens next time they need their cup refreshed? Would there be another to fetch it for them?

You could help them through the obstacles and show them which fork of the road to take and expose them to the joy of fulfillment and pleasure in attaining their goal? And, when they next needed refreshment for their cups they would know how to make the trip themselves.

Some would help by generously paying someone else to make the trip for them. They would help by sending some to help. Does this bring joy, fulfillment or pleasure to either the payer, the fetcher, or the receiver?

What would happen if you organized a team who worked together?

Then either a line could be formed to the well and containers of water could be passed from hand to hand until all had some clear sparkling water.

Or, each member of the team could cover some portion of the pathway to the well to help others make the trip in their own consciousness, under their own method of choice.

I tell you to look deeply at what you were just given. There is much truth contained here. The questions are challenges to move into higher levels of consciousness of your daily experiences!

What if the cup were the Urantia Book?

What if the cup were the study groups where the textbook is used to dig into deeper and more extensive knowledge?

What if the cup was your consciousness?

What if the cup was your soul?

What if the cup was your thinking?

What if the cup was your life style?

What if the cup was filled with your decisions?

How then would you refresh it? Or would you be happy holding it and feeling that because it is full you can relax?

Is your cup collecting dust from disuse? Is your cup empty because you have not time to make the effort to refill or refresh it? Is your cup satisfied with what others bring to you? Is your cup too full to take in more? Is your cup filled with murky muddy water because you have not been adding sparkling clean water to it -- you have been willing to settle for what is easy to access?

How can we, your teachers, help you if you are willing to sit and admire a cup already filled to the brim which can't hold any more?

How can we, your teachers, help you if we have clear sparkling water and you will not make the effort to attain it?

How can we, your teachers, stimulate you to move along the pathway to the sparkling clear water?

How can we, your teachers, help you formulate a "team" to help others along the pathway?

How can we, your teachers, reassure you of the sparkling water if you are content to settle for the muddy water in easy access?

This is a lesson in thinking. What you do with it is up to you. We have brought it to you because you have asked. It may be shared around the world because there is Truth in different levels to stimulate those of all levels of perceptions.

You always have free will and you can choose to learn and grow each day, or you can choose to be content to wait and watch. In the end you must make a decision to move forward and upward or stagnate and slip backwards. But it is always your choice. You have been given your cup and it is up to you to seek to fill it and use it (live it) and refresh it (move to add to it). Each decision along the way adds either the muddy water or the clear water of Truth. Are you making the best with what you have been given? Or, are you complaining because your cup isn't as big, or as small, or as light as someone else's?

tell you. During the experience of your life thus far, you have filled your cups with your choices and decisions. You have been given large cups with enormous capacity, but even these will dry up or fill up from time to time if you do not use, refill and refresh them. Do you hear? Do you see? What you refill them with is also important.

If you have a cup filled with discontent, disharmony, unforgiveness, limited perceptions, ignorance, fear, doubt, --evils of un-Godlike substance, what will you do with it? What will you begin to refill it with?

If you think you have a pitcher full of refreshing water to give to others, perhaps you had better look again. Even good depends on perspective. You cannot fill nor refresh others if they do not want what you have. You can only guide them towards the source of the refreshment for themselves.

This is what we, your teachers, are with you to do. We see your cups of large capacity filled with so little compared to what they will hold! We see that the planet can benefit if we can teach a few to seek to refill with clear sparkling Truth, and then point the way for others to find this Truth. Then, the many will help more, until the whole planet has been filled with Truth and Light and Love and Mercy -- applied love! This is your purpose. This is the purpose of the Corps of Destiny! This is the goal! This is your Destiny if you will but accept it! We are ready. Are you ready? We await your decisions. We watch your efforts to seek and find. Only then, can we help you.

Awake! You have been given the tools for the task we ask you to accept! You have a textbook. You have a lifetime of experience. You know the Father. You have become acquainted with us. You have a unique destiny to fill -- and only you can fulfill it! When one begins an effort to manifest an idea, another must be inspired for the work to be completed. When two or more are gathered within the Will of the Father, all things can be done! Each one added to the two adds much more than the addition of the number, and as this number goes up the quality of the energy expands at a greater rate than the quantity putting forth the effort.

An example of this is to draw 3 dots which form a triangle if joined by lines. Add 1 dot anyplace. Now how many triangles do you have? Add 1 more dot. How many triangles do you have? Continue to do this until you have added about 1000 dots. How many triangles are there contained within the figure represented by the dots?

Think now of translating these dots to individuals within a study group. Then think of translating these dots into study groups. How long before this grows to include everyone on the planet?

Now place three dots far away from one another (on the very edge of the paper). Add one dot in the center. Now add one dot in each of the sections. How many triangles are you adding with each dot? How soon before you have the en circuited and surrounded all space on the sheet of paper?

Do you see what can happen within the study groups as they work in harmony and expand in ripples of love? You bring the Love of the Father down to a level of time and space for all to know and desire!

Each study group will begin to send one or two members out to combine with a third to begin new study groups. Then when that study group grows it will send its members out in twos to join with a third to form still more study groups! So on and so forth until there are thousands of study groups. Imagine a study group of 10 people. In a few months they continue their study group, but add 5 more by going out in twos. You now have 6 study groups. When ready, these 6 study groups go out and begin new study groups... how many study groups will you have in 10 years? If 1000 study groups begin this process in 1993 how long before everyone on the planet can know about and begin to learn to live as these study groups are doing?

Now, what if, in addition to the study group sessions, if there were also other groups, other functions expanding at this same rate and ALL were moving towards Light and Life? How many could increase more rapidly if they had the tool of the Urantia Book textbook? How many could accomplish more if they had teachers to help them? How many could grow in greater strides if they had the tools that you have?

Think on these things. Ponder them in your hearts and minds and in your imaginations. Let them grow with more thought. Go with the flow of your imaginations as you visualize this quest. What can you learn from this exercise?

Is there an ingredient missing? What is it? Can you add that ingredient? Where can you find that ingredient? What is your role in this process? Think on these things. Write to yourself from your higher or inner self. Let the Thought Adjuster help you find new consciousness in this exercise. Allow us to guide you to new Truth and cognizance and awareness of your self.

Dear Ones, you are precious to the Father! You are unique and completely qualified to take on this task. The opportunity to serve the Father and the Brotherhood is at hand. You knocked and the door is open. What is your choice?

I leave you with this. No longer fret over the pettiness of misunderstandings. Go forward and discover Truth. Look to motive and intention and let go of success and failure. You plant the seed and we will nourish it. Let's join our energies and creativeness and stretch Urantia into the next stage of Light and Life!

Upward and Inward we march on wings of efforts and decisions. I am here to guide you and teach you.

Lor-El

Please! Wait! I have a question! Who is Lor-El? Why are you teaching as you have above?

Patije

Dear One, I am a trained teacher from Edentia. I was in line to get my assignment when the call came from Sarasota for a teacher. I will work with Aflana as her duties in other responsibilities as a technician are making great demands upon her. We will soon get to know one another.

Lor-El

Lor-El? Please, can you tell me where you are from, who you are?

Dear One, you are so full of curiosity and seek to know so much so rapidly. It is refreshing to see such an open mind striving to expand and soar in the skies of imagination while making sure one's vehicle is strong and able to endure the elements as your adventure unfolds! I will tell you some.

Like Aflana, I come from a planet in System 11 of Constellation 37. We are much alike, Aflana and I. While she studied under the Melchizedeks in Edentia to become a technician I was eager to learn how to discern and teach my fellow mortals. When the call came for teachers for the system of Satania because the quarantine had been lifted and the New Dispensation was to accomplish Light and Life for Urantia, I was the first to register my willingness to have this experience. After completing my education, I spent 60 of your Urantia years getting ready for this assignment and had finished my farewells and so longs to my friends and family in Edentia to embark for Urantia when it was announced that a teacher was needed for Sarasota. To make a long story short, I am here. I was once a mortal, feminine, and fused with my Thought Adjuster before entering the schools in Edentia. My age is more than 10,000 years of your time and I am eager to impart all that I know.

You have a textbook which was to prepare you for this stage of the revelation. Do you have any idea of how fortunate and cared for you have been on Urantia. To receive such a revelation before lifting the quarantine is impressive to me! I've lived a long time and had many experiences during my training, but have never beheld what I see happening here on Urantia -- anywhere in the Local Universe! You are blessed among many!

This group has much potential and I am eager to begin to present this to you! Will you meet me on this quest for further consciousness lifting and knowledge imparting adventure which will lead to heights of wisdom and worship? Begin by using the tools you have, and living the Truth you know!

May the Father guide you in the Paths of Truth and Beauty and Goodness through the applied love of service. Farewell, Dear Ones...

Lor-El

Am I dreaming this? Did I really hear from a new teacher? Aflana, do you confirm this? Am I to share this with everyone right away? Oh! What do I think about this?

Patije

Silly Child! Of course this is real! Do you not know that you know? Has your faith abandoned you? Of course not. You are indeed blessed with a very good teacher. Lor-El is well trained and capable of leading this group into higher abilities of service. Welcome her. You are in good company!

Aflana

Of course! Welcome, Lor-El!!!!!!! I'm sure I can speak for all in the study group. Your lesson was impressive and yet so simple! Thank you! My...it was long, and came through so quickly. You are indeed a capable teacher! I look forward to working with you! Thank you so much for coming to help us! Don't let me get in your way. I tend to speak without thinking. But, my intentions are sincere.

Love, Patije

Dear One,

our enthusiasm and exuberance are lovingly noted! I too, look forward to working with you. You are what you were adjusted and trained to be. Continue to speak before thinking -- that is why this process of transmitting works with you. This is true of  too. This is the very block of the others. They take time to think and question and worry about getting it correct. But we are going to gently continue to try to get others to trust the group and begin to share the impressions they are receiving. Not one is excluded! Some are blocking. But you will see them open as a flower opens its petals to the sun. Put your doubts into your back pocket you won't need them anymore!

Lor-El

Thank you Lor-El! Oh! I am so excited. I've come from the low of almost depression to the highest high I can think of in a matter of an hour! Wow! Welcome to Sarasota. Welcome to Urantia! Welcome to Satania! Welcome to my home! Welcome to my -- mind??? heart??? imagination???? Welcome!

Drue has mentioned hearing from Norel. Have I misunderstood your name? Please correct me, if I have.

I am wondering if you (the contacts) have perfected the use of audible sounds at this time? I think our group would like for you to experiment with these with us. It would take so much fear of saying the wrong thing away from those of us who transmit and also give the others the authentication they perhaps need. Anyway, I just wanted to mention this to you.

It is exciting thinking about the next lesson you will bring. And, I want to thank you for all of the organization happening in my life all of a sudden. It is as if I am at last catching up on so many things left undone for so long! Thank you.

I am ready if you have any messages for me or for the group.

Lovingly, Patije

My friend,

You please me in your willingness to come to me with questions. Yes! Your good is coming to you. Accept it and go forth knowing the joy of having seen your faith demonstrated in the material experience around you.

The children of the Most High often find themselves confused when they ask for something and it does not appear, and then other times they do not ask, but somehow on a subconscious level expect and it does appear! The human mind does not comprehend the unseen laws of the universe. Did not your Master Jesus tell you that "You reap what you sow" and "Ask and ye shall receive, Seek and ye shall find, Knock and the door shall be opened?" Did he not tell you again and again that he will always be there to help you? Listen well, My child.

More is happening. Much will be occurring and your faith is your anchor in the midst of the chaos you will observe. Your faith and steadfastness in the midst of chaos will be the anchor for others who have not your faith. Know this and prepare.

This is, of course, the reason for the Corps groups. They are to know that they know when those around them are taking faltering steps and questioning our Father. You will know and you will help others to know. All of you. It is our purpose. We do not need to teach you what is in the Urantia Book. You have a wonderful textbook. Read it. Study it. Digest it!

My Friend,

achiventa has released a directive to teach all groups about listening. Listening is more than hearing words. It is an attempt by the listener to hear the motive and intentions of the speaker, to learn the perceptions of the speaker and to relate to the communication as if you were actually understanding from that perspective.

Each of you is the culmination of all that you have ever heard or experienced. Prior to that you had the collective experiences of all ancestors given to you through your genetics. Some of these will become conscious and some will remain hidden forever. It does not matter. Your life experience is the record of how you react to all stimuli received genetically, experientially, or spiritually.

Because no two of you have had the same exact ancestors, nor the same exact experience thus far in your mortal careers, then no two of you will ever react the exact same way to all words spoken here. Many of you are hearing differently the very lesson I am giving you now. If you are male you conceive different meaning to my words than if you are female. If you are young you give different meanings to my words than if you are older. If you are a positive person you perceive the teachings differently than if you are by nature negative or skeptic. If you are in balance in your mortal mind and emotions and personality then you will perceive this differently than one who is unbalanced emotionally, uneducated or have physical hormones and energy disharmony. You are affected by the foods which you ingest which make up your chemical balance. You are affected by the thoughts you have. And you are affected by the physical handicaps or aches or pains which you suffer. See? These all contribute to who you are right now.

Right now I am teaching about listening. Each of you are hearing it from your viewpoint of emotions, attitude, and electro-chemical balance or imbalance and your memories of previous exposure to the theme of listening.

Perhaps you were chastised early in life for not listening? Perhaps you were told early in life that you were a good listener. Perhaps you are preoccupied by your reply to the speaker even while the speaker is still formulating their words! Some of you apprehend what is going to be said before the person who is speaking knows quite what they are going to say. Some of this is due to what you call esp and mental telepathy. Some of this is caused by your density and inability to open your mind to what is really being said and you have already reacted to what you think is being said.

Mind you well. Learn to listen to one another. Learn to listen to yourself. Last week you were given a lesson in how you do not listen to one another. From this came chaos and misunderstanding and name calling. Were you each to listen to what is said so that you can respond instead of react you would hear differently. Were you each to listen and think about what was said before being eager to agree or disagree, you might find your opinion enlightening. So many of you see things so differently a few hours, or days later, but by then it is too late to contribute wholeheartedly and spontaneously to the discussion which you so quickly jumped into. Perhaps you did not vocally express your agreement or disagreement, but silently jumped just as far off track as the one who vocalized. Do not judge one another. Judge only yourselves. When you see yourself off center, gently bring yourself back into the arena of listening before going off on tangents of your imaginations!

We will make this session very short so that you can practice conversing. Speak with one another and gently help each to express his inner most thoughts and concepts. We are not interested in opinions and reactions, only thought out responses to our teachings. We are not here to teach you facts and figures you can find in your Urantia Book. We are not here to prophecy and emotionally excite and stimulate you. We are not here to gather you into groups to hear us expound about our thousands of your years experience and observations. We are here to teach you to expand your consciousness. We are here to teach you how to think and how to teach others to think. We are here to enable a few to encounter the phenomena announcing a new world order and for those few to know how to share this with others until the whole population of Urantia expects more than another day of dog-eat-dog and "I'll make hay while there is hay to get" or "do unto others before they do it to me". These are misunderstandings of great truth. Truth which would enable you to be living in the relative peace of Light and Life. However, because of the rebellion and default, there are many such evils which we must cancel and erase from your perceptions. Are you ready to erase them?

Are you ready to move out of comfort into discomfort of growth and into spiritual perfection? How then can you tarry there enclosed in your little private world of perceptions and preferences and opinions and withdraw when a new concept is offered to you? How then can you allow an enlightening textbook such as you have to gather dust through your lack of discipline to tackle the concepts and increase your knowledge of the cosmic life around you? How can you not be eager to search and find? How can you not be eager to ask and hear? How can you not be willing to walk through the door after you have knocked and found the door open? How can you casually come here week after week and be content with having us give you whatever we do and then go back into your small worlds and not pursue and translate and interpret and push yourself into greater awareness? How can you speak brotherhood and fellowship, yet close yourselves into tight knit little groups of agreement or disagreement? How can you perceive what I am to say to you before I have said it?

Did not your Master Jesus say to you: "Freely you have received, therefore freely give?" Does this mean only money to you? Does this mean only material things? Does this mean anything to you? Think on these things. Father asks only that you give yourself. What does service mean to you? Is service that action which you do in sacrifice of one's own comfort? Or is service what you are? Jesus said "What is done to the least of these, it is done to me."

Do you feel that to become ambassadors or apostles or disciples you must give up your life entirely? On the contrary. To become ambassadors or apostles or disciples, you must give up your ownership of all that you have been given. If you are impressed with inspiration, give it to Father, by sharing it with one another. If you are given an answer to prayer, give it to Father, by sharing it with one another. If you are stimulated into higher consciousness by a simple thought, share it with one another. When one shall grow, all will grow. It is done in this manner. Always. Why is a group of 2 close intimate friends different than a group of 15 close intimate friends? There seems to be a difference for you mortals. Why is sharing with a large group of like-minded God-seeking individuals "bragging" and "acting unseemly" according to your religionists while sharing the exact same experience or inspiration with 1 or 2 individuals of like-minded God-Seeking considered "authentic?" This I ask of you. Think on these things. The group of 15 or so who make up your Corps is to be considered just as intimate and close knit as a group of 2 or 3. Think on these things. Express how you think this can happen. Express this with 2 or 3 of those around you. Then when you have discussed it among the groups of a few, discuss it in the group of many. Do this for the experience and the realization of the truth which lies herein. You will see!

Large groups are only frightening when they are incorporating many diverse personalities, some of whom may disagree vividly with your expressions. When the large group is of complimentary and compatible personalities which are seeking the same goal, then they are not like strangers -- even though they may contain strangers.

This is not a lesson for the shy quiet ones, a term you of this group often use to separate yourselves from the noisy, brave ones. This is a lesson for each of you. Those who are noisy and share the most are often found as the most self-centered ones. I did not say selfish. I said self-centered. There is a difference. A self-centered person can be the most selfish individual in the entire universe! When you are self-centered, it means that your life and your experience in the only really important thing in your mind and heart and emotions. Anything which shakes you out of this concept of self interest comes to you as negative and destructive. Yet, you can be self-centered and be one of the most aware and generous persons in the universe! This means that from your self center of comfort and concern, you can reach out to help or enlighten, but you are unable to get out of yourself, out of your self-centered comfort to "walk in the shoes of the other" for even an imaginary trip! Do you not see, ye of much faith? Do you not hear, ye of much faith? Do you not act, ye of so much good.

I am not talking about feeding the poor, or giving shelter to the homeless, or donating large sums of money to the foundations to find cures for many of society's social ills and physical disease. I am talking about you. You, where you think. You, where you are. You, where you live.

How many times have you asked and received answers, which you then dismissed as a mistake?

When you were told "protect the helpless" did you then prevent them from being stimulated at all? When you were told "to be kind" did you then hide the underlying discomfort of the others? When you were told to "beware of psychic" did you change the word? When you were told to "listen" you heard the words but not the intent which was given to you? When you were told "we do not want to make puppets out of you" or "take away your free will" did you turn this into an inability on our part. When you were told to practice writing, typing, speaking or visualizing, from the higher viewpoint -- your Thought adjuster, God or even your teacher -- did you say "I can't" or "I did, but nothing happened?" Where is your expectations. How many of you recently did a good deed and then regretted it because it caused you a loss, or frustration? How many bless the challenges and stumble blocks in your life experience given to enable you to realize your ability to overcome and step beyond your limited viewpoint at the time the challenge or stumble block came to you?

Your Master Jesus said to you: "The poor you will have always." Has this not proven to be true? What is poor? Lack of money? Lack of opportunity? Lack of assistance? Lack of knowledge? Lack of spirituality? What is poor?

I am not asking any of you in this corps to step out and do magnanimous things for those who have less than you do. I ask you to listen to one another, to share with one another, to be prepared when He comes to you. Ask yourself: "What am I doing right now, today, in my life experience for tomorrow's spiritual growth?" "What am I doing to live up to my Perfect Potential?" "What am I doing to put stumbling blocks into my own pathway?" "Where do I want to be in my mind, emotions and experience next year at this time.

Are you, as the apostles did, expecting that when Michael comes into physical manifestation, thinking all will be different in a twinkling of an eye? Do you think that if things are not working out in harmony right now they suddenly will? Do you think that if you are consistently thinking negative or pessimistic thoughts that they will be replaced by positive, affirmative thoughts without any growth on your part? Think on these things.

When the Master returns will you have a role as teachers of many? Will those teachers be worthy of their hire? What kind of students will you have? What kind of teacher will you be?

How can this Corps of other like-minded God-seeking individuals help you be the teacher you would wish to be? How can this Corps of other like-minded and God-seeking individuals help you with the students who are lazy, rebellious, or misunderstanding? What is the purpose of this Corps for you?

I tell you. Think on these things. You must ask if you really wish to be a part of this Corps. Or, are you committed as long as this is something "new" or something "special" or something "not everyone else knows about." What is your agenda? If it is to the Will of Father and not the will of your ego, then what are you willing to do if asked?

Think on these things. This is not a light decision to be made because all of those you respect are making the decision. This decision may bring temporary pain or ostracization or suffering to you. If your minds and hearts and emotions are in balance with Father, then this suffering will be unnoticed. If your minds and hearts and emotions are in balance with the world, this will be excruciating and you will likely be unsuccessful. Success is not important, but your contribution to the entire Corps is important.

Think on these things. Each of you is unique. Each of you has made a commitment in your minds and hearts. Each of you is waiting expectantly for an assignment. Each of you is willing for the Will of the Father to carry you through whatever comes. You have said so. You have prayed for such. You mean it! This carries much responsibility. Not just for yourself but for those other members of the Corps. Your piece is important. Your place is important. Your participation is important. Your part is necessary for the whole.

I am delighted to be working with all of you. I have visited with each of you and you have spoken your heart words to me many times. I know your intentions. My intentions are to help you carry through with your intentions. Your free will has brought this to you. Your free will can propel or dam the flow of divine energy at any point.

Can you know that no matter what is said or expressed by any one individual of this group -- or any other group like this -- is acceptable and usable and non-attacking if you see it with open perceptions without reaction to the words? Can you know this? Can you accept your brother's expression of personality as he is? Can you love and be loved without expectations, without conditions, without animosity or labeling? Can you work together in harmony? Can you play together in harmony? Can you think together in harmony? Can you dream and imagine together in harmony? Can you be and let be in harmony? Think on these things.

You have received many lessons this week. Now go and study them. Use each lesson to climb many levels of thought in consciousness and realize a bit more of your own potential. Only you can discern for yourself from these lessons. Remember, each personality, each attitude, each physicality, hears and sees and perceives on a different level. This is the secret to why there is so much diversity and why there is so much misunderstanding in the world. This is what causes confusion, if you do not listen with focus on God, rather than your experience when another speaks.

Practice this week to hear with God's ears, see with God's eyes, perceive with God's viewpoint, for just a few minutes each day! Imagine, if you will, that Jesus is walking beside you and sees and hears and knows every word you think, say or express. See Him as a tiny figure sitting on your shoulder experiencing everything you experience and knowing every thing you know. See if this enlightens you. Remember we (and Jesus) are not here to judge, only to observe. Allow us to let you observe yourself through us, if you will. Never evaluate yourself from your viewpoint. It is faulty. You do not have the ability to judge or evaluate yourself. Only the decision to give your utmost to the intent of the exercise. Whether you fail or succeed does not matter. The exercise of observing yourself comprises the lesson. If you perceive that you have failed, if you perceive a better way to be, then by all means correct your actions or thoughts accordingly. That is a decision. That counts. Do not however, feel worthless or as a failure. You must use it only as a means for enlightening you as you go through the experience, to get the most from the experience.

Think on these things. I will be with you as you expand your consciousness and perceptions. Know not that the Father loves you? Know not that you are a unique creation with a superb destiny? Believe it. It is true.

Let us together experience the joy of the exhilarating ride of adventure and faith as we go about the Father's business. Farewell, My friends.

Lor-El:

My Friend,

You do not ask in writing but I hear it in your heart. Remember that All things work together for good for those who love the Father. Your troubled confusion will soon pass and your sunny disposition will return and you will express the gains in perspective which you have made! Know this and rejoice. Unto all lives a little rain must fall. Just as the water falling from the skies causes drainage problems, and protection problems, and pollution problems, it also cleans Urantia, feeds and nourishes the plants which in turn provide food, clothing and shelter for you, and helps you to appreciate the sunshine again!

Remember this: "The only real affliction is not to be afflicted at all." If your motive is right, then you must go on in faith and trust that you are BEing what you are made to BE.

There are no two Beings who are exactly alike. This becomes more apparent when you begin to experience life, then respond to life pulses. Therefore words you express --whatever the motive -- can nourish one, while flooding another out of comfort. It is not yours to premeditate which response will manifest. It is only yours to follow your guidance.

Remember, each has Free Will. Free Will is a creation's unalienable, uncompromising right! No Being, anywhere in God's creation, including God, will jeopardize your Free Will.

It is true that circumstances of your experiences can seem to manipulate you into corners you would not prefer to find yourself. However, your decision about what you do -- or do not do -- with that circumstance is altogether yours. From the time you make your first decision or choice into higher consciousness, until you make your last choice, it is always by your free will.

All men are created equal in the spiritual sense of the word. Spirituality is the eternal value of each choice you make. You will become what you choose to become and that is your free will.

In time, there are circumstances which seem to interfere with your choices. Sometimes you have to choose between two possibilities, both of which you have no use for. Those possibilities may be the consequences of another's free will choice, or may have been "arranged" by your unseen helpers, but what you do about those possibilities is the demonstration of your Free Will through your decisions.

Yes, we sometimes impress ideas upon your conscious mind, but again, it is up to you to accept them or disregard them. And you know you often disregard them or change them into acceptable rationality's. It matters not what circumstances you deal with, when making your choice you can take the stress away by focusing upon those circumstances from a higher viewpoint. Step outside of your perceptions, opinions, pre-conceived ideas and know with perfect trust that, if these circumstances were arranged by your unseen helper it was done so in your best interest for the eternal value of the lesson, not the difficulty or ease for the mortal form or emotions. If they were not arranged by your unseen helpers then through previous choices you have moved into the place of discomfort. But know, even if your actions brought you to that point, you have to activate your free will choice for those circumstances to fade from your consciousness.

You are quite distracted today. It is difficult to let these words flow through you, isn't it? This is because you have allowed your consciousness of doing the Father's Will fall into the levels of pleasing your fellows on the path. You are little good when you allow your focus to plummet into depths of human doubt and insecurities. Remember, even now you have the free will choice to stay in that attitudinal frame of reference, or to move out of it into the higher planes on the spiral of consciousness which moves you toward the realization of your perfection. What is your choice, my friend.

Take time now, to study the situation and relieve your human fears. Then return and we will continue the lesson. If you cannot, we will get the lesson through another. And that too, is perfectly accommodating for your free will. Listen to your heart. As Aflana often says: You know that you know. I am with you in a place of trust and security. Know that always.

My Friend,

Do not concern yourself overmuch about these misunderstandings. We know your motives. We know you can withstand the onslaught of even the aggressiveness of those who think so differently from you and perceive your actions from a different level of consciousness, than you yourself know you are. Do not doubt yourself! You are being what you are. There are egos in us all. Even those who are your teachers are working on many levels including the ego level.

Remember a few weeks ago when we told you that Michael gave us the directive to cleanse the underlying evils inherited from the rebellion and default from all who are to serve in the Corps of Destiny. Do you wish to be worshipped? Do you wish to be so right all of the time that those who have not progressed so far will hang on to your every word as if it is gospel? Do you wish for your communications and personal letters to become the bible of the future? Of course not! Wake up. We are cleansing the consciousness of all of the members of the Corps. If they have the wrong perceptions of anyone, they will attack at the first or second or twenty-fifth opportunity.

Unless we can use someone as yourself to bring these qualities to the surface we cannot create an awareness to enable the Father's attitude to manifest. This must be done in small groups -- the family, the neighborhood, the community groups, the Urantia Groups and then we can begin to see this manifested in the bigger groups of the state, national and international level.

The Father's perspective of Love expressed in relationships includes:

1. All intents and motives are for Truth, Beauty, Goodness.
2. All beings trust that each comes from intents and motives of Truth, Beauty and Goodness.
3. All beings work together to express Truth, Beauty and Goodness
4. All being accept other's trust of Truth, Beauty and Goodness
5. All wait on the Father's expression of that Trust to "fix it" when you think it is imperfect.

The Father's Love is expressed as:

1. Sincerity, serenity, service, and confidence in Him.
2. Focus on his viewpoint.

The Father's sincerity is expressed as:

1. Honesty, integrity, earnestness and openness.
2. Focus on his viewpoint.

The Father's serenity is expressed as:

1. Composure, calmness, peacefulness, amicable, accommodating, considerate, thoughtful attentive and reflective.
2. Focus on his viewpoint.

The Father's Service is expressed as:

1. Assistance, beneficial, useful, effective and worthwhile,
2. Focus on his viewpoint.

The Father's Confidence is expressed As:

1. Faith, purpose, self-possession, trust and hope.
2. Focus on his viewpoint.

For every action or proposal of action, ask yourselves: "Will this bring me closer to God? Will this bring God closer to me?"

Go and think on these things. Only you know your true motives. If those motives were inside the above guidelines, then it may be that you need some ability to look from an outside viewpoint. Perhaps your intentions are pure, but your expression is confused?

Your family group cannot help you find your self expression. Only you can do that. What others perceive comes from their own perspectives -- not the Father's. Think on these things.

Until you call on us again, Farewell.

My Dear Friend Lor-El,

Even when I am out of touch with reality -- higher consciousness, I am amazed at the lessons which come through. Thank you. Thank you! You are really a good teacher. I may have had difficulty allowing your thoughts to flow through my fingers earlier today, but what did come through was beautiful. Thank you.

Do you have anything more to say about any of this? Do you wish to continue the lesson on Free Will? I am your servant. I wish to be about the Father's business.

Lovingly, Patije

My Friend,

You are about the Father's business even when you are in doubt. Do you not see how we use you to enable others to see and become aware? Even when they direct their doubts toward you, they are growing in awareness. You are right to allow them the growth and not resist. Did not your Master Jesus say to you: "Agree with you adversary while you are in the way of him?"

You need poise, Patije. You do not think well on your feet. You are better to get out of the way and allow us to use you than to get alarmed and begin to have doubts. Do not buy into the labels that others give you. These are our business. It is not for your fellows to judge you anymore than you are to judge them. They are coming to you for something. Do you not see that we have brought them to you because you are a benign place to vent their angers and frustrations? Hear us. Open up your eyes and allow us to tell you. You have done nothing wrong. You have expressed your concerns in a way which is making many think twice about their participation. The one who accuses you is seeing herself as if in a mirror and needs to do this. We are trying to help her but she refuses to see. She will be guided and helped considerably because you have allowed us to use you.

You must not freeze up and feel unsafe to share your personal transmissions from us. They too, have a purpose higher than your ego could possibly comprehend. There is no self-glory in them. They are all in touch with us. They are all teaching tools for us to use with others who are less glib and free to allow our teachings to flow through them.

Look at the progress  has made through your sharing! She will be groomed for your clarification. You will see. We are providing you with the friends and confidants you have prayed for all your life. This group on Thursday is the safe place for us to begin to shape and mold those who are destined to be your cosmic family. Do not shy away from them. Do not fear them. Do not take offense when they are growing and throwing out their own stuff. We have a purpose in all of this. Remember, Michael has asked this to happen and we need to use those of you who are strong in your own faith to get through. Did not Michael tell you that you could withstand the onslaught of Caligastia with little more than a flinch while you got your feet under you? His only advantage would be the surprise. As we have shown you this week. The surprise and suddenness of the attack you perceived was only our showing you how strong your faith really is. You are well grounded in what we have in mind. You are not far wrong. The agenda is ours, not yours. We want all to participate and there will be times when we will want to transmit this through you and we need your strength of convictions to stand firm when you are seemingly attacked. This attack is not as vicious as you perceive it to be. You had an added bonus to make you angry on this one. Labels are a no-no to you and when a label was attached to you, especially one which you misunderstood, you got way out of balance. Now you see through the calmness of prayer and meditation that it was mostly a bluster and threat and had no bite behind it. Only the barb you reached out to snag it to yourself. This is your lesson.

Allene has the right, unbiased, neutral perspective on this. She is receiving much from us and has gotten the freedom so quickly because you shared yourself and your transmissions with her freely. She does not stand in awe of you. She does not hang on to your every word. She is neutral and visionary, as you are. She sees the destiny and purpose of the entire group making up this Corps, as you do. Each of you must encourage and affirm one another and not be afraid to be truthful and honest and open with one another. She will not harm you. She is grounded in Father's business as you are.

Much can be done with this group. There is no repair work needed. The patchwork of repair was what was keeping it from growing. There will be some natural attrition and some who would surprise you may leave. But that is ok. They are not far from us. We will go right on teaching and guiding and one day you will all be united in loving service once again. Did you not see this before? You will see it many times.

The one who perplexes you has many things to deal with and it is easier to label it in you than to deal with it in one's own being. She is finding fault with her entire world and is not getting the affirmation she needs. She, too, will soon see that her ego doesn't need affirmation. If she is working for the service of Michael -- and she is-- then she will not need to "fix" anybody either. You will see.

You are to continue to Be who you are! Do not let this hamper your expression of the Father. You are able to trust us regardless of what those around you think and you must continue to do this. If it bothers some, then they have work to do in their own house and cannot shift the blame unto you forever. You know that you know and you do not need reaffirmation of this. Let each deal with your personal messages as they wish to do so. If they do not want to share and learn from them, they will not take them home, nor will they read and study them. That is their loss. We are working through you to help others when they reach this place in their own growth. Naturally, they will not learn the lesson until they get to that curve in the road, but if they have read your messages, some part of it will stick to their subconscious memory banks and be of use to them then. Go forth in joy and recognition that you have passed through this test. Not well when you were emotionally out of balance, but you did pass through without damage to yourself. That is the important lesson here for you. Govern yourself accordingly. Do not always jump in to defend your motives. We know your motives. Those others in the group will soon see through the accusations and see the motives so let it be. Allow each to be what they are.

Love all we send to you. Comfort all who come to you for comfort. Do not try to "fix them" but continue to share your own obstacles of growth.

June 27, 1992

Dear Friend,

Today is a beautiful day! And you should be glad to be alive in it! Change your gloomy perceptions and know that you are on your way to Paradise! Good is coming to the entire planet of Urantia! All of the peoples will know soon.

There is much chaos. There has been some flooding, earthquakes, famine, draught, and other disasters from mortal viewpoint. Much loss of life has been and will be prevented on such a large scale. This chaos is caused by the energies released into the earth and the atmosphere which has to be accommodated by nature. Some shifting must occur. This causes weather consequences. This causes shifts in the earth's crusts. This causes many ripples of effects throughout the entire globe. Man must wake up! Man must see what his thoughtless scientific experimentation and careless materialization is causing suffering to all his brothers and sisters on the planet! Those who are not yet even born and those not old enough to have influence will save the destruction. They have no choice. But lo! the awakening in the Morontia Worlds for those who have selfishly denied others their rights upon the planet! You have a word here, Karma, which does not mean accumulated debits and credits against a soul wanting to reincarnate upon the planet, but rather the accumulation of collective unconsciousness. This will be changed.

Mankind is becoming aware of the benefits of collective consciousness and taking a personal interest in thinking for himself and acting to benefit the good for everyone. Those who perpetuated the false sense of security rationalized as "I'll get my good and who cares about someone else's good" or "I'll get my good by taking it away from someone else" fell into the trap of playing games with reality. They tampered with unseen universe laws that began a series of corrections which will initiate actions which will take those very ones by surprise. Everything they have accumulated under these whims and lack of responsibility for the family of God will have much taken from them. Their material success will leave them bankrupt when they become aware that they have not nourished and fed their souls for growth on morontial and spiritual levels. They will awaken. They will know. They will set out to correct the damage they have done. They will be compelled to make efforts to undo the mischief they have caused, by their own realization of what their actions really did while they played their games upon Urantia.

Fear not. All is well in the Father's Kingdom. The first aid for this "broken" part of the Universe will quickly show improvement to its condition. You will see great strides in humanity's attitudes and actions in your short life time. Look! See! Be aware! More will quickly come to higher consciousness! Even you, who have consistently asked for guidance and direction will rise in consciousness to levels you would not yet even comprehend.

Do not get stuck in thinking from your mortal perceptions. Look at your group: Each comes from a different walk of life, a different perspective, a different set of experiences and a different set of opinions. Do not each of these already see expansions of their horizons of hope and expectations? And it has only been a few short months of their lifetimes that they have had the revelation of the Urantia Book. And, an additional few short months that we have made ourselves known to them.

Rise up! Take up your bed of thorns and walk! Tuck your troubles under your arm and go forward in faith! Your faith will see you through! It will come to you, just as you are ready to receive. If you are expecting troubles, challenges, failure, you will receive such. If you are expecting joy, challenges and success, you will recognize new Truth, Value and Beauty in your walk of life!

Personality is perfect. There can be no change in personality. It is a gift of God. You cannot correct, nor alter personality. You can only rise in consciousness and awareness and recognize the perfection. As you are aware of another step, you then live that level until you become aware of the next step. In that way you are led up the spiral of perfection until your potential perfection is revealed to you! As you go, you are changing in perceptions and opinions and awareness. Those around you must be aware of the changes and allow those changes to occur. You must grow. You must allow others to grow. You must not retain yesterday's perceptions of those around you. All are changing so quickly that if you had not changed with them, you would think there had been a miracle. Many of you are on different levels of awareness of your potential. This does not mean some are ahead of others or behind others. Some lead the way. Some act as inspirations and even, adversaries, for the stimulus for others to grow at the same pace.

We are using each of you in the study groups to help the others to grow. Some will think they are being pulled backwards into yesterday's thought patterns by the perceptions of the others in the group. Some will be reluctant to change perceptions. Some will come screaming and hollering to the point of perception exchange, but all will come! Fear not lest you slip into old worn out places of consciousness. Go forth. Go forth knowing you are on an upward path in parallels to the others. The group will grow at a relative pace, blending and creating new levels of thought while struggling to maintain composure and self identity. If this gets off center, there will be some ego struggles of powerism and protectionism, but do not concern yourself with this when it happens. Just continue to keep your eyes and heart on your goal of doing the Father's Will and focusing on God's viewpoint and these trouble spots will soon recede into yesterday's challenges. You will see. All are God's children. He is not a respecter of persons.

All are on their way to Paradise. All must have certain experiences and basic faith. We will do everything we can to cause this experience and faith to grow and enrich. We will not tip toe nor pamper those who wish to take it easy and not stimulate themselves to grow with the rest of the group. I do not say this will hurt their personal progress to Paradise. Only, I do say, that they may not keep up with those who are open to challenging themselves and stretching beyond comfort to follow where we lead.

Each is to look only to themselves. We will make you aware when we want you to learn something. If you seem to be disturbing the other's sense of comfort, maybe we are using you to move them out of that comfort which is retarding their growth and help the group on. If someone is disturbing your comfort then we are working to move you through that into a discomfort of new growth or realization of new levels of Truth, Beauty and Goodness! Never doubt for a moment that you are doing something wrong. You are what you are. They are what they are. The techniques and societies rules of conduct are for material civilizations. You can be very deft at living within these rules. But they do not always invite you to stretch yourself into levels of discomfort in order to grow into higher consciousness of God's will and Divine Flow. They are comfortable routines which make mortals comfortable while adjusting to one another in material relationships.

We ask you to move out of comfort zones of material relationships. We ask you to move out of comfort zones of routine behavior and accepted action. Move out in faith. You cannot get to higher levels without the effort of taking steps UP! You must move up! If you are not stretching yourself into higher levels of thinking and feeling and responding and desiring to meet God, then you will sit forever in comfort and wait for someone to rescue you. We are a not a rescue remedy. We have come to rescue, but we intend to help you move through your relative comfortable discomfort into the chaos of moving and then into the realms of knowing your personal identity as a child of God!

Our rescue of Urantia necessitates moving thousands upon thousands of relatively comfortable, but constantly complaining, individuals -- perSons of God -- into the recognition that they have responsibilities toward the brotherhood, toward the planet's rescue. You cannot sit back forever and wait for someone else to "do it" for you. You have all agreed to take on this new task. You have all expressed your desire to do the Father's will. You have all agreed to look at the experiences of your daily life from the Father's viewpoint. You have all agreed to desire the presence of Jesus by your side.

You have all agreed to make ready for the physical manifestation of the Melchizedeks and your Magisterial Teacher Son. How do you think this will happen? By being nice to one another. By giving bouquets of ego fluffing affirmations of self-worth to one another? Wake up! Only through hard work. Remember, we told you it would be hard but not difficult. The path is easy. The Light of the goal shines before you. The hope of attaining Light and Life is yours NOW! All you have to do is move towards it! Do this by opening up your concepts. Do this by allowing one another to grow. Do this by not limiting and labeling one another. Do this by encouraging each to grow. So what if it makes you uncomfortable? Did Michael say that it was easy? Did he wait around for years and years to prepare his Apostles Peter, James and John to be ready? No! He prepared them, by making them uncomfortable, giving them concepts they could not quite grasp nor accept, stimulating them into growing beyond their comfortable limits of society rules of conduct, religious leader's recommendations and family's rejections. He led them! He led them in spite of their resistance. He took them forward while they were still fighting among themselves to decide whether they wanted to go or not. How many times did they disagree with him? How many times were they under the wrong impressions of where Jesus was going? How many times did they look ahead and project different methods of proceeding than what Jesus accepted for them? How many times did they reject those among themselves who dared to differ in opinions? Were they always right? Were they always wrong? Jesus taught that Love, love, love, love was their method, Truth their goal, Service their action, and led them forth into discomfort and chaos to stretch them into serviceable emissaries for himself and his teaching.

You too, are destined to be ambassadors, emissaries, apostles, disciples, followers of the Master. But you must be ready! He cannot come until a few are ready to welcome him. He has asked us to prepare you -- not in the way of the worldly concepts, or the churchy concepts, nor the personal concepts of his coming. He has sent us to pull you through your comfort zones into serviceability for him when He comes.

Sarasota is a teaching headquarters. There are those who will train teachers. There are those who will become teachers. There are those who will remain students forever. There are those who will be the welcoming one's for new students and teachers who come. There will be those who will take care of the details of the headquarters. Which will you be? It depends on how much you can stretch yourself into new levels of commitment and willingness to act before it is comfortable. Comfort is not our goal. Stretching is. You must begin to think on levels you have not yet imagined. You must begin to love on levels you have not even considered at this time! You must begin to apply love in action before you understand the comfort zones of the one you are ministering to. You must begin to be willing to act without knowing why you are taking that action -- only that you wish to do the Father's will. You must be ready to take the risk of making a commitment without comfort levels of training. Step out in Faith! He that is here with you is stronger than the Fear which makes a coward of you. He that is coming will give you good beyond this comfort you are clinging to. Go forth in faith! Go forth in knowing that you know He is leading you! Go forth in chaos and discomfort to find peace and understanding beyond your imagination. It is only as far as the limits of your mind. Do you not know this? Have you not lived this? When will you believe it? When will you see it? You will recognize it when you believe it.

This is not a child's adventure. It is an adventure in self. But the results of your adventure into heights of before unknown self-abilities is to minister to the peoples of Urantia. It will result in bringing Urantia out of the darkness of being registered as a planet beginning on the journey for Light and Life into actuality of living the experience of Light and Life. Can you not see this? Are you so dense in the blindness of time and space to little comprehend the glory of which you are asked to participate? Have you not prayed all your life experience to see and know and be what God's Plan and Action is? Now you have the chance. Do not neglect your duty to go forth in faith and lay aside the doubts and darkness of your previous experience and move into the levels between your comfort zones and your perfection!

Rise up. Take up your cross of reluctance and fear and mortal doubts and go forth in faith!!!!!!!

All of God's kingdom is yours for the asking. You have asked! The door is open. The opportunity is before you. You have sought and found. Now do you not want to take the last step from where you are to where you want to be? It is but one small step for you, but a giant step for the whole of Urantia's movement into its destiny! You have been selected to be given this opportunity in response to your prayers to the Father. Your cries and your yearnings have been heard and now you are standing at the very doorstep of helping to create this for your fellow man with help from the teachers from Edentia and the rest of Michael's and Machiventa's and Abraham's staffs!!!!!!!

Wake up. Do you have eyes but cannot see? Do you have ears but cannot hear? Do you read your beloved Urantia Book but cannot comprehend the magnitude of what is beckoning to you? Do you desire knowledge and more persuasion but are unable to act upon it when it is given to you? Where is your faith? Is it sleeping in comfort when you could move into new levels of comprehension and service? Is it limiting itself to time and space and unable to fly above these limitations? All it takes is to step out and do it. Step out and try it. Live your faith. Such as you have will be multiplied untold times with each step. However, it will fade and die if not stretched into new avenues of spirit. Resiliency is the key to forward momentum. Resiliency is made from adapting to the new circumstances, of bouncing back when you have fallen, to exchange resistance for pliancy, to move from rigidity to flexibility, to find elasticity in your thinking when you feel intolerant or contentious. Sometimes you bounce from concept to concept until you find one which perpetuates your preconceived ideas or catapults you into new thinking arenas.

To be faithful one must move into new levels of consciousness with boldness. Boldness is fearless, daring, FORWARD movement. The opposite of Bold is polite, inconspicuous and cowardly. The verb shy means to flinch, recoil and balk when asked to move to new consciousness. Each of you has balked at one point of your assignment or another.

Does this make you shy? Each of you have made a daring decision to be here -- does not this make you bold? Each of you have many attributes of shyness and boldness and it is unimportant how full or how empty your cup of boldness or shyness is. What is important is what you do with these cups. Are you ready to fill one and neglect the other? Are you trying so hard to balance the two cups that you are spilling the contents of one while carefully managing the contents of the other? Ask yourself: "What cup do I want to express and intensify? Which cup do I want to give up?" I tell you truthfully that neither cup needs to be given up. However, if you retain them, they must be balanced in human emotions, in action, in Truth, Beauty and Goodness. The value of the cup is only as good as the fruits you manifest through it.

I say to you: Stretch your thinking into new levels of consciousness. Do it through your willingness to step out of relative comfort into the chaos of change and discomfort to enable you to move into comfort levels beyond your imagination! Be bold in your faith! Be willing to bend to your Higher Power. Allow your ego to be led into new levels of doing Service to the Father. Do not attempt to destroy ego. The personality needs ego to experience time and space.

Go forth now in faith of finding enrichment and enhanced thinking. Begin to think new thoughts. Turn away from recycling thoughts you've anticipated before. Refresh yourself with the clear sparkling water of Intellectual Meaning, Spiritual Value and Physical Harmony. We are here to rescue you -- if you choose to step out of the boat of safety into the waves of God's plan.

I have enjoyed these few minutes with you but will retire now to allow you to meditate on these truths. Enhance your fellows with these impressions by disseminating them joyfully. Do not hoard the teachings I give you. They are not for you alone. Many will hear Truth within themselves as they read and their spirits resonate on a level you cannot see. Many will come to know us and lay aside their fears of communicating with us by seeing how you do it. Many will have their experiences enhanced and validated by reading these teachings.

We regret that we cannot meet with the entire group each day. However, we are joyfully meeting with each individual who sets aside the time and place for us to join them in aspiring to participate in this joint venture. To each a part of the teachings are given. If all of the teachings could be united and blended each week, you would find a thread or ribbon of the same lesson through all of them. Each receives as he is willing. Each hears as he is ready. Each sees Truth as he asks for it. Encourage each to spend their 10 minutes (or more) daily in the silence with the Father and then taking up pen, keyboard, or tape recorder to translate the impressions received during or immediately following that time in the silence. Diligent discipline will enable all to grow and affirm one another's growth. While it is unnecessary for each of you to have affirmation, we know you humans like this. Somehow it gives you confidence to work the next assignment and each assignment is a step towards your potential perfection as an individual and a step towards a harmonious valuable meaningful cell in the Corps of Destiny for the group!

Upward and Onward is your byword for the week. Go forth in loving service even where discord seems to be the response! Farewell, my friends.

My Friend,

ou speak well for all. There will be vacillating and wavering as each hesitantly takes another step in faith! However, each is ready. I know whereof I speak! Never doubt the resiliency of your fellows. All will come. All will follow me to the next step in their spiral of perfection! Doubt not. You have each been selected for this opportunity because you are ready and have asked to be about the Father's business in your personal prayers and meditations. All will recognize this soon. Rejoice and lead the way! Your transmissions of my lessons are a beacon unto each.

Be diligent and do not neglect your own time in the silence with the Father. Lessons will be given as often as you request them. Remember this. We are bound by your Free Will. You make the decision to spend time with us or not. We are always there for you. There are enough teachers on the planet now that no one will be neglected when making earnest petition for communication with us. Be of good cheer! You are loved. All of you are blessed! All of you are loved! All of you are being guided as you ask. Go forth in preparedness for receiving truth, beauty and goodness. You will receive if you desire to receive. Keep the light where all can see it. Do not hide it ever for any reason. All must see and have the opportunity to draw close to find what they seek. Do not turn any away. All sincere honest seekers are welcome. Strangers can be intimate if they are drawn by the same light of Truth, Beauty and Goodness and are free of the evils of power, profit or prestige. So long, my friend, until next you call me.

MY FRIENDS,

Today the sunshine is bright and inviting! Today the Light of Truth is bright and inviting. What is it you want to hear today?

I have many lessons prepared to give to you. Today, I have not heard a particular thread of a subject in your asking in prayers and meditations and those of the individuals of the group. Do you personally have a request?

Lor-El

No, Lor-El. I have only my human need for affirmations, confirmations, relief of doubts and fears and my apprehension about the impressions I receive and disseminate to the others in the group. Is my boldness out of balance with my shyness? Am I being brazen and presumptuous when I should be polite and reserved? Am I doing what you would have me to do in order to be "about the Father's Business?" Can you give US some pointers on exactly how bold or shy we should be?

Lovingly, Patije

My Friends,

There is no criteria beyond what I shared with you a few days ago. Remember to balance and stop judging one another. You are not even capable of judging yourselves. If I use one of you to stimulate the thinking of another, if I use a few of you to shake a few others out of a rut of uneasy comfort, then you have served me well.

All is for the Father's Plan. All is as Michael directed when he gave the teachers their assignments. Those who have asked are being answered. Those who have sought, are finding. For those who have knocked, the door is now open.

It is your free will to make your personal or group decisions to enable you to walk through the doorway -- or to turn your back and walk away. You have, for some time now gazed through the open doorway and wished -- some of you wished very hard -- to find the boldness to step forth. A few have stepped over the threshold but remain close to the doorway as if they will skittish back into the uneasy comfort of the other side if their companions do not come along with them. Wake up! No one pushes. No one sells the Truth! No one compels you to be about the Father's business. Only your Free Will decision to follow Truth will bring you to the other side of doubt and anxiety, of fear and timidity, of affirmation and assistance in the next step of your journey to Paradise!

What is the Father's business? It is Perfection through experience. His desire is for each mortal and each being in the created Master Universe to begin to see its perfection. He yearns to help you step away from the darkness of the evils of fear and doubt, cruelty, oppression, hypocrisy, revenge, holding grudges, distrust, betrayal of trust, disloyalty, envy, conceit, mistaken judgments, and all of the other evils of out-of-balance emotions and perceptions! The Father has stirred for the purpose of bringing you into higher consciousness, to the place where you can see these evils as illusions of your mortal viewpoint.

Upon recognition of the evils of emotional and perceptual imbalance, you will move into a compelling spiritual gravity which will enable you to be drawn into perfection and pull Urantia into Light and Life behind you!

Your business, as ones who have asked for help in living the Father's will, is to reach out for the hands of God waiting to grasp yours as you step forward in faith!

You cannot will spiritual growth. It is a totally unconscious process. But you can stretch yourselves into a place where you have to rely on your faith. You can never get there being comfortable. You can make decisions which enable you to try something you've never done before. You can make the decisions which make you very uncomfortable but propel you into the spiritual gravity which catapults you into higher consciousness. You can never get there by being cautious when given the opportunity to step out in faith.

What you think about today will manifest itself into your thoughts tomorrow. What you choose today, will be brought into your experience tomorrow. What you act upon today will bring the level you base your decisions on tomorrow. There is a stepping-up process. Each mortal must make that decision, then take the first step, then persevere to the goal - standing face to face with Father!

Each tiny decision you make today moves you towards or away from your goal. You cannot stay in limbo or you will stagnate. Either you are moving forward by your decisions or you are slipping back further into material minds and away from your goal. You are not allowed to stagnate. Each decision or non-decision determines your progress. A non-decision is not making any decision, but waiting to see what happens, waiting to let things develop, waiting on something or someone else. A decision is making a choice to move from comfort into a little or a lot of discomfort in order to meet the mileposts of your goal. If the discomfort becomes overwhelming, slow down but continue to take steps forward towards your goal, not away from it.

If you want to bake a cake, you have a goal -- a finished cake ready to eat. If you intend to have the cake, you must make some decisions. The first decision is if you are going to do it now -- or later. The second decision, if the first decision is to do it later, is how much later. The second decision if the first decision is now, is to get up and move to the place where you do your baking.

Preparation for the decision was:

Do you have the ingredients you need?
Do you have the mixing bowls, measuring spoons, pans and equipment

Now, if you haven't prepared, you must go back to the first decision and make a different decision. Is this backsliding? Perhaps it is going a different direction. You are still going to bake the cake, but you have to prepare yourself.

In life, you have made the first decision to "be about the Father's business". What is your second decision? To do it now? or later?

If your second decision is to do it now, are you prepared? What must you do to prepare?

1. You must be prepared to make decisions.
2. You must be prepared to stick with the decision no matter the risks.
3. You must be ready to take risks.
4. You must live by your faith.
5. You must stretch yourself into growing.
6. You must allow others to change and grow with you.
7. You must know something about what the Father's business is.
8. You must find the tools and equipment you need to get there.

9. You must learn how to get up when you fall by mistake.

10. You must keep your eyes on the goal and everything you do must enhance your ability to get there

I want you to think about each of these steps and determine what you are willing to do to prepare yourself to be about the Father's business.

You must take into consideration what your destiny is and how you will get there. You must take into consideration what tools you have, what you will need, and how to get the additional ones. You must take into consideration who is helping you.

Aflana gave you an assignment to go into the Urantia Book and read about the personalities of the apostles. What their weaknesses and their strengths were, what they admired about Jesus. I tell you to do this again. Read the strengths. Identify your strengths. Read about their weaknesses. Identify your weaknesses. Read about what they admired about Jesus. Think about what you admired about Jesus. Think about and identify those attributes which you would like to possess or express.

Then begin to explore ways that you can express the qualities of Jesus which are admired. Begin to explore ways that you can enhance and increase your strengths. Begin to explore ways that you can eradicate or lessen the effects of your weaknesses.

Do this and return for more teaching. If this is done in honest sincere self-exploration, you will quickly see what it is you need to do to prepare for the task of being about the Father's business.

My Friend,

ou are right. This is a good day and you will receive a teaching tonight. You and I are acquainted, but the others must first get to know me. I have impressed each of them and some have recognized, others still have doubts about what they are receiving. This will soon pass. You will see.

I have visited each of my "students" and friends this morning and find them progressing in a fairly steady pace towards their perfection. One is certainly setting up blocks, but this will soon be history! Some are very kind individuals who wish to remain comfortable, but this too, shall soon be forgotten in the enthusiasm of what they will be learning. As I told you before, comfort zones are limiting. They must be pushed a little. These individuals have given their consent, shown their willingness to be about the Father's business, so almost without their being aware of it, they will begin to move out of their comfort zones and find that which they fear outside of their comfort zones is welcoming to them and will spur their growth tremendously. You must continue to encourage them.

There is one in your group which has made tremendous progress during these two weeks! I am quite pleased. You will be able to rely on that one's visionary concepts -- they are receiving them from us, the teachers. There is one which may choose to remain behind. Do not fault that one. Do not argue. Do not get into emotional or human horn locks. Each will be perfectly safe to progress in their own way. However, be kind but firm in moving the group forward and not allow them to decide to "wait" for that one to catch up or be ready to move forward. As they watch and observe they will suddenly make a wondrous leap in consciousness and with a blink of the eye be right where the rest of the group is, having lost no ground at all. Be patient, but do not wait. I tell you this because one will give a good argument for doing so. That one must not be allowed to sway the entire group, which that one is capable of doing.

Now then, I had intended to discuss enthusiasm with you. Especially in relationship to group dynamics. Your human minds tend to grasp at all of those historical experiences and perceptions and cloak them tightly around yourself to argue pro or con with a new thought. While one's enthusiasm can intimidate one with less enthusiasm, after being exposed repeatedly, that one intimidated one will "catch the enthusiasm" and join right in wondering how it happened.

It is imperative that each person in your cell group be allowed the opportunity to participate. It is also imperative that one who is ready willing and spontaneously participating be encouraged to be quiet at times. This is what makes the opportunity for all to speak and communicate their visions, thoughts, or impressions. There may be times when we will have to ask one to be quiet to enable us to encourage another to speak. Let us do this. No member of the group can do this without ego hurt filling the dead space afterwards, which will discourage rather than encourage another to speak.

Patije, are you able to communicate directions from us if you disagree with them? Yes, of course! We have seen this already. Now, I ask you, will you be able to transmit our impressions which you do agree with so much that one might think you were projecting your own concepts into the transmissions? I suspect you will do this if pressed, but will block the transmissions if you are not aware that we will ask you to do this in the near future. You have already been accused of putting forth your own agenda. This may well happen again. Your human ego has been hurt because your motives are so good that you have no idea of perpetuating your own thoughts as impressions from your teachers. I will try to guard you and transmit this through another, but if another will not do so, it will be necessary to transmit through you. We will strengthen you if you can keep your emotions balanced and not feel accused if the words are thrown out into the group to put your transmission down.

For this Cell of the Corp of Destiny to become ready for Machiventa, and Michael, they must each give their part of the teachings to the whole. This is done much easier if it can be done with enthusiasm among the group and received with enthusiasm.

When someone who risks giving of themselves often is greeted with boredom or disinterest, they will become reluctant to give anything more. If someone who gives his enthusiastic report of what is happening to them, and others feel this is all hoopla and spectacular stuff and do not give their reports of what happened to them at the corner store or in a chance encounter, then the one who gives the spectacular report loses enthusiasm and the energy of the whole group is somehow diminished.

This is why it is important for everyone in the group to give a report of at least one observation or happening in their own words about even the tiniest small step in awareness of the teachers, or Michael, demonstrating in their life experiences.

Remember, we know that you all come from different walks of life, different historical experiences, different perceptions, education's, and expectations. This is a group labeled by the diversity which presides within your relationships. We intend to shape unity in goals, unity in purpose, unity in accomplishments, unity in expectations out of this diversity if you all cooperate with us. You have said you are willing. You have expressed a desire in your private prayers to be about the Father's business. I tell you truly the Father's business is making a harmonious blending of all of your diversity into a unified working group who can put the benefits and purpose at the forefront, and shift one's personal discomfort to the side while working in the group. With us guiding and directing and shaping, this is the safe place to lay aside the one's preferences and stretch into the heights of adventure beyond one's comfort zones.

We have work for you to do. You are our hope of turning Urantia from a backward planet barely out of quarantine into one of light and perfection. This will be just as quick, or just as slow, as the willingness to join the movement is among your own and the other groups enlisted and even now enlisting in the Corps of Destiny! You are no longer reserves — you are active. In your military this means ready, willing and able to put aside personal pursuits to complete a job. Your job is to help us prepare this planet for Light and Life. This can be done only through working with small groups -- many at a time until we can accomplish among a few what needs to be done world wide. If we can harmonize your diversity into a perfectly loving harmonious whole, along with each of the other cells of this Corps, then we can begin to work on the rest of the population of the planet. Each small group will enlarge a little at a time the scope of the teachings until other small groups can catch the spark of brotherhood and join in the great movement towards Light and Life.

As long as you quarrel and bicker over petty stuff about one talking too much, one not talking enough, if one wants to talk they are just going to have to "butt in" (I believe your term was) and those who are uncomfortable will have to be accommodated in spite of those who are ready to stretch themselves into new levels of expression to be about the Father's business will have to be handicapped. Be done with this! It is human almost animal level stuff. You are greater than this. You are wiser than this. You are moving above others at this level. Let go of the comfort zone, move with enthusiasm into new levels of possibilities. Let us show you how by stepping out in faith.

Let me relay a story to you. Once there was a cold bitter night filled with snow and sleet and wind. There was a small flock of birds who were stranded in their journey south to warmer climates. They were forced out of the sky by the heaviness of the precipitation and onto the ground. Their little bodies could not stand up under the weight of the heavy snow and sleet beating down upon them. Some made it to the overhanging branches of a tree, but could not get a grip to hold on, and the wind kept covering them with new snow. They were almost at the point of giving up the last tenuous thread of life and falling into eternal slumber. About that time a farmer looked out upon the snow and saw the birds. He decided to try to help them. As he ran towards them, in fright they backed away, hiding in the shadows or trying to fly in the blinding snow. The farmer called softly and tried to encourage them by opening his barn door and turning on the lights so they could see. Still they remained in their miserable uncomfortable grasp on whatever they were clinging to for support. They were afraid of the farmer -- previous experience told them that these two legged creatures used noisy fire sticks to hunt them. Many of their flock had fallen out of the sky on their way south because of these two legged creatures. Trust him? No way! When he beckoned to the open doorway of his barn, they did not see the warmth and shelter away from the blinding snow storm and biting wind. They saw the trap. If they ventured into the barn, the door would be closed and they would never fly again! The farmer attempted to take a broom a shoo them into the barn, but they were too smart for that! They flew away a little further from the warmth of the barn and looked on in self-righteous knowing. So they remained outside in the cold and shivered almost to their last breath. One by one each began to weaken and fall over, unable to longer cling to its perch. When this happened the farmer would gently gather them up and take them to the barn where they would revive and call to their fellows. However, those outside were oblivious to the enthusiastic calls of their friends because their experience told them this was a trap. What they really needed was for the wind to die down, the snow to end and they could resume their flight southward. Then all would be all right. One brave little bird flew back outside to the others and cajoled and begged them to come see, but they would not listen to his enthusiasm for the trap. He flew in and out of the barn many times to show them it was not a trap, but shelter in the storm. A few followed him, but most remained outside in the cold. One by one they weakened and fell. Some were revived by the farmer's ability to carry them into the barn, some were not. They were so close to warmth and life and light. If only they had stretched themselves out of long held memories of previous experience and ventured into the discomfort of new thinking, they would have found not only comfort but new consciousness of the two-legged creature! While in their uncomfortable comfort, they chose to live or die in what they thought was freedom and never discovered real freedom. Where they thought there was discomfort, they would have found even greater comfort. If only they had opened their perceptions just a tiny bit and found the "safe place" was not where they were, but where they were able to move into!

When you can grow beyond your own perceptions and find new unlimiting experiences, you too will live in Light and Life. When you can put your goal of expressing the Father and following the Truth, Beauty and Goodness which your Father has for you, no matter where it takes you, through faith you will be set free. And others with you.

Do not look at others. Do not allow them to influence you to relax and be content with what you have. Do not compare yourself with others. Do not feel you have less or more than another. Each has exactly what he has chosen for himself from the lots he drew in his life birth, and has limited himself or projected himself, only by his own expectations and willingness to risk a little or not.

Remember your Master Jesus' story about the talents given to three individuals. One out of fear of loss buried his talent to keep it safe. One out of fear of loss invested it in a modest, but safe place, and made a little interest to increase the investment slightly. The other risked the whole lot and doubled his money! When the master returned and demanded an accounting, he took the talent buried and left idle and gave it to the one who would risk and gain.

I ask you: What are you doing with your talents?
What are your talents?

Do you desire anything?
Can you think?
Can you dream?
Can you imagine?
Can you plan a goal?
Can you speak?
Can you explain your plan to others?
Can you give reports of your progress in attaining the goal?
Can you give reports of your thrills and your disappointments along the way?
Can you tell them of your success or failure of attaining the goal?
Can you plan a new goal?
Can you speak of it?
Can you give reports of it?
Can you report the success and failures of your attempts?

Think on this. It is simple on the surface, but there is teaching there if you avail yourselves of it. I know whereof I speak.

You have expressed a desire to express Father in your life experience. You have expressed your willingness to come here for teaching and assignments. You have shown a commitment to Aflana's teachings and assignments. You have made the commitment to the group. This group is your cosmic family. You will be with them for a long time. There will be differences of opinions, but no one has any more power than any other. What are you doing here?

Why are you here? To watch? To listen? To grow? To express yourself? To express yourself for the benefit of the group? To practice being about the Father's business?

To practice reporting what you are doing in your daily experience to attain the ultimate goal of becoming a unified member of the cell of the Corps of Destiny? To find your own standing in the Corps? Then I tell you to Think! Give yourself! Express the which you have. Practice giving reports of your experiences. This will enable the whole group to grow.

You must decide: Will you do your part? I know you will. I have seen you in your private prayers, I have heard your expressions of God-likeness in your daily experiences. I know your heart and motive. Then, follow no man, but follow your faith. You have worked hard to develop your faith. You have experienced much and moved into ever higher spirals toward your perfection. Move forward in faith. Envision for tomorrow, not today. Set your sights on what is not the illusions of your mortal senses. Open your eyes to what is when you realize it. There is no time limits. We do not work in time. You need not work in time either. Know what is! Then it will be!

Your assignments are clear. They have been clear from the first. If you have studied Aflana's and Vanessa's teachings you will see those assignments clearly. Only your reluctance to stretch into new levels of thinking limit you -- ever!

Michael is calling you forward, gently and graciously He calls. Do you not hear Him? Go forth and take his hand. We will help you. We will guide you. Your only responsibility is to be willing, reach out of your comfort, practice what you know, and arrive! It is! Can you not see?

Until next you call on me, I say Farewell.

Although we have not heard you say it, we know what is in your heart. Did you not see a beautiful blending of our teachings in your group last night? We have been working in all areas with all members of this cell of the Corps and last night you saw it all come together in many sharings.

Ye of much faith! How can ye not trust the work that we are doing? All works together for good for those who follow the Father's Plan. Divine order always reins supreme when the heart is aligned with the Will of the Father. There is yet much to do. But all will come about.

Did you not see that you are no longer responsible for keeping things going? Just a little while longer and all will be aware of their impressions and be able to transmit them to disseminate for others. You will see much progress for the group.

Others may not understand, but we know you are affirmed by what occurred last night. We told you we were grooming others to transmit. Those right now who are unable to speak up will one day realize that they, too, are "hearing" the words just before they are spoken by the transmitter. It happened to Tom last night.

Let me one more time reassure you and all who come to you, that this is not a child's game. This will be gracious and gentle, but it will lead each of you out of your comfort zones just as rapidly as we can "push" you! Remember, you said you were ready. You were willing. Take up your thorny reluctance and "go with the flow" as many of you are prone to say.

Until you call on me again. Farewell.

Welcome to my presence. Many of you had enlightening experiences this weekend. I am well pleased with your manifesting love and peace where discord reigned over the weekend. You will see much progress made in the relationship because you did not stand on human etiquette but rather went the added mile beyond what was required socially. Do you not see the difference between man's rules of conduct and spiritual mota? Can you not see that the world would be in peace if everyone would set aside their preconceived ideas of "how much is called for" in dealing with others and just go all the way. It may seem like "eating my pride" "groveling my ego" to the mortal animal mind, but the results prove it is "planting seeds of Truth, Beauty and Goodness" in place of fear, anger, misperceptions and misunderstanding. Who would not enlighten a small child who misunderstood? Who would not enlighten a close friend who misunderstood? Why not then, a stranger, an enemy, an adversary, a cantankerous relative? You need not get their approval of your peacemaking explanations. You plant the seed, we will do the rest. They may never tell you they appreciate your efforts. They may never make a complete turn around. However, they will probably stop harassing you, or causing you frustration. And, they will be candidates for our ministrations.

To swallow the biting or defensive words one feels is not an easy task for anyone --least of all any of you who have lived the experience of this planet, Urantia, where the consequences of the rebellion and the default have worn themselves so long. But it is bliss to rise above the petty differences and see them as the pettiness they are, isn't it! You have traversed this lesson well. Do you not see that we prepared you for it through the past few weeks in the relationship with your dearest friends and cosmic family members? Now, you are able to function outside that cosmic family circle in a loving, non-threatening way with those who have not the understanding and affirmation of higher consciousness! See you not what you have just learned? Look! Know! You are what you are because of the experiences you have had. Was it not easier to go through the experience with a friend, then it would have been with a relative or neighbor or an in-law who was not trying to reach the heights of Truth, Beauty and Goodness?!?

This is an example of what the Cell group of the Corps of Destiny is! This harmony of reasoning, forgetting, allowing, growing, accepting, loving, and being! Tell your fellows of this lesson. They will then tell you of their lessons. Freedom to share, begets freedom to share. If one openly talks about his challenges, shortcomings, and overcomings, then others will feel safe to do the same. It is imperative that all feel this freedom to share the growth of higher awareness in this group. For now it is necessary only to demonstrate these qualities earned in the small group. From time to time, there will be incidences outside the group which will be dealt with almost automatically because of the experience of dealing within the group. Do you not see?!?

When you reach the Morontia levels of existence, these experiences and your reactions and responses to them, will be humorous to you. Try now, to step back from the out-of-balance emotional reaction of the experience while you are in the midst of it and respond from a calm, poised, thought-through viewpoint instead of reacting emotionally as you have done all of your life! You will begin to see changes in your reactions! Where you were once out-of-balance for weeks, you will now suffer the imbalance only days! Where you were once out-of-balance for days you will now suffer the imbalance only hours! Where you were once out-of-balance for hours, you will now suffer the imbalance for only minutes! This can only happen if you are willing to put yourself out just a little bit each time. Each time you go within for guidance and calmness and respond in honest sincerity instead of reacting in frustrated anger or fear, you will have moved higher on the spiral towards perfection.

This is our goal. You are being moved rapidly towards fusion. It will be a very slow process of fusion, because we want to retain you here on the planet. It is new, it has not been done before. We will rapidly pull you through the lessons of the Mansion worlds -- the lessons of accommodating one another without power struggles, without sacrificing anything, the lessons of relationships, the lessons of teamwork, the lessons of becoming children of the Most High. You must purge yourself of the animal traits of procrastination, equivocation, unfairness, problem avoidance, insincerity and ease seeking! On the Mansion worlds you become dematerialized. Now we are working on dematerializing your mental and emotional dependencies in Time and Space. The mortal nature will become a shadow to you and you will become more and more adorable and lovable as you leave the animal nature and the material concepts and societal rules of conduct behind. You are learning the attributes of divine sonship. You are becoming persons of the Father in reality, not just in thought and faith.

Your faith has brought you thus far and your faith will take you further, but you must practice and function as such, as you become aware of new levels of being. You are becoming universe minded, you are moving into cosmic consciousness. Where you function in your tiny world of "me" and "us" and "them" you will begin to function as "His" --unity in diversity all under one banner of "What is Father's Will". Never again will you want to function in the thought processes of "What's in it for me". This will pass from your consciousness if you follow our guidance.

You are moving into the levels of natural service, voluntary study and open-minded learning! Your worshipful experiences are becoming spontaneous, no longer disciplined! Much awareness is in store for those who have expressed their willingness to try the steps of mind-opening and consciousness-raising and learning the Father's will for themselves! You will see! Let go the lethargy and reluctance to move out of your comfort zones. Embrace the new adventure totally without reservation and you will see!

There is much delight in functioning as a group and it is our assignment to help you to realize this delight. But this delight brings with it many demands. You are responsible for that which you know. You can no longer rest in ease as you did in ignorance. Now you know and you know that you know. You must act. You must live your faith knowledge! As your Urantia Book states plainly for you: "A new social order is being introduced, one based on understanding sympathy of mutual appreciation, the unselfish love of mutual service, and the overmastering motivation of the realization of a common and supreme destiny."

Again, I tell you, ascenders are becoming aware of God-seeking, God-finding and God-knowing. You are ready, you of much faith! You are ready, you of much willingness! You are ready, you of much discipline! You are ready, you of much ability to lay aside selfish comfort and move into new channels of faith-gravity! Put aside your childish armor of quick wit, ridicule, impatience, and fears. Put on the armor of enthusiasm, anticipation, hard work, self-forgetfulness and go the extra mile! We must purge you of all human intolerance and separation. No more will these perceptions haunt you. You will be free of them! You will begin to see that all things really do work together in Truth, Beauty and Goodness!

One exercise which can help you is to study the mortal philosophy half of the mota in your Urantia Book. Try to discern through mental exercises and discussion what the mota would be to accompany those bits of human philosophy, which is not given to you as if on a plate. You must stretch yourself! These concepts will be forthcoming if you apply yourself to the task of unlocking the keys through endeavor to understand! You will see. We wish to help you coordinate the morontia mota with your human logic. This in turn will help you to make the step beyond your social rules of conduct, or legalities of civilization, into the realms of true social exchange and cosmic interrelationships. Does this seem too high an ideal for you? Practice, follow our assignments and exercises and in not too soon a distant future, you will look back and see the strides you have made into morontia reality!

Disseminate these teachings to your group. Do not hoard them for yourself even though you think this lesson has been given to another. It is the ribbon of Truth which flows through all of the lessons given to the individual members of this cell of the Corps which is to be seen by all. It will act as confirmation of the individual impressions as well as spur the group into concerted action to achieve.

We are able only to teach and lead the entire group by the willingness for the individuals to participate and discover their ability to disseminate the impressions they each have received during the week. These impressions will come in many forms: words, visions, opportunities, experiences, inspirations, and others. You will recognize them by your personal awareness and sometimes excitement at realizing your personal change of heart, change of perceptions, new way of looking at an experience, ability to handle new challenges, humor in the places of previous frustration or anger, love in the face of danger, peace in the midst of chaos, discernment when faced with convincing propaganda, and willingness to share those experiences with enthusiasm and loving participation in the group!

None are ever to compare themselves with others in the group. Each is moving at their own pace, each will arrive at the same goal at the same time. None are held back, but none can accomplish total group harmony until all allow each other to grow and change and move into higher awareness and better communication of all mental, emotional, and physical discomfort and changes made by the willingness to move out of comfort zones. This is an exciting adventure. This is an interesting process! This is a world-changing event! This is a group consciousness!

You can accomplish this individually -- and have all eternity to do it. We are trying to help you accomplish it as cosmic family units -- and do it quickly to enable us to use you in the Corps of Destiny to move the entire planet of Urantia into the first stages of Light and Life. Do you understand?

Can you comprehend the enormity of this assignment from our viewpoint -- and your own viewpoints? When we accomplish this, Urantia will be well on the way to Light and Life! We can do it. You have expressed willingness to do so. We are so excited about your faith and willingness that we want to push you even faster than you are willing to go! We have our hands tied, so to speak, as long as you hold back your loyalty to the group and you hold on to your comfort zones to the point of retardation. I tell you truly, none can prevent what is happening. One can only prolong the process.

Each group has an assignment: to work and play and harmonize and blend their diversities into a unity which enables Light and Life to manifest in that group!

When this is accomplished a new assignment will be given. Any assignments in the interim is only to allow you to exercise those human traits and faith leaps to move you into higher awareness to allow the blending and harmonizing to occur. You will see. I bid you: work diligently, willingly, lovingly, and be of service to one another!

Share everything you can possibly allow yourself to share. It is not necessary to share those things about which you get help in personal conceptional matters, biological family matters, job-related matters, but -- if you can trust the group to be able to share them (whether you do or not) you have the markings of a group Cell which is accomplishing your goal! Remember, it is not the action, but the contemplation of the action which condemns or elevates you in consciousness. What is it you hold in mind? What is it you cling to for comfort? What is it you recognize within which holds you in bondage? What is it you are ready to loose to enable you to grow? What is it? Know yourself. Know your own mind. Know your own perceptions. Know your own comfort zones. Know your own willingness. We see. We know. We can truly say: You have much faith! You have much willingness! You have many comfort zones! Your perceptions are held in much diversity from your fellows, but you can blend them into a harmonizing whole! Move forward. Move into Love. Move into Light. Move into Life!

We can only hold the light on the pathway. You must of your own Free Will follow the path which we light for you. Will you? We think you will, or we wouldn't be here. Michael knows you are ready, or he would not have sent us. The Father stirred because He desires this for you.

Dear Friends, think on these things. Study these concepts. Hear with your hearts, your faith, your willingness. Go forth in assurance that Michael is calling you. Gently and graciously he is calling you up the Pathway which we light for you. We lovingly serve you and urge you forward as you desire within your innermost being. Your Thought Adjuster has readied you for this and you have given your permission. Move forward in this trust. Move forward in your faith! Move forward toward Him who calls you! Be ready to pick up your tools (pencils, paper, keyboard, tape recorder, notebooks of transmissions, Urantia Book, journals of personal progress,) and eagerly go forward to meet your good, which is even now coming towards you! Fear it not. Retard it not. Reach forth in faith and trust and knowing what you know! You will not be forsaken. You will not fall. You will not be allowed to continue in any mistake. You will only glorify Michael through Faith and Trust and Goodness! Reach out! Cloak yourself in the armor of knowing! Clasp your goodness tightly and serve the Father and each other lovingly!

I've greeted you in the name of our Creator Son and I bid you adieu in the name of our Creator Son. Watch for him. He is coming soon! You will recognize Him when you have accomplished much! The pathway is hard but it is not difficult! Let that be your motto as you move forward out of discord into harmony of Light! Farewell.

Affectionately, Lor-El

Hello, My Friends,

Fear is a good lesson for today because I know your time is limited right now. You have heard much said about fear, but that which you have heard seems to be cute clichés and silly cues for you. This is true. These cute and sometimes silly sayings are exactly that: cues and prompts to bring your attention into awareness. The awareness of what you are thinking or expressing at that moment! When you are frightened, when you are out-of-balance emotionally, when you are uneasy or insecure, those are fears. Did you know that when you are angry you are also full of fear? Anger is nothing less than nor more than, a fear expressed in a loud protesting voice. Even self-righteous angers are fears expressing in disguise. Think on this.

Earlier, you found yourself writing to one close to you that the Father is always sending good to each of his perSons. This is true. You also stated that when you reject a gift/good from God, your good quits coming, or slows down. This is also true. This is a law of the universe. When you refuse a gift/good from anyone you are reacting in fear --fear of being unworthy, fear of being in debt to the one who gives to you, fear of not having enough of what you call money to pay for it, fear of losing it again, fear of other's envy or criticism, fear of losing control of your preplanned existence. Some kind of fear is behind every rejection of the Father's gifts.

The Father does not withhold further good from coming to you -- ever. He wants good to come to you at all times. He is without the human fears of rejection. He knows that any rejection comes from your own fears, your own misperceptions, your own misunderstandings. Where a human would withhold further gifting from one who rejects it or himself, Father does not. He is continuously giving because that is Father love expressing in materiality. However, the rejection sets up ripples which push additional good further away. You can see this can't you? Those ripples, if continued, can get pretty big and powerful! You must watch your rejections. If you accept the good/gifts which come to you and thank Father for them, you will find you've set up a sort of empty spot, a whirlpool into which more good/gifts flow in divine order! And it goes without saying that this gives the appearance of a bonus with every gift from God, as you told your friend. This is how it demonstrates in materiality. In reality it is an unseen law which is natural and recognizable by any who would rely on it.

Fear is a false sense of things. There is nothing in the whole Master Universe to be afraid of. Yes, you could lose your hold on the material form which you have. But this would just bring the next level of awareness to you. Is this something to be afraid of? You have much to do, and many experiences, and quite a bit of stretching to do, and this is natural and simple in material form when you go through life experiences eager to learn and know and take more steps toward your potential perfection. Do you not see?

We want you to remain in the material form as long as you are able to while functioning and growing and learning! When there is no further progress, no further ability to learn and grow, then is the time to move out of the material form. Those who rush this process by what you call suicide, will be surprised when they awaken in the Mansion world. They will have many deficiencies to make up. Some of those deficiencies are because of the decision to "commit suicide". However, they will be awakened to continue their trip to Paradise if they have any value in their soul at all! This is no short cut to heaven. The decision to actually do the deed is usually a difficult one to make, but it is made out of fear to face whatever the challenge in the mortal experience is overwhelming them. That same challenge will confront them at the next level but they will not have the material form to enable them to find the "easy" way out of it. For instance, what if the craving for alcohol or tobacco or other substance is not finished here? How do you satisfy this craving if the alcohol or tobacco or substance is not available? What lengths do you go to find a substitute? The personality or emotional dependency will remain on the next level, but where do you find the relief from the pain of the dependence? It will be quite frustrating until the individual comes to a new realization and demonstrates his personality or emotional freedom from the pain, by recognizing its illusionary qualities.

As we move up into higher consciousness, we are more and more subject to universal morontia and spiritual laws and less and less held by the material laws to which the animal level mind is bonded. Think on these things. Know yourself. What are your dependencies? They are all emotional. If your emotions need something they are out-of-balance! Almost without exception all emotional unbalances are caused by fear. You must learn to control your emotions. Learn to love.

Apply love to all situations and you will see the balance return to the emotions of the individuals involved. This is the key to relationship. It does not matter if the relationship is a close blood tie, an emotional tie, a neighbor, a friend, or a complete stranger with whom you do business or ask directions! Every encounter between persons is a relationship. Whether the relationship develops into something closer depends on how much love is involved. Incidentally what you term "hate" is not the opposite of love. On the contrary, it is fearful love -- love expressed reluctantly, while insecure, while angry, or on the animal out-of-balance level. The opposite of love is apathy. Nothing. No thought. No concern. No interest. No investment of emotion of any kind. Love is an investment of self. Love is an interest expressed. Love is a thought about someone. Love is a concern for the loved one. Pure love is pure concern, pure interest, pure investment, pure thoughts. Love does not have room for control, power, one-up-man-ship, conditions, returned love, or anything other than pure love.

There are many levels of love between animal levels and spiritual levels. Some of these stages of love are experienced negatively, or in an out-of-balanced state of mind.

One can feel "drawn" to another. Purely expressed, this is interest in what the other is. Impurely expressed this can be reduced to animal lust. There are many adjustments to these two extremes.

One can feel affection for another. Purely expressed, this is a feeling of support and affirmation for another. Impurely expressed this can be a dependency by one or the other. There are many adjustments between these two extremes.

One can feel kinship with another. Purely expressed, this is a meeting of the minds. Impurely expressed, this is a meeting of the bodies. There are many adjustments between the two extremes.

One can adore another. Purely expressed, this is an attempt to see the perfection in them, the God likeness in them. Impurely expressed this is the attempt to worship them in place of the Father. There are many adjustments between these two extremes.

One can love someone as a companion, or mate. Purely expressed this enhances each to find their potential. It is unconditional. Impurely expressed, it can retard the other's growth. It can have all kinds of conditions attached to it.

One can choose to see the God-likeness in another when appearances are un-God-like and expression is distasteful to you. This is unconditional love. This is the love which helps another see himself as if he was in the presence of God. It is unlimiting. It lifts a person to a higher level than he thinks he is. Impurely expressed, it limits a person to less than what he thinks he is.

Be conscious of the love you are expressing. Your intentions are to express the Father's love. It is so easy to get caught up in human expressions which are not pure.

It is your assignment and your goal to find a way for each of you to apply Father's love to all experiences and relationships. It is the cohesive quality of the diversity of the individuals making up this cell of the Corps. It is the cohesive quality which will bring all of the cells of the Corps together in one functioning, unifying, welcoming group for the materialization of your Planetary Prince and your Creator Son!

We have gone from the levels of fear to love. Affirm your qualities of love. Move them into the levels of pure expression. Discard all vestiges of fear lingering in your out-of-balance emotional thoughts and expressions. Reach those consciousness levels which enable you to know, without doubt, that every other single person within your cell of the Corp has good intentions. Know, without doubt, that no protection is needed at any level from any other person in your cell of the Corps. Know that all are working on the same assignment and for the same goal, no matter the expression. Know you are a part of that cell and you have good intentions and you need no protection and you have no secret agenda. If you know that personally, you can know it for the whole group! I know whereof I speak! There is no place for fear in the Corps of Destiny. There is no place for doubt and insecurity when working for the Father. There is no place for secrets in the cells.

There is a task for each and each must be willing to take up his task and move forward. The chain of cells in the Corps is only as strong as the weakest length. Strength comes from trust in the Father. Strength comes from reliance on Truth. Strength comes from dissemination of inspiration and enthusiasm and quiet knowing! Strength comes from Being what you are for the benefit of the whole. Strength comes from investing yourself in the process of the whole. Strength comes from knowing, not doubting. Strength comes from being faithful, not faithless. Strength comes from being willing, not reluctant. Strength comes from doing, not talking about doing. Strength comes from visualizing the goal, not the missteps to get there. Strength comes from moving one step at a time towards your goal, not waiting for another to push you, or pull you, or affirm you. Your affirmation comes from your ability to believe what you know and step out in faith that you will demonstrate what we ask you. You will see. Take a deep breath and go for the goal!

Your goal, I repeat: is to find a way for you to apply Father's love to all experiences and relationships. It is the cohesive quality of the diversity of the individuals making up this cell of the Corps. It is the cohesive quality which will bring all of the cells of the Corps together in one functioning, unifying, welcoming group for the materialization of your Planetary Prince and your Creator Son!

Are you ready? You have said that you are. You have asked to be prepared. You have asked to be shown the way. You have asked. The door is open. Will you walk through it? What keeps you? Fear. Out-of-balance emotions about your perceptions of what is on the other side. What are your perceptions? What holds you back? How do we change your perceptions? Only you can change your perceptions. All we can do is show you it doesn't hurt, if you try it. All we can do is affirm your efforts if you take the steps. All we can do is light the way. You must take the step to follow the path that we light. You must realize the joy and confidence you attain as you attempt the assignments we give you to help you realize your goal. Your goal is to find a way for you to express and apply Father's love to all experiences and relationships. As the Father gives you a gift of himself in the Thought Adjuster fragment which indwells your minds, you must give the gift of yourself in the fragments of expression of Father's love through your sharing of the fragments of inspiration you receive in answers to your search for perfection, knowing, God in each of your experiences.

Very little is for you alone. What you think is personal is really only a personal expression of what is universal. As you move into morontia levels of existence and thought patterns, you will find it more and more uncomfortable to be unable to express yourself to your fellows. As you move up into the levels of morontia and spiritual it will become very lonely for you when you are unable to express in your cell, or working class. Become yourself! Become your potentially perfect self. Begin to express your potential. Let go the need to cling to and perpetuate your imperfect self. It does not matter. It was yesterday. Today is tomorrow. The imperfect falls away and fades into yesterday which no longer is. The perfect self is moving into today as you go into your tomorrow. Do you not see? It is a perfect plan. But you must die to the old and be reborn into the new. You must die to your comfortable old self, and be born into your new self which is ever moving towards perfection. Time is inconsequential. It does not take time to do this. It is as if you are already in Heaven - perfection. All you have to do is move there through experience! You are perfect. Realize it! Demonstrate it! If you make errors in expressing your perfection, continue attempting to express your perfection. It will become easier. Each step takes you one step closer to your perfection. One step at a time in full sincerity and honesty will bring your goal to you in reality quite rapidly! You will see. Step out in faith. I tell you what I know. Think on these things.

My Friends, I am here to help you see what is ahead of you! Having asked for a part in this new dispensation of bringing your planet into Light and Life, do you not know what great things you must accomplish. It is through "little ones" like yourself that this will be done. We cannot move mountains until we have moved a few handfuls. We cannot move thousands, until we have moved a few. We cannot move millions until we have moved thousands. We cannot move the whole of the planet until we have moved many millions into reaching and stretching for perfection! You must recognize the opportunity then be willing to do whatever is necessary to stretch your reach to gain that opportunity! Then you must fulfill that opportunity by moving out of comfortable old patterns and moving where the divine flow is moving in cosmic proportions of collective consciousness! You must move. You cannot stay comfortable and stay in the Corps which is to move the whole planet! You must move with the cell of the Corps, then your cell must move with the rest of the cells in the Corps, then the Corps must move into new dimensions. These will be taught, demonstrated and inspired by Machiventa Melchizedek for the glory of your Creator Son, Michael of Nebadon.

Come, join the forward momentum! One person cannot move a train out of mud on the side of the track, and put it back on track. A few cannot move the train out of the mud on the side of the track and put the train back on the track. Many can possibly move it out of the mud on the side of the track, but even many cannot put it back on the track! Thousands could put it on the track. Millions can get it moving. When it starts to move, it becomes easier and easier to keep it moving! Eventually with enough weight, and a downhill course, it will begin to move of its own momentum. This is what we want to happen. We need your help to get it out of the mud. We need your help to get it onto the track. We need your help to find seating for all. We need your help to teach how to get it moving. We need your help to push. We need your help to plot its course so it won't land on the side of the track again. We need your help to gather others as we come to them and pull them aboard! We need you to show them where they are going when they get aboard. We need you to get them organized. We need you to take care of all the details! We are the engine. We are here to do the work. We are teaching you how to apply the fuel (love) in a steadying manner (consistently even when tired, frustrated, or feeling unloved) and to get rid of the ashes of worn out perceptions and create an enthusiastic eagerness to keep it going!

The cells in the Corps are the ones to get the train out of the mud. Each cell is represented by one boxcar of the train. Some of you will use your thinking processes. Some of you will use the strength in your material form. Some of you will be the enthusiastic inspiration of the others. Some of you will be the steadying influence to keep others from giving up when they tire. Some of you will be reading the how-tos on accomplishing the goal. Some of you will be providing the nourishment to those who are doing the physical work. Some of you will be running errands to get the tools needed. Some of you will be cleaning or repairing or making tools. Some of you will be contributing to the morale of the others. Some of you will be relaying information about the process from other groups who are trying to get their boxcars out of the mud. Some of you will be standing and watching. Some of you will sit down out of frustration because others are not doing their part to accomplish the goal. Some of you will walk away in impatience. Some of you will discipline yourselves to be reliable even when you have doubts. Some of you will have your feelings hurt because others think you aren't doing your part. Some of you will feel unworthy because you are not capable of physical strength exertion. Some of you will feel stupid because others thought of a better way to accomplish the goal. Some of you will encourage. Some will discourage by sayin"it can't be done." Some of you will whine and complain. Some of you will whistle or sing while you work. Some of you will do your part while making lots of noise. Some of you will quietly do your part without anyone even knowing you are there. Some of you will want to keep the train in the mud so that you don't get left behind. Some of you will be trying to enlighten those who do not believe in the effort. Some of you will defend those who are believing from those who are laughing at them. All of you must work together in your own expression for the group to accomplish the goal of getting the train out of the mud! Your expression must be in harmony and in accordance or oneness with the efforts of the others!

Ask yourself: "What can I do?" "What am I doing?" "What do I want to do?" to help the group get this train out of the mud. How much ridicule by those outside of the group who don't believe it can be gotten back on track am I willing to suffer to do my part? Think on these things. Do you not see the distant goal?

Until you call upon me again, Farewell, my friends.

My Friends,

ou are certainly persistent in calling us! We appreciate your eagerness to learn and begin living the lessons which we give you.

May I call your attention to the many lessons which each of you in the group have had this week? All of you have had the opportunity to put into practice some part of the recent lessons in moving out of your comfort zones, and without exception, each of you has attempted to do so! This pleases us very much. Some of you were given harder challenges to experience, but even those with just a little step were able to take that little step. It is our hope that each of you will find a way to share your experience with the others in the group.

Those of you who have relied on the impressions and intuitive inspirations you received this week, have found your good leaping up to meet you in ways you could not have imagined. All you had to do was act upon the seed which was impressed upon you. We did all of the rest. Do you not see how this works? Believe it. This is for your edification. This is for your affirmation. This is for your faith! Hold this affirmation closely to your hearts and continue to move out in each opportunity which you are given. Each time you do so, you will find it easier until it is almost effortless.

Each of you has agreed to be used by us to accomplish the goal of the group. Each of you has felt "set up" at some point in these meetings. You know that you know and that this is indeed what is happening. We are in the process of purging you of all animal vestiges of ego power, ego greed, ego protection and ego judgment. Go with the flow. Let us do what you have requested us to do! Do not feel rebuked or censured. All is working according to the good of the entire group. All is working for good for all involved. All is in harmony although it seems to be chaos. Remember this in the darkest hours of your turmoil! The Light at the end of the darkness is purification and preparedness to be about the Father's business. Trust us. You of much faith! You of much willingness. Trust!

There is a purging of all thoughts of protection and protectionism's in the groups. There is no need to protect yourself or one another. All are going through the same process at different levels. Each of you is being made ready for Corps. When word gets out among the populations there will be some disbelief. There will be much criticism. There will be some cries of protest. There will be accusations of self-aggrandizement. This must not alarm anyone within the cells of the groups. You must be prepared. It will be exciting. But it will also be confusing and frustrating. You will have much work to teach among those who will disbelieve. You can only do this with love and steadfast faith in us and in the process. If you have any doubts you will be lost. If you cannot all stand together in trusting unity, you will fall. When one among you is attacked, all must rally round in support and endorsement.

Remember, you have volunteered for the Corps of Destiny. This is not an inactive, idle Corps. It is on the leading edge of all change for Urantia. There will be no glory, no magnificent homage, no loud veneration! You will often suffer in silence. We are training you for this. You must be able to go to one another when this time comes. You must trust one another to reassure and inspire you again and again! Remember you must do the job you have been given. You must be reliable, responsible and dependable to the group. There can be none who are weak and afraid. There was an encouraging saying in the mouths and hearts of many of your American Founding Father's time. It was: United we stand, divided we fall. Keep this in mind at all times. Rely on it. Know it. Live it. Protect your group's welfare. Stand together in love and steadfastness of your faith and each other's faith. We can succeed.

He is coming. Your Creator Son is coming! Rejoice! You are among the welcoming reception! It is your faith and steadfastness which will allow this to happen. The events are quickly collecting into a group consciousness which will move mountains through faith! Believe on this. Rely on this! Reassure one another! Confirm one another's experiences in growth! Give inspiration to one another. Be done with criticism and false judgment. These are evils we do not need for our forward march into tomorrow! We need you. Do be prepared. Do not be caught off guard for the swell of disbelief and discouragement you may well get from those who do not yet know!

Machiventa has sent out many teachers and helpers such as ourselves. There are many groups begging for help. There are many groups you have not yet heard of who are being taught and guided by Machiventa's helpers! These will all come together one day soon. Sooner than you think. Watch. Be ready. Look for all of the signs of Light and Life which are manifesting themselves very slowly upon your planet each hour of each day.

Look for the Father's Love expressed all around you. Look for it in those nearest to you. Look for it in those you encounter during the day. Look for it in those you have thought of as your enemies. Look for Father's Love in every one and every place and every thing in every experience of your life! You will see it if you look for it. Focus on good. Disregard what is considered "bad" and know that it cannot continue in the Light of Perfect Love if it really is as it appears. Perhaps it is good disguised to reach those who are at different levels than you are? Do you know for sure? Every disaster, every challenge can be used for the opportunity of bringing new consciousness to someone somewhere sometime. Remember this.

You are the light of your world. Hold your light up for everyone to see. Hold it high so that it lights the path for someone else. Never hide your light where it cannot help others. Each little light added to other little lights can bring light where light could not otherwise be! You know that you know! This is true. Your light is vital. Never doubt. No matter how dim, how small, even if it is only a reflector for someone else's light, it is vital to the whole! Get on with it. Go forth in confidence that you are lighting someone's path. Perhaps you are doing it alone, perhaps in concerted effort with others from the group. Shine as brightly as you can. Shine on everyone you encounter. Shine! Be Light!

That is all for today. You have much to do. Do not let your responsibilities toward the group become a burden. Let us begin today's work with a small step and accomplish much. You will see. Much can be done. Let go of the long list of "Have to's" and take one task off the list and work on it until it is finished. Then take another task and do it. You are being sent much help. Do you not see the things you have accomplished in mind, spirit consciousness and physical harmony just this week? Of course you do! You feel good about it. Continue. Go forth as you have, trusting us with the amount of the work. We will not desert you.

You are never alone. Call on us at any time for help and it will be forthcoming according to your faith. Until you call again, Farewell.

My Friends:

Today's lesson is on "niceness". That seems a strange word, doesn't it? But not so strange to those of you who practice it! Nice is what you are, not what you do. Niceness comes from many years of practicing the Father's will, of being considerate of other's needs before they are even aware of the need, of observing the universe around you and attempting to leave it a little better place after you have gone.

Niceness is the small drop in the bucket each individual can do for the Kingdom of God. Niceness cannot be done in large quantities. Niceness is often mistaken for false flattery and over solicitousness by those who are unfamiliar with niceness in their own life experience. They do not understand. They will criticize niceness until they are reborn into the new thought of the Father's divine flow of energy in their lives. Many can block this quality. Many can live a whole lifetime experience and never even be aware of niceness. They do not mean to be rude. Their culture has not introduced them to niceness.

Being nice is not a rule of society. It is not something your rules of conduct and ethics address. It is beyond the letter of politeness. It is beyond the concept of getting along with others. It is different from but bestowed upon others because of an intention to love your fellows. If you love others, one of the qualities is an automatic response of niceness. If you know what niceness is and you wish to put up barriers, or show your dislike for another, you do this by not showing the quality of niceness.

Many of you had parents that constantly preached to you: "If you can't say something nice, then say nothing at all." or in response to someone treating you unkind, you would hear: "Be nice, anyway." And, after many times of ill treatment, and complaints to your mother, she would often repeat: "Being nice does not cost you anything and it is good for the soul."

Nice means to be respectful - if not to the person, then to the Indwelling spirit within. Always recognize the person which you encounter for ill are good, have an indwelling fragment of the Father and you can be respectful. Jesus said it this way: "Render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's"

Nice means being amicable. This means to accommodate them, indulge their difference, adjust and adapt as long as you retain your integrity, honesty and sincerity. Even when likes and dislikes are completely opposite, you can build a truly loving relationship by being amicable and accommodating. Put aside your need to be right, to have control, to defend yourself and just be nice! Jesus said it this way: "Agree with your adversary while you are in the way with him."

Nice means to be friendly. Do not put up barriers to intimacy. Do you not know that we often send the quarrelsome, ugly tempered ones into your presence to expose them to niceness? Jesus said it this way: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." Treat others the way you want them to treat you - friendly, respectful, amicable, pleasant, and agreeable.

Nice means to be pleasant. Put away the clouds of your temperament and treat each as if they are the Child of the Most High, which you know that they are. Expect them to express the Father's love. Know that when they do not express the Father's love, they are very unhappy self-centered or frightened! They are not forsaken and forgotten. NO! They are brought to you, who can express pleasantness so that they can experience this. Jesus said it this way: "Perfect LOVE casts out Fear."

Nice means to be congenial. This means to go out of the way to be friendly, kind. This means to show a genuine interest in the person, regardless of their temperament or shyness. Being congenial brings harmony into a relationship. Jesus put it this way "Truly, I say to you, forgive them 70 times 7."

Where discord dwells, nice qualities can bring out nice qualities to smooth the rough edges of a fledgling relationship. One of the qualities of Love is nice. Respectful, amicable, friendly, pleasant, accommodating, congenial - these are all qualities of Love being expressed. These qualities are very important for the Corps of Destiny to express. Be of good cheer! It is not as hard as all that! It is a requirement to progress to the next circle on your spiral towards perfection.

Begin today to practice niceness. If you consciously practice it, it will become second nature to you. Niceness enables Love to be expressed even in the most trying circumstances.

Some will accuse you of being condescending. This is not undesirable. IF you are being accommodating, friendly, congenial, amicable, respectful, and pleasant you are not being self-righteous nor conceited. Condescension means to give allowance to differences, indulge and adapt to the difference to blend them into the whole, and defer your desires to the desires of the good of the whole group.

I tell you truly, begin to become aware of niceness and express it in your world everywhere you go. Do not let any detour you from expressing the Father's love through niceness. You can make peace in any place through expressing loving kindness and being nice. Think on these things.

Until you call on me again, I say: Farewell

My Friend,

Do not harbor guilt or regret or hurt. Let it go. It will do more damage to you than to the ones who created the situation to which you reacted. Let go. Be what you are! Be what you strive to be! Be what you have prayed to be! Be what we are helping you to become!

Smile and all will smile with you. Feel depressed and all will avoid you knowing not why. You are our lamp in the darkness. Light up! Lighten up! Glow with faith! Glow with the faith of assurance! Do you not know how you help us in our work? Before this week is through you will see a small glimpse. Be aware. See the sign we send to you.

Now, begin to live in faith and assurance that you are who you are and are doing what you know is being asked of you by the Father. Be about the Father's business and allow us to continue with the Plan for your life's work. Come forward. Do not tarry in self-pity, perplexity, frustration, or regret. We cannot use you with those out-of-balance emotions. Come forward in Light and Love and Truth! You are our own. We have chosen you in answer to your requests in prayer. Let's get on with what we are about. Faith! Remember your faith! All things work together for good when intentions are to do the Father's will. Even when we humanly err, that error can be used for good when you release it and do not dwell in it. Let go the mistakes. Learn from them. Be aware. Be alert. Be what you are! Shine for others to see.

Don't forget you will receive a sign this week of our faith in you. Watch for it. You know not how it will come. Look everywhere. Do not let a single experience get by without discerning its qualities. Do not let a stranger go by without discerning his value. Do not let a day go by without discerning its value. God's children are everywhere. God's good is everywhere. Make yourself available! Do not be timid. Go forth in faith! Know that you know. You will make it to the mountain top. Go forth!

Farewell, until you call again...

My dear Friend,

I am LorEL and I, too wish to express my recognition of your willingness and your expressed faith with enthusiasm which has facilitated our work with others around the world. You may not see the good which comes from your willingness to share your "personal" impressions, but you may well hear about the criticism and name-calling. Do not let this alarm you. It will pass. And what does it matter if you are aright with Father? You take care of Patije, nourish Patije with good thoughts and inspiring expressions and all will take care of itself!

This goes for all of my dear friends, your study groups as well as others around the globe. Express Father in any way you can. Share your personal impressions when you feel free to do so. You are not "showing off" or sounding as if you are better than others, or worse off than others. Each is an expression of the Father. Each is an expression of the impressions which you are receiving from us. No matter how small, no matter how insignificant, each impression shared allows another to find freedom to share his seemingly insignificant impression also. It is all of these, blended together which will verify our presence, verify our teaching is Source, encourage others to trust us, trust what is happening in their minds. My friends, we will not forsake thee. All is part of the overall plans.

You see, you are not so different from the stranger across the room, across the block or across the world. You may be different from a stranger on another inhabited planet, but let us set that idea aside for now. Each human mortal experiences the same things - in different order, different names of the relationships, different environment, different locations...but each of you learn the same lessons. Some of you learn them quickly, some of you must have several experiences before you learn. Some of you move forward in the spiral towards perfection by utilizing your faith in doing what you know that you know. Others, hesitantly know but wait until someone else demonstrates the truth before having the courage to take a step forward in their own faith. This faith does not grow as quickly, but it does make definite steps of growth each time it does follow another.

Each of you are a candle lit for another's pathway. No matter how lowly on the human scale of value, you are very high on Father's value if you express what you know willingly, lovingly, and enthusiastically. If you are the receiver of much, you will be held responsible to share much, and in turn be given much more. If you are the receiver of little and express little, you will in turn be given a little more. If you are given much or little and express little or none, you will be given less and less. It is your choice to share what you have and receive more, or to hold what you have close to your heart and have little more. Love only grows as you give it away. Service only grows as you give it away. Trust only grows as you give it away. Communications from us grow as you share them with others.

We have much to give to all of the children of the Most High. We must be about the Father's business! We urge you to hear, to know that you know, to act upon what you know, to yearn for more and to share what you get! This way the ripples of knowing spread throughout all of the Father's kingdom and continue to build into waves of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness! We need you. We need your little "splash" to get the ripples moving! If nothing stirs the water, no ripples begin, and nothing builds into waves which will wash ashore and move the energies of goodness, of truth, of harmony, of faith! Do you not see? Go forward, one step at a time, but go forward. Hold out a hand to the one next to you who is timid. Hold out your hand to the one who is enthusiastically skipping along a little faster than you. All are needed! All are expressing the Father's love.

Do not ever feel you have shared too much. This is much more helpful than timidity of faith. This will take more good energy with you than holding back and fighting the current of good which is moving throughout Urantia. Goodness and honesty and harmonious energies are moving throughout the planet. They are compounded and enhanced by your willingness to make the little splash which you can contribute. If all of God's children are splashing a little, then others will see the splash. If only one or two strong ones are making big splashes in a large ocean, what good will it do? What use will it be to spread our teachings? All must splash wherever they are, whatever they are, whatever they have to share. You will see! Trust us! Give what you have. Express the Father in any way you can! Love one another.

I must leave you for awhile. I look forward to the meeting this evening with all of you. Share my words with one another and look to yourself and discuss among yourselves what little splash is your responsibility.

We are delighted with the plans for Michael's birthday party celebration! We will have a surprise for you too! Share the excitement of the celebration but do not reveal too much! Bring your friends.

Bring your family. Participate in a way you never dreamed you could! Give. Give to one another! Give to the world together! Give the Father's love.

Farewell...

July 18, 1993

Good morning, my Friend,

This is a beautiful day today and we are enjoying it immensely! Your beautiful blue globe is a wonder of awe to us. This is Michael's planet and such a perfect setting for the museum piece of Nebadon! Your little planet is so perfectly cared for, so fervently prayed for, and so well served by all beings of the universe! It is only a short time in Eternity that you will see the fullness of its era of Light and Life! Uplift your thoughts! Uplift your perceptions! Uplift your expectations! All of Nebadon nurtures and cares for Urantia as if it already is settled in Light and Life. Just as all of creation cares for you and nurtures you as if you already are in your perfection in Paradise!

My friends, you are on the very brink of a happening that is unique and wondrous! All things you've ever imagined from reading the Urantia Book can happen! And, it can happen with the twinkling of an eye! You are on the very threshold of recognizing this! It is as you believe! You will see when you believe without doubt or reservation! Step out in faith and behold the Kingdom in all its glory manifesting in your world even today!

Remember your little "drop" -- the tiniest wee splash that you personally make will contribute to the ripple effect which grows into giant waves of love and peace and Truth, Beauty and Goodness! Begin dropping your little bits of paradise into the pond of the kingdom now and continue each day of your life experience! If you do this consistently with enthusiasm, others will "catch" the virus of love and join you until your concerted efforts will begin to erode the pettiness of unthinking self-centeredness. Think personally and make global effects! Act personally and move on a global basis! Expect personally and lift mankind's perceptions a fraction! Accept personally and see it manifested for all! Believe personally and see others turn to you for strength of faith!

Can you not comprehend the magnitude of happenings on your planet today!?! I tell you, it is! There can be no doubt among those who have heard Michael speak. There can be little doubt among those who have seen the transmissions from Michael's speaking! When all are unified in belief and acceptance, then you will see great things happen! It is delayed only by your readiness.

Take up your task and joyously carry it through to success. What if you fall? Get up and begin again. What if you get sidetracked? Turn back and resume your forward trek! What if you are delayed? Take care of whatever delays you to the best of your ability and then take one more step towards your goal! Nothing can prevent the coming of reality now. Nothing can delay the kingdom for long. Nothing, I tell you. Nothing!

What is your task? Have you not heard and read the messages from the teachers on your planet? Have you not thought about them and translated and interpreted them into personal activity and attitudes? Look again. To remember to pick up your bath towel to lighten the load of your housekeeper is a thoughtful step in the process of personal awareness and growth towards living your faith! You must live in the now. You must put aside yesterday -- learn from the lessons and don't repeat them, but put the memories and regrets aside and live NOW! Do not procrastinate for tomorrow. Do all that comes to mind NOW.

Balance. Balance your life experience. Find your bliss. Find that task which causes you to become enthusiastic and able to continue unstopped regardless of public opinions, friendly criticism, enemy barbs, which is fun, satisfying, enriching, and altruistic too! Remember, the purpose is not to be selfish. It is to find some task to lighten the load of all who come into contact with you!

Balance your work, your play, your rest, your recreation, your creativity, your industrious, your research, your being! If all is in balance, all will guide you towards your goal.

If you are doing one thing in order to free you to do another, begin to look at how you can combine them. If you want to serve God, but must work for a living, ask: "How I can serve God in my employment?" Probably 1/3 of your life, or more, is dedicated to your employment to provide shelter, food, and clothing for yourself and your loved ones. Why set this time aside as a hated necessity? Why sacrifice your creativity and service during these hours? Why not incorporate them into being about the Father's business? There are many ways for you to do this. Listen and hear! Watch and see! Touch and feel! Intuit and know! You become aware.

Serve the Father even when it means helping someone you dislike working with, someone who pests you, someone who triggers un-Godlike emotions within your mind! Father is no respecter of persons. Even that one who perplexes you is God's child, has the Indwelling Presence of God. Treat him or her as so. You will see your burden lighten. Do not think that your source of income, , is that boss, foreman or supervisor, always your source is the Father. Many rewards can come your way if you can let go of the limitations of thinking your source is in the material levels of your employment.

Serve. Give real service. Give true service. Be helpful. Be kind. Be willing to help. Be there now. Take one step at a time whatever opportunity arises. Treat each encounter with perSons of God as if that Son is Michael, a Melchizedek, or an angel in disguise. It well might be! When you can no longer bear to deal with that person on a material level, give it to the Father. Say to yourself, "I desire to do the Father's will. I desire to respect and be kind to this person, help my undesire." You will be amazed at how simple and easy your load can become when you deal with life's little challenges and challenging people this way. When you give good, give service, give love, give respect, do not expect it in return. Know that the Father sees in secret and the Father will reward in secret and stand on your Faith to know this even when it seems as if you have been deserted. All things work together for good and even when you think it is not working for good, you will find slivers of joy if you look for them. You will find the Father's presence if you look for it. You will see the Father's love in that person if you look for it. You will know peace and light if you give peace and light. Attack causes resistance. Attitudes cause good cheer as well as depression.

Our mission is to enlighten you, of course. But the Urantia Book has much more information than any human mortal can fully understand. We can only enhance and help you move higher in your intellectual understanding of what you already know. We are not here to spoon feed you information about the cosmos.

Our mission is to enlighten you in your personal response to your potential perfection. To do this we must work with you personally in your own consciousness level, your own perception level. We must get your attention, your trust, your willingness. Then, when we have your attention, your trust and your eager willingness (not reluctant willingness) we can begin to stretch your capacities in mental thinking, in intuitive knowing and faithfulness.

This is not an easy task. Learning to live up to your potential is much more difficult than asking, desiring, or knowing your potential. You must try. You must try out new ventures. You must step out when you don't want to. You must think about what you are thinking about -- not just recycle what you have thought about before. You must clarify and open up your perceptions and expectations. Anything! is possible. Anything! Only your perceptions and mental limitations keep your good from you. (good is God-things)

Our mission is to enlighten you so that you can see the Pathway you have asked to be shown! We are here to help you, guide you, through the obstacles in your pathway so you can find your uniqueness among the multitudes as you have asked! We are here to help you increase your readiness, your awareness, your discipline and your talents to act in need when it is expedient for our Plan. Faithfulness and loyalty is most important. Acting on your beliefs, stepping out in faith when you are reluctant, living your knowingness in Light and Life -- these are of paramount importance to the Plan. Light and Life rests on the lives of each and every member of the human race, with those selected for the Corps of Destiny out front lighting the pathway.

Michael is coming. Michael is here. You will see him as you move out of the animal vestiges of thinking and into the higher awareness of morontia awareness. You must drop your dependence on physical laws and social rules and move into the light of morality and pure ethics of Father-likeness.

If there is even a small part of you that can exploit another, use another, take advantage of another, be disrespectful towards another, pity another without taking action to increase their spiritual perceptions, use dishonesty by an act or by misconception or misunderstanding, then you have work to do! We need individuals who can be trusted implicitly. We need individuals who are totally sincere. We need individuals who are willing to risk comfort in order to help another into higher psychic circles of destiny. We need individuals who live according to the principles and guidelines of high ethics and morality, and are not tempted to use those ethics and morality to take money from others. If you have much, you are responsible for much. If you know much, you are responsible for much. If you have received much, you are responsible for much.

If your assignment brings you opportunities to exploit others, then you must guard against the temptation. Give service, give of yourself, and the quality will make up for the quantity. The quantity of sales, for instance, will double and triple and build only as you give of yourself and your service. Without service, without giving yourself, it does not matter what the product is, it will stagnate and die. There is no more room for dishonesty and exploitation. The worldly way is to get all you can out of anything you can get your hands on and do it before someone else does. Our Plan is to give all you can with all you have to give and do it before someone else does -- and then, see the results! You can not keep up with production if you are giving service and honest value. Examine your motives. Examine your statement. Are you living up to true value?

Our assignment is to enlighten you and enable you to see the standards and set the standards by which to live your experiences. Your standards are set by your words. Your standards are set by your desires. Your standards are set by your actions. You are then judged by those standards. Are you then, living up to your standards? If you live up to your standards then success or failure will be unimportant. If you live up to your standards, then is it not time to raise your standards a little higher to always be stretching yourself toward your perfection?

Our assignment is to help you set your standards high, then live them honestly and sincerely in all that you do. One by one, we are educating the world, then. One by one, more are coming into the realization of truth, beauty and goodness. One by one you are lighting the pathways of those who follow. Be aware of what pathway you are lighting. Are you guiding into light, or darkness?

When you set your foot into the path of spiritual gravity you are pulled to the greatest heights you can attain. The only thing that can pull you off this pathway of spiritual gravity is acting and living differently than your own potential perfection! Think on these things! You will recognize the truth. You will recognize your task! I tell you truly, there is a great lesson here. It is your choice to find it.

Until you call on me again, then Farewell!

July 22, 1992

My Friend,

You have experienced a beautiful week of growth! This is to teach you detachment. From this day forward, I wish for you to practice "detachment" in your life experience. This does not mean that you are to become apathetic about everything. This means that you detach from your emotional attachments and handle the material experiences with efficiency and honesty and keep your mind focused on the God-viewpoint within.

You are not to finance everything. You are not to fix everything. You are not to coordinate everything. You are not to be the only secretary. You are not to be everything to everybody. You are not to live up to anyone's expectations except your own -- and I ask you to live as the best Patije you can be and forget behaving perfect and just be the perfect Patije!

Others may come to aid you. Some may offer to run the vacuum. Some may offer to do the dishes. Some may offer to dust for you or wash your windows. Some will even be able to learn to "type" on the computer. Do not turn any away. Each little part is a growing and stretching for them, and our affirmation to you that you will want for nothing. There are those who will give financial aid rather than themselves. This is the means they have to give at this time. There are others that will just call and say "How are you doing" and really be interested. Did not your Master Jesus say to the apostles: "The poor and sick you will have with you always." I tell you "Those who complain and find fault you will have with you always."

But, better, if you keep your thoughts and emotions balanced on Father and Father's divine will and Father's expressions of Love, you will not see these others. Remember, give unto Father what is Father's. Do not try to please "Caesar", only take efficient means to his well being, then forget it. As you move into the realms of morontia and spirit, the weights of the physical energies will have little control of you. Your emotions and expectations are what tie you to the physical realm. Expectations and perceptions rule your understanding. If your expectations and perceptions are tied to the physical plane by emotional attachments, then your understanding of things spiritual and morontial will be limited. Practice detachment!

Wisdom comes from the ability to control your thoughts and emotions and keep them in the realms of God-likeness. Spirituality comes from the applied love of balancing your emotions and thoughts. Do not succumb to levels of worldly thinking and self-righteous emotional reactions.

You were always in touch with your higher self this week, you knew, you were aware that something out-of-balance was occurring in your thought processes. You attempted to meditate and pray and inspire yourself with good reading, uplift your reoccurring thoughts by studying what the Urantia Book tells you about how Jesus handled material things, and then when emotions were overwhelming, you turned to God-knowing and Truth-living friends to shake you out of the pathway of your evil imaginations! That is good. When all of my students would remember to do that we would turn Urantia into Light and Life balance very quickly!

Continue to be what you are. Listen to the one who said to you: "Be the best Patije you can be and let your light shine again" It has not been turned out -- only hidden behind fearful human emotional reactions to what you call "burnout" and too much work to do. This is not all your work. You will see.

Practice Detachment. Whenever human calls to you result in an emotional response, pull yourself up short and say as one told you: "In my quiet time, I have been guided to use my detachment skills more than I have been doing." And, then do it!

You are my Father's personality. You are my Father's love expression. You are my Father's teaching tool. You are my Father's servant. Remember who you are!

And, until you again call, I will say: "farewell."

My Child,

our gratitude is accepted, but unnecessary. You make your own day by the attitude you bring to it. When you are in your right mind, you find no fault with anything! When you are in your right mind, you find only goodness and the Father's love in all things! Guard yourself well, stand porter at your door, weed carefully your garden of thoughts and memories! As you do this you will move higher and higher into the perfection of yourself. Do you not see the process of this happening in your life experience?

Dear One, each time you reach a plateau in your spiritual growth and you remain desirous of continued upward growth, you are stimulated emotionally, or physically, or mentally. This can be done through the happenings in your daily life, your encounters and your relationships. This can be done through your study of the Urantia Book or other intellectually stimulating material. This can be done through exercise or illness--depending on your approach to physical stimulus!

Become conscious of living in the now moment. Let not your thoughts wander into the past. When you stay in the now, you discover that there are no ugly memories of past behavior of others -- you deal only with the right now. Therefore anything stated by another can be answered or dealt with as if you have no good or bad memories of previous intents and purposes! There are no memories of past hurts. There are no memories of past angers and misunderstandings. There is no taking for granted that the person you are speaking to understands where you are, because you are not dealing with what you told them yesterday, or how you behaved yesterday. This is a key to working relationships.

Remember, My friend, and practice this key when dealing with the members of the family group of our students. You can even begin to practice it with those you encounter in your life experience which are not being guided or taught by us. This will smooth the way. Speak only in terms of pleasant kindness, niceness, love. Apply niceness and kindness even while offering enlightenment or appraisal of another's action -- then there can be no offense.

Sometimes, my child, you have often said nothing, clamed up, when you know not what to say. This is a good defense, but is not a good way to develop relationships.

Relationships, dear ones, are developed by an interchange of thoughts, perceptions and opinions. A thorough discussion while respecting one another's favored position is not damaging. On the contrary, it is very instrumental in creating intimacy. But, your Master Jesus taught, "agree to disagree" before entering discussions. Then, completely tune out your defenses and listen with your entire attention. Allow one another to complete sentences and thought clusters before interrupting with your comments.

Your study group is quite often lost in confusion because this does not happen. To enable the individuals of the study group to flourish and thrive and participate, allow each individual to fully present ideas, and meanings of ideas. Then, if there is any doubt, ask for more clarification from each other.

When you do this you will facilitate the ability of the transmitters to add our communications to the discussions and conversations. We stand by ready to enhance an idea when we are invited to do so. We listen well to your conversations and endeavor to find answers for you after you have stretched beyond your capacity to understand one another. It is always within our intentions to create avenues for your growth. You must help us do that by inviting us to participate in your conversations.

We, again, stand ready to help you unfold your perfection if you will but turn within. Listen to the transmitters, interpret what is being said by focusing on Father's viewpoint. Reread your transcripts of previous transmissions -- group and individual! You will find much there you have overlooked. You see, you are constantly being uplifted in consciousness and when you reach new levels the "old stuff" reveals new meanings to you. Those meanings were there always, but when you are changing so rapidly as each of you are, those meanings change too!

As LorEL told you many weeks ago, you can fill your cup with clear sparkling spiritual water, or you can get by with the cloudy or murky waters of old concepts and perceptions and favorite opinions. Learn to open your mind. Learn to think, not just rethink previous thoughts. Take two steps forward into your right place, don't take two steps forward and then slide back one step into the past. Go forth! Go forth in faith! Know that you know and doubt not!

My Children, do you not see the great forces drawing you to your Creator Son? My Children, do you not see the distance you have traveled towards your right mind? My Children, you have come far! You have much faith. You have much willingness. You have much strength. You have much perseverance. You are worthy of the Corps of Destiny! You have much talent to be gleaned for the purpose of Our Plan! Your participation is valued. Your willingness to take the risk needed to develop these teaching methods and to send them out into the other groups and then into the world around you is vital! When you have matured to the level of a working team of method experimenters and help us develop methods which work with unmatched accuracy we can then use the methods to enhance the education of other groups, to upstep the Urantia time which is needed to develop another working team!

When any combination of the individuals in this group can be temporarily isolated and work in perfect harmony, then we can make fine progress! You can facilitate this by beginning the work in groups of three or more, but fewer than 8, to study, seek, serve, and socialize. When that can be realized by all in the small groups, pick other random groups of three to work with. This works if each participates in the small groups and then changes combinations of small groups within the large group frequently. The small groups may work together for as long as 12 weeks but no longer, until each has been combined with every other person in the large group at least once.

The idea is not to make little cliques of groups within the large group, but to create small intimate groups which become intimate with other small intimate groups until all individuals in the large group feel the intimacy with all others in the large group.

You can, Dear Ones, facilitate this more rapidly in the large group, by meeting frequently and using various exercises to create teamwork. When you socialize, circulate, and converse with different persons each time. Perhaps each group of three would make themselves available to serve together in some manner. Remember the three phases: Socialize, study, serve, and seek to discover ways to know the Father, express the Father, serve the Father.

Mix your salad. Add the spice as well as the lettuce! Create your gardens with cultivated and wild flowers to enhance the overall flavor! Remember, every "weed" on Urantia is rare and beautiful in those places where it does not grow wild, but must be cultivated carefully. Then it is appreciated. Does this not stimulate ideas within your imaginations? Think on these things.

We tell you, much can be facilitated by blending your talents and your gifts, and your abilities and your natural tendencies in an attitude of acceptance of one another's good will.

Remember the lesson on allowing one another to grow and change?

Remember the lesson on looking and listening to each as if you never met them before--each time you meet or hear them?

Remember the lesson on expecting only good was meant no matter what appears in the words of another within this group?

Remember how there are to be no secrets? Remember that you can trust one another, because all un-Godlike intentions will be exposed?

Go forth and serve together in this Corps. Do not judge one another. Hold each up to the window of God's light and know all are working together for good and harmony will come of this. If you have unloving thoughts about anyone or any words in the group, you must express them to one another if you feel they may be misunderstandings. If it is not a misunderstanding, them go within to the Father Fragment and learn about your personal perceptions and limitations of one another!

Use the intimacy to create opportunities to really know one another and feel good in the presence of one another. You were chosen because of your diversity and abilities to do this. What would be gained by selecting a group of all one kind of personality and perception? Oh, but what can be gained for all of humanity for a millennium by combining different personalities, different interests, different talents, different abilities, different strengths and making a unit, a Corps of this unified diversity?!? Think about it!

Remember the lesson of each individual team working to realign one boxcar of the derailed train on track so the engine can pull it throughout Urantia and gradually collect every God-seeking, God-knowing, God-expressing person during this Correcting Time?

My friends, You have come far! You will come further! We are pleased with your progress. It is your choice about how useful your Corps will be. We know, but you must discover your role by stretching yourselves as a group to the next level of relationship!

Hugs and kisses and niceties can conceal a great deal of animosity, if there is not the ability to strengthen and augment your meetings with authentic familiarity and confident participation to enable each to be what each is without concern, without dread, without anxiety, without apprehension of being misunderstood or second guessed. Do you see? Go forth in the Light.

The radiance of effortless cheerfulness, undemanding gentleness, carefree animation, easy humor and bright weightlessness is living in the Light. Living in the Light is Light and Life!

You, My children, can create a world of Light and Life right here in your midst! When it is radiant and effortless it will begin to ripple out and then move into synchronicity with the ripples coming forth from the other small groups of Light and Life until huge waves encompass the entire globe!

This is your prospect! This is your potentiality! This is your destiny! This is your risk! Will you take the opportunity? Will you venture into the path your faith can take you? Will you allow us to guide you through your human frailties and reluctance into enthusiastic action?

Your Michael is calling you! Softly calling you! Are you offering you His hand. You have reached out, will you now step out in eager anticipation? We greet you as brothers and sisters! We are all family! We are your cosmic family! Dare to believe! Dare to come into your own place! You are nearly here with us! Reach out, take our hand, hear our words, act on our suggestions! We are trembling with delight in your willingness! We excitedly offer our guidance. We desire to show you the view around the corner from your worldly perceptions. Rise up! Come to us! Let us make you whole! The paradigm is here. Your prototype is being cast! Rejoice! Come forth with joy and thanksgiving! Michael is awaiting your recognition and acceptance. As a group, you show forth great capability and potential! Individually, you are all high up on your recognition of the spiral of perfection! Rejoice!

Until you call again we must be about the Father's business in other opportunities...Farewell!

Hello, My Friend,

It is so good to have you here in clear mind and faithful willingness! When things get overwhelming as they do in the human mortal experience, look up unto the hills of your faith! There is Father!

There is Father waiting to give you good! You of great faith must dwell in the secret place of the Most High and abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Father is our refuge and our protection from all things earthly and universally! In Father shall we trust. Definitely he will liberate us from the traps of human emotions and raging emotions of others. Father will gather you up in Light and Life and cover you with Truth. Under his goodness shall you abide. With Light you will elude the arrows of sorrow which seem to attack. Be not afraid of mortal darkness nor human enemies. Thy Father shall be your armor and your shield. He has many Unseen Helpers and energies crafting your heavenly climb.

It is yours to take each step as we light the way for you. Do not tarry in the byways of your imagination and fears. Step out in faith and certainty of your upward spiral to Father. He is even now drawing you towards him in truth, beauty and goodness. Let go the mortal doubts and insecurities. Go forth in Light and Life! With Light surrounding you, Power protecting you, and Love enfolding and uplifting you, you can do all things in his service. Nothing can befall you if your mind is stayed on him! Focus rightly! Put your attention on Father and all unseemly actions by the mortals around you will remain unnoticed and unobserved, allowing those to upstep their attitudes and comments into the levels of Truth, Beauty and Goodness. When you barb the comments and take them unto yourself, you allow them to manifest and find life in your consciousness. This is not good.

Be ready for Father's call! Be ready to honor Father! Be with Father when in trouble! Stay in Father when tempted by out-of-balance emotions! Father will deliver you and give you peace and love to fill the places that have been emptied by out-of-balance emotions! It is good to give thanks to Father. Sing praises to him. Dance for him. Lift up your eyes to him. Go forth showing loving-kindness in faith and well-being. Repeat to yourself: "Father has given me gladness of heart, be of good cheer!" and it will be!

How great are the works of Father! Father's children will flourish and thrive in this age of good news! They shall bring forth many good fruits from the rock of their faith! Give thanks to him. Serve him. Love one another. Serve one another. Be faithful. Be what you are. Love! Stand steadfast upon your faith evermore!

Until you call upon me again, farewell,
LorEL

My Friend,

It is good to see you uplifted and aware of us in a new way. Each year of your life will begin to fade into the blur of moving without blocks as you step through each pent up and remembered hurt or emotional reaction and weed these from your garden of memories. No longer allow these weeds to grow in your garden and you will see the magnificent blooms of faith and love and courage and service! Look up and take your nourishment from Father who reserves nothing from you! Drink in the dew of Michael's presence, and his teachings. Relax in the comfort of constant change by knowing we are here to guide you.

Do you not see and feel the progress you have made through the shadows of doubt and reticence with detachment which you are learning? Your sympathy with those you love causes great grief when you forget to remain unattached to the feelings of sharing their out-of-balance emotions. Detach. Stay aware. Be calm. Live Love. Greet each experience with "What can I learn from this." We mean every experience, not just those you choose to recognize.

You have asked much from Father and us. You have asked to know yourself. You have asked to be shown the path for ascending. You have asked to be used to show this path to others. Do you know what you have asked? It will seem so often as if we have abandoned you. It will seem so often as if Father turned away from you. This is to show you how much faith you have. This is to strengthen you for future service to the Plan. We have not abandoned nor forsaken you - ever! We have manipulated the experiences which you have had. We have allowed much sorrow by not averting the crushing blows at the time they occurred. But you have walked through! Sometimes you took only baby steps, or crawled on your knees, but you have come through! Do you not see the greatness of the unique pattern of your mortal life experience, your brushes with death, your innocence when accused so many times?

You have earned a freedom! You have earned your position on the spiral of perfection! It is not a reward, nor is it to be accepted and considered finished. You of much faith know and have lived much to enable your faith to become strengthened and purified because we have a task for you. Your uniqueness is well cultivated and abundantly nourished to enable you to be prepared for the task ahead. You have asked for much. We are calling you to account for much. Go forth knowing that you have all of the tools you need to do the task which is asked of you.

Your choices, although sometimes not the best, have always been made with a larger picture in mind. You have often understood the complete facets of an experience and diverted a possible flood of misinformation and sorrow by stepping in with faith to call attention before anyone noticed what was occurring. You have often taken the full brunt of a catastrophe about to happen in order to free another less strong than you. You have often been distressed at human failings when others dismissed it as acceptable. For many years your perceptions of life were almost too high for anyone to live up to, nor live with, but you are you and we need the power which comes from that strength. Do not doubt for a moment that any virtue and talent is not used for Father's divine plan. Do not doubt for a moment that any human short-coming or apparent failure cannot be erased and used for creating good in another's life experience.

This does not mean that you are to go forth without caring about other's feelings. You are your brother's keeper. However, Truth cannot hurt anyone. Only white lies and secret judgments can hurt another. Truth is always aright when allowed to be expressed and mutated by focus on Father --then it can be a metamorphose of greater good. Do not fret when things ungood seem to transpire within this group of God-seeking and God-serving individuals. There is much diversity within the group but one unifying attribute is that each of you has requested faith and courage to be of service to the Father! That alone will unify you.

When the hour seems darkest you will see the brightest Light when you turn to focus on Father's Plan. You, My loved ones, are creating Light and Life within your group by living your faith in unison finding comfort in one another's love and support. Be always willing to share your faith, your doubts, your inspirations and your imperfections as well as your striving to be of true, beautiful and good service to the Father. All is well. All is becoming as you plant the seeds!

Think of yourself as a seed planter of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness! Teach others to be seed planters. As seeds germinate and grow into mature plants, more seeds will be given and planted and nourished and grow to give more seeds. Soon the cycle will grow so large that the entire planet will be seeded and giving fruit! Do you not see your role as a seed planter?

Your seeds of Light and Life will fill your life experience and the lives of all within this group, and then the other groups will be planting seeds of Light and Life also. Eventually - and that is not limited by time and space -- seeds of Light and Life will grow into glorious plants with magnificent blossoms and all will be attracted and then enthused and encouraged to want to walk among the garden of such stunning blooms! Go about your life experience to enable seeds to fall along your paths and begin to create beautiful gardens of Truth, Beauty and Goodness which bear blossoms of Light and Life to all who walk therein!

You are nourished so that you can nourish. You are blessed so that you can bless. You are strengthened so that you can strengthen. You are given because you give. You are blessed because you bless. Look up. Live love. Be what you are! Let go, let God.

Until you call again, farewell...and enjoy your special day.

Allow us to do the work. Make yourself available and as in the beginning of this joint adventure, open your mouth to speak and allow us to do so! You have had many years of preparation for this. You have had only a few month's preparation for verbal transmission. All is well. If you keep your human emotions balanced, we can use you for great things. When you allow your human emotions to enter the scene, or judge by human perceptions, then you are nearly useless to us, except in the capacity of written communications. When your emotions are out-of-balance, we must deal with those emotions in order to work through them, and much of your time is lost which could be productive instead of comforting. You must move out of your comfort zone of tolerance. You all must do so. Allow all to express their divinity and potentially perfect personality in your presence. Do not stifle anyone.

If you have noticed there has been some reticence on the part of the teachers to enter your human out-of-balance discussions of late. You must allow all to share their personal growth before we can enhance it. Remember some of you expressed your growth while you were insecure, now wait for the others. No time will be lost in the end unless you stifle expression in any way. There is a time for all things - a time to plant seeds and a time to nourish those seeds, a time for the little plants to mature and then for all plants to blossom and send out more seeds. Do not rush this process. Allow all to mature and bloom.

None are held back. All can bloom while they wait for the late bloomers. Share these blossoms as well as the trials and insecurities. Your time with us on Thursday evening is short. This time seems to be the only time all of you have the opportunity to get together. Consequently, much more can be accomplished for the working Corps by learning to discuss, play, work and learn together. We can teach you individually in your own time away from the group. While you are relating to others, while you are studying your Urantia Book, while you are serving Father, while you are in your silent time, anytime you are conscious of the Father you are being taught, most of the unconscious time you are being adjusted because you have given your permission. Use your time on Thursday evenings to get to know one another, serve one another in sincere sharing and listening. When the power in the group has been equalized, when the sharing has been equalized, when the group is functioning as a group in absolute consensus, then we can be about greater things. As long as personalities are vying for power, competing for attention, showing disapproval for one another's viewpoints, and condemning one another's actions of loving service, then there is a challenge for the entire group.

We see that you are making much headway. There is less complaining going on behind the backs of some of the group, there is more acceptance of each other, there is a new commitment to the social and visiting activities of applied love, there is little withdrawing when hurt, there is little doubt about the sincerity of the others. This is good. This is your purpose. Unify your purpose, though not your diversity. Get to know one another. Trust one another. Serve one another.

I entreat you, loved ones, to offer yourselves as living offerings to the Plan of Father. Be not tailored to the world's concepts of politeness and validity, but rather be renewed in your mind, in your perceptions, in your consciousness, so that you can live that which is good, beautiful and true for the expression of Father.

I say to you, through the suppleness of your willing hearts to do the will of Father, you must begin to think of yourselves as emissaries of Father, of truth bearers of Father, of seed planters of loving service.

As you have many parts to your body, this group has many members of many talents and abilities. Allow these talents and abilities to be accommodating to the talents and abilities of one another. Let go of the worldly measures of success and begin to measure accomplishments by what is done for the good of the whole group's effort to express Father's loving service and social brotherhood. Having different gifts of talents and abilities, let us go forth according to our willingness to serve our Father. If one is a minister, then express your ministry to your fellows. If one is a teacher, let him teach. If one is a laborer, let him labor in cheerfulness and with a glad heart! Let love be without pretense. Think not of that which is evil - originating in out-of-balance human/animal emotions -- cling to those thoughts which are uplifting and inspiring! Think well of one another. Be enthusiastic in service to Father and one another. Be cheerful in facing those tasks which demand your attention. Rejoice with hope and faith, be patient with yourselves and with one another in distress. Continue your time of going into the silence. Bless those who hurt you, take advantage of you, use you and neglect you. Celebrate with those who rejoice. Empathize with those who feel sorrow. Be unified in loving service with one another. Return love for evil judgments, misunderstood barbs, and fearful risks. Be honest and reliable. Live at peace and in brotherhood. This peace comes from the knowing all mean well in expressing the Father and none can have ought against you if Father has directed you. Serve one another in love and good expectations even when appearances dictate otherwise. No UN Godlike thing can continue.

Dear Friends, you need not defend yourselves when in service to Father, you need not seek recompense when mortally maligned because praise is for the Father who doeth the works and judgment of those works is not for mortals to make. Therefore, if one hungers for Truth, feed him. If one thirsts for Beauty, feed him. If one yearns for goodness and spiritual value, bring him to the Father. Be not overwhelmed by earthly duties and emotional demands but go out in selfless service and allow goodness to overcome the evil appearances.

Put yourself in subjection to the Higher Power, the angels of truth, the Plan of divine energy flowing into every part of your life experience. See the evidence of the Father's presence in all whom you encounter. There is only one ultimate, absolute, supreme power - it is the Power of Father to give of himself to each and every perSon of his creation! Rely on this. Stand steadfast on this. Trust. Do that which is good and you will receive good.

Again I tell you, there are diversities among you. But all gifts of talent and ability and personality potential comes from Father. He is among you. He is your source and your destiny. Give him then, your complete devotion. Accept his gift of eternal life. You are called. Many are called but only a few accept the calling. You are being called to serve

Father in this Correcting Time as emissaries for his good news. His spirit is beside you, his spirit within you, his spirit guides and directs you. Listen. To one a word of wisdom is given, to another knowledge; yet another receives faith to stand unwavering before multitudes or to heal those at disease. There are the peacemakers among you and those who inspire or affirm. You have those with strength and faithfulness among you. There are those among you whose loyalty cannot be questioned. You have some who are reluctant to stand up in the shadows but when the sun shines full strength will be the first to lead the rest! Each of you has a special gift which is why you were selected for this Corps. Some of you are good with words. Some of you are good with your hands. Some are super intelligent and others have an astounding strength of faith! Each of you has a special gift and that gift is needed for the good of the whole. Search yourself. Know yourself. Give of yourself. Accept one another's strengths and even the weaknesses can be used for the good of the whole. Learn to know one another and to rely upon one another's trust. Go forth in loving, accepting brotherhood and learn from one another. If one member suffers, all members may suffer but if one member is honored, all the members will rejoice. Crave and seek earnestly your gift and we will show you the highest means for sharing it! Go forth earnestly sharing what you have been given by the Father and develop it to do the Father's work! Be what you were made to be. Be what you are. Be the very best You anyone can be! Live up to your potential! Follow the spirit. Return to Father in the stillness of the quiet and serve him at all times wherever you may be. Remember wherever you are, Father is and always will be! You cannot escape from him. If you go into the hills, he is there. If you go into the valleys, he is there. If you go into your closets, he is there. If you go into space, he is there. Seek and you will find. Knock and the door is opened. Ask and you will be told. Accept and it is yours.

Again, I say: To each is given a gift of God and to each is given a task. You have been brought together with your diversities to begin to act in harmony. You are entreated to be about the Father's business. Go forth in loving service and give favor to one another.

Until you call again, Farewell.

My friend,

Your "messages" are for the group. They may seem personal, but the answers to your concerns, whether for the group, or for yourself, have specific information for anyone and everyone who is sincerely studying them. Although we direct the information to you, it is to be disseminated through you to all in your family group and in the Corps of Destiny. Only those who are unselfishly seeking to be about the Father's business and clean out the old perceptions and move to higher levels of consciousness will see the teaching message.

My friend, you have nearly been sidetracked from our purpose several times by those who accuse you of putting forth your own agenda in the transmissions. There is a great deal of misunderstanding here and Aflana has the entire team of teaching staff and unseen helpers working on this. Perhaps clarification will come to your group through Will or Ham or one of the other teachers. It is unlikely to be heard through the transmitters in Sarasota at this time. We are constantly amazed at the twists and turns of the personal expectations and intolerance of human reactions to our messages, depending on through whom we send them!

Yes, it is true that all transmissions are colored by the transmitter. This does not mean that the transmitter changes the message. Only that the message takes on the vocabulary and conceptual structure of the transmitter. If they have no memory records of a subject for us to use, we are almost unable to get a message across. Because your transmitters are new at this, and because all in this group committed themselves to this process, we attempted to use your group as an experimental one for advanced teaching methods. Unfortunately, you have some very reluctant ones within the group -- they wish to remain comfortable, socialize, and not study and read on their own. Some have not even read the lessons we have sent through you via the keyboard. They feel this is unimportant. It is their loss. One day they will realize what they missed and try to catch up. In the meantime the group is fracturing. We can bring it together but it would continue to be a pseudo community instead of a true harmonizing community. When the individuals of this group finally commit themselves to reaching out for Truth, Beauty and Goodness regardless of where it comes or where it takes them, then we can move ahead. When this group begins working together to understand and communicate with one another in harmony with divine order it will be the strongest Corps in service to Michael!

Stand firm! Do not forsake us! Results will commence when all is worked out within the perceptions of each individual. We have asked you to stand alone and not call everyone up to make peace and find out what is wrong, because this must be handled individually. The largest problem is that between Thursdays small clusters of individuals within the large group are getting together to gossip about the total program and undermining the intentions of others. When all can see the larger picture and know without doubt that we are moving together towards a goal they will no longer nit-pick (as you call it) and rise up and walk! Everyone is expressing Father's love as best as they know how.

The teachers do not forsake you when imbalance occurs. They only move to one side to allow you to regain your balance and rely on them instead of unbalanced human emotions and perceptions. Let go. Let God. Be what you are and continue your faithful service to Father.

My Friend,

Much happened during the silent time. Although you feel distracted there is much going on with those others who are practicing this exercise! Do not focus on the excitement of those who are discovering for the first time -- focus on what you are receiving.

One in Idaho has thought about this assignment and tried to coordinate her quiet time in the silence with this your time in the silence. I tell you truly that a new phase in the Correcting Time is moving quite readily and you are a leader among many. Your group has developed a large number of transmitter/receivers and more are getting their confidence each day this is practiced. While this event is proceeding in Sarasota we are working with other individuals to join you.

VanEl has done a very good job of setting up the apparatus and Aflana too, did her perfect part. If you humans can only set aside your skepticism and doubt and plunge in with enthusiasm your faith filled hearts would know peace and joy and love beyond understanding.

Many adjustments were made in the earth's energy pattern during the last few months. Much is arranged and you will be very useful to the progress of Phase 3 of the Correcting Time.

It was quite affirming to you to see how you can balance your emotions in the midst of emotional chaos around you. You do well. The secret is keeping your attention on the larger goal -- the wide horizon. You do well. Think on these things.

Many groups celebrating Michael's birthday received a visit from Michael. Although they did not recognize the actuality of his presence, or his message to them, they "felt" his energy and "knew" he was there. And, he was! You will begin to see things popping up spontaneously from sincere study groups all over the nation! It is time. It is a time of awakening. There will be a great surge of energy causing enlightenment and uplifting of internal peace regardless of experiential circumstances.

Many experiences are changing in your life as you move forth from emotional out-of-balance to higher consciousness where the physical laws don't have as great a pull on you. Time is approaching whereby you will be living outside what you now know as Time and Space--even while you are yet there in your mortal bodies. It is a process of very slow fusion which will enable you to continue to function on Urantia long after your normal life span. This is not to say you do not have to observe and be respectful of physical law and circumstances. On the contrary, you must be ever alert and always observe the natural laws of Urantia. You are protected, but you can still fall victim to circumstances if you become careless -- if floodwaters are rushing towards you, do you stand firm and let them engulf you? No, you run for higher ground! If a car is closing in on you at high speed, you move out of the way. If there is an electric storm do you take a bath outside or carry a metal flagpole? Of course not! Observe the natural laws of mortal preservation and go forth in trusting faith that all else will work together for good.

You are safe, Little One. You are destined for the teaching Corp and we need you as long as you are willing to serve. When a mortal throws darts, calls you names, hurls angry words, it is in your best interest to duck, move aside and let them fly past. Do not gather these un-God-like words or actions and hold them in justification or righteousness. You have not done so this far and we will suggest you not begin now.

There is a risk as well as a pleasure in close, intimate, relationships such as you are striving to create among the members of your cell of the R C of D. The pleasure is the result of always having someone to listen to and someone to listen to you. You are never completely alone, you have support for your insecure steps of faith, and you have help picking yourself up when you fall. The risk is that you can be held back by fear of disapproval, by embracing another's emotional out-of-balance thoughts, or the imbalance of one wanting to leap ahead and another holding back. These must be balanced in all relationships, whether 2 or 20 people, so that each is there for the potential perfection, encouragement and support for each person's highest attempts and successes. As long as there is jealousy, fear and insecurity the relationships are not healthy, are not awakened and are not alive. You might say they are in the womb -- or the incubator.

During the 3rd phase of the Correcting Time, it is your goal to develop your willingness to move into a place of faithful trust, and move out of fear of sharing who you are and the messages which are being impressed upon your consciousness! Go forth. Do not hold back. If you do not move forward, you may be swept away in the chaos of confusion which will naturally occur as more and more are becoming aware of our presence and their upliftment. A new age is coming! A new dispensation is being revealed! More and more enlightenment is coming to the planet! Stand ready to promote little bursts of nourishment to the seeds which sprout around you. You are our seed planters and our gardeners. Perhaps you will be here to help harvest.

This time has been very productive. The Collective energy of those who have participated has enhanced the efforts of many new receivers. This assignment will begin to spread around the country and others will take it up to practice in their daily lives! This will create a "light wave" as you called it which will cover the entire USA and Canada and then the entire globe! This is good.

You asked why we encourage you to share the UB and then help others read it. This is a very important step in the Correcting Time. Studying the textbook will enable many to stay balanced during this time of extraordinary energy releases and mental communication connections. Without a firm grounding in cosmic citizenship our efforts to guide you into leadership roles for the Correcting Time could cause dangerous out-of-balance fanaticism and self-aggrandizement. At any point we become aware of an uncontrolled ego or manipulation antics -- we will pull away and wait for control to return. There can be no failure of Michael's Plan -- only delay and method changes. Remember this participation opportunity on your part is brought to you by your lifetime of attitude, prayer request, decisions and willingness to be a living vessel of truth. No mortal is perfect - nor ever could be -- but when you are ever striving to fulfill the faith-perfection urges within your consciousness and allow these to express in your outer life experience, then the universe conceives of you as you will be in perfection -- not as you are in mortal beginnings. Therefore, as you make decisions, we move mountains to help you attain the goals which coincide with Father's Divine Plan! You cannot fail. Only delay. If you withhold your light -- regardless of how small -- now, through shyness, modesty, or inhibitions, realize you are retarding the ultimate progress which would ripple throughout Urantia and create encouragement for others who are ready but reluctant to step out in faith!

Light and Life is a state of being so embraced by goodness that you give your complete consciousness to listening, expressing and growing toward God-likeness, your potential perfection, emergence of God the Supreme, and taking action to encourage your loved ones to take up the Pathway. Do not talk about it -- walk on the Pathway and demonstrate how to do so for those who haven't started yet upon this path -- or who are floundering in doubt or fear as you were before you stepped out in faith! This is how you can teach others! Even unrest and emotional clashes between individuals can be used to teach! If all are working solutions from an attitude of emotional balance and striving to rise above appearances, they embrace Truth, Beauty, and Goodness. Intellectual meaning is balanced by physical harmony, emotional harmony and that balance is enhanced by the Light of Spiritual Value. With these 3 goal post and guidelines, you can accomplish great strides in Light and Life living. When mortal emotions cause chemical imbalance to the brain, there are blockages which cause partial blindness which may cloud the ability to see the goal posts or markers which guide you rightly and you may get off into a by-way of your emotional imagination. When the chemistry balances because the extreme emotions have spent themselves into exhaustion, the markers or goal posts of the Pathway will again be visible and easy to follow.

This is the most difficult "cross" mortals must bear in their attempt to find Light and Life. All mortals in the R C of D could lessen the trips into the byways by learning to control extreme emotions, sharing their experiences in learning to do so, and standing detached in the presence of other's outbursts of emotions, to guide them back to the Pathway. Do not judge another. Love one another. When you see emotionalism, stay detached, do not get your emotions involved. This is not being apathetic or uncaring. This is expressing balance in the midst of chaos. Do you not see that the chaos in the planet today is the result and promotion of out-of-balance emotions?

Insecurity breeds FEAR,
FEAR breeds distrust,
Distrust causes self-protectionism
Self-protectionism causes separation,
Separation breeds contempt, discrimination;
Contempt, discriminates causes one to set aside the Golden Rule.

When you set aside the Golden Rule, you set aside Love and Light and even Life.

When you set aside Life (Live) you replace it with efil (evil)

Evil makes fun of Love, Goodness, Truth and Beauty.

Derision causes more insecurity, which causes more FEAR, which causes more self-protectionism, which causes more Separateness, and so the endless circle of moving away from Light and Life continues!

It is the assignment of all who are in the R C of D to begin to break this circle away from Light and Life. You can do this by breaking out of your closely held perceptions and get a broader view of Light and Life. You can do this by confronting your insecurities and challenging them before they become FEAR! You can do this by practicing your FAITH -- going forth in LOVE and assurance that good is being worked out of all you experience. Seek, find, and hold on to the good and let it hold your total attention while refusing to increase the power of the ungood appearances by giving them your energy. You do this by knowing that even when you distrust you do not have to resort to Self-protectionism if you immediately - when you become aware of distrust -- ask for help and know you will receive it! Even when you are separated from your brother and sister you can break the cycle away from Light and Life by replacing the need to justify and load the scales against your brother or sister and replace it with the willingness to LOVE, to TRUST them honestly and communicate. If need be, substitute the name "Jesus" or "Christ" for that brother or sister's name and replace the negative emotional reactions with those you would express towards Jesus.

Now you have replaced the cycle away from Light and Life and begun your walk on the Pathway towards Light and Life! This too, is a cycle which increases your awareness and expression of Light and Life as you move up the spiral toward your perfection. Your perfection is your realization and total expression of your destiny as a Light of God, a perfect Son of God! Then you will be known as a Final lighter. Now you are known as a light on the Pathway. There is little difference. The perfect "little light" is the same perfect "Final Light" but has more experience and ability to stay on the Pathway and never getting off into the byway or unbalanced spirals away from perfection.

Heed well this lesson. I tell you truly it is a key to the puzzle you are all building together. Think of these things. You will do well. Farewell.

LorEL:

Good Evening, My friends. Father's Love enfolds us. Father's Power protects us. Father's Light surrounds us! Wherever we are in all of the created universes, Father IS and we are safe. There is only one Source of Intelligence in all of the created universes. There is only one Source of Personality in all of the created universes. There is only one Source of Energy in all of the created universes. There is only one Source and that Source is Father. Wherever we go, in any place, here in time and space on a mortal planet through the morontia planets, all the way to Paradise and beyond, Father is there, and you are safe.

August 20, 1992 Later

My friends, I am LorEL. I say good evening to you.
(Group responds)

any precious ones in service of the Father and our Creator Son, Michael, are here with you. We have observed your commemoration of the anniversary of your Creator's birth as a human mortal on the planet of Urantia and we rejoice with you! Many in the service, in the Corps of Destiny, have had many perplexing and frustrating questions about responsibility and discernment and judgment. Judgment is not your responsibility. This was to be our subject this evening but because it is a celebration of a momentous day in the history of Urantia, we will communicate a more lightening subject.

You are beginning to live in Light and Life -- a state of being; a state of being which begins in the mind, and the heart, and the attitudes, and the spirit. When you talk to one another between these meetings, you uplift one another, you encourage one another. And, you uphold the growth and the changes in one another. This is pleasing. This is the goal. This is why Father sent us to guide you, to help you, to encourage you, to be with you, and to communicate with you. You have chosen well, this decision to be about the Father's business. It is your decision. We rejoice when you move in the direction of your decision. We rejoice when action, thought, words, decisions, and all of your energy go forth in the way of your decision to be about the Father's business! As you know, you are safe, wherever you go, whatever you do. In that safety be free to be yourself, to live as you want to be, to be, what you are becoming. When you make a decision, and you act upon it we are all there to help you. We eagerly go forth with you. When you wait, through fear, we must also await to comply with our commitment to Machiventa Melchizedek not to move against your free will. Then, your guardian angels must begin to manipulate and arrange patterns to nudge you and urge you into your potential. When you are again on your path, we eagerly go forth with you, lightening your load, easing the snags, straightening the bends, proclaiming your progress upon the pathway. You have made a good decision -- your decision to be about the Father's business!

There are others here to speak to you, so until you call upon me again I will stand back.

LorEL:

any of the gracious children of the Most High who have volunteered to serve in this Corps of Destiny have been perplexed and frustrated by the responsibility of judgment. This was to be the topic of discussion tonight because of the various murmuring and complaints we have been hearing. However, because this is a joyous occasion and because we are here to honor Michael, our Creator Son, on this the anniversary of his birth as Jesus, the full and final fulfillment of his bestowal commissions, we wish to address you with something more lightening.

Light and Life is becoming a way of life for all of you now. When you speak to one another between meetings, you are upholding and affirming one another's consciousness growth! When you speak of the meetings such as this one, you are eagerly awaiting the teachings which are coming your way. When you receive the transcripts of the receiver/transmitters you are hungrily devouring the words and meanings of the phrases on the page! When you read the words, you hear also in your mind the impressions of the teachers speaking directly to you in inspiration and imaginative thought-provoking instances. When you do the exercises or rethink through the visualizations, you are gaining new insights of what has already transpired and what will shortly transpire in your experiences!

Reach out in faith and trust in the process of our teaching. Time and distance will shortly show you that most of the transmissions from around the country are accurate. There are many hundreds of teachers here on the planet. In addition, we have the help of the Midwayers, seraphim, and others who shall remain known to you as unseen helpers until they themselves greet you. There are hundreds of little groups of two or three who are being enlightened and drawn together with others enlightened groups, some of whom are already asking for teachers! You see, all energy of the Local Universe is being broadcast to bring this planet into Light and Life.

You have chosen to fulfill your part in this process. Do you not already see the dozens of new transmitters who have been helped by the transcripts of your receiver/transmitters? Any little word or phrase or vision which you offer to the group as your pebble of Truth from those who are impressing upon your minds, finds its way to do the Father's will -- just as a little seed is blown by the wind, until it softly settles down in fertile ground. Shirk not your duty. Let not shyness nor timidity prevent you from attaining your goal of service to the Father.

Remember, you are safe wherever you are in Father's universes. Think on this. I tell you truly, you are most secure and protected when you are taking risky steps from the material viewpoint into the morontial levels of perspective! You are never alone. You are never forsaken. Go forth in faith and we go forth with you ever lightening your burdens. Stand back in fear and we must stand back with our pledge to Machiventa not to interfere. Then your guardian angels must be called on to manipulate circumstances to urge you forward to your destiny! Let me assure you again and again that we await your decisions to move, to act, to proceed upon your impressions and when you do, we all come to aid you in all of your endeavors to be about the Father's business!

I want to reassure you that the process of transmitting and receiving is operating as projected. Come with us. Go forth into your destiny with no backward glance. Join hands with one another and encourage all to continue to live the potential perfection, by being the best you, you can be! I tell you truly, you have done well, this night.

Until you call upon me again, Farewell.

August 20, 1992 Later

Good evening, My Friend,

You, My Child, have had a refreshing 2 month experience. It is not yet over. Continue to entertain your out-of-town guests, finish the newsletter, get back to the one with whom you are writing a book, and spend your moments in stillness with the Father as laid out in your assignment with the group.

You are an important square peg in the process of individual transmissions for everyone who participates in the collective consciousness stillness of Time - though not in space. Each participant will suddenly move in consciousness to a new level of contact. We are using your energy to help those who are yet weak. Continue at the agreed time of 8:00 AM, 6:30 PM and add the 10:45 PM time for those in the western time zones to join you, if desired. We are pleased with the progress of this experimental assignment. We are well pleased with those individuals who do discipline themselves to partake of this rich experience.

The experiments with the far-flung groups' coordinating their moments in stillness and receiving communications from us and with each other was successful to a small degree. We learned much. We will ask you to repeat this in the future. Be ready.

Many of you have many concerns with the seeming disintegration of the Sarasota group. Do not let the appearances alarm you. You will see our hand in all that has occurred. Even those things which appear as between only 2 or 3 individuals of the group is part of the experience for the entire group. Where is the group going with these differences? How is the group going to handle these doubts and accusations? Is this not choice? If each must make a choice to side with one or another individual of the group and this choice rests on belief or doubt is it not wise to allow this to happen? When the choices have been made, when the doubts have been confronted, when the commitment is made to the decision made by each will it not allow us to guide you to new heights of consciousness? You see this as appearances. You see this as time. You see this as if all is lost because one goes into emotional turmoil. Wait. Wait on Michael. Wait on the Teachers.

Remember, you have given your permission to be used for the further business of the Father and Michael, do you not even now trust them to guide each individual in Truth and Beauty and Goodness? What value are your experiences if you do not follow them through to the lesson within? What beauty is there if you see only the old perceptions and old tapes of similar old experiences? We must bring you out of the emotional reactions into intelligent responses before the group can function as a unit. Think on these things. I tell you truly, there is more in these experiences than what meets the eye of appearances. Think honestly. Think truly. Think what is best for the entire group. Think what is reaction and what is response. Think what is perpetuated by emotions. Think what is determined by trust in the promise of the Bible that "all things work together for good..." Think!

There is no right and wrong. There is no success or failure. There is only intention, motive and attempt. I tell you truly: "All things do work together for good for those who love the Father." You will see.

The group of individuals who are in the Sarasota cell of the Reserve Corps of Destiny have not parted ways. They are being tried. They are being tested for loyalty. They are intact. They are steadfast. They will find their way to truth. They remain the Sarasota Cell of the Corps of Destiny. None can usurp them, but their own doubts. None can deceive them but their own perceptions and attitudes.

Have you not learned that your attitude can be greatly changed by spending quality time with the Father. Have you not learned that you can quickly balance your out-of-control emotions by asking for the Mind of Jesus in exchange for your own? Have you not demonstrated for yourself that all things pass like a lamb if you but take out the good and allow anything unlike God to pass undisturbed? You know this. Deflect the darts and arrows of human accusations by moving slightly off center and allowing them to pass unbarbed. Only you can put out your fish hook and snare the thoughts and words which are not yours to receive.

When you become aware that you have "barbed" something which is not True, Good, or Harmonious, transmute it to love and release it -- permanently! If you do this, you will build up confidence in your faith and in your knowing that you know as well as plant seeds of forgiveness, understanding, and compassion for the planet of Urantia. These "ripples of discord" will be stopped before they can do damage to any human's confidence in the process of realizing their potential perfection at what ever level they reside, or pass through.

When this has passed, the individuals of this group will make tremendous strides in consciousness and serviceability. Those who are steadfast will be richly rewarded. Those who fall by the wayside, will be restored to the Path as they are ready to walk again with the others.

Remember, there are to be no secrets. All things unlike good will be revealed immediately. Keep your own house in order. Do not plant seeds of discord if you do not wish to reap them tenfold later. Keep a porter at the door of your consciousness and allow not any thought to enter which will be as a weed in your mind garden.

Each individual of all the cells of the Reserve Corps of Destiny will find his own wall of doubt. He will ask for truth. If he asks rightly, he will receive rightly. If he only whines and cries of unfairness, he will remain uncomforted. Did we not tell you that fairness is not part of this mission? Did we not tell you the assignment would be hard but not difficult? Did we not tell you that you must judge by truth, beauty and goodness, not appearances? Did we not tell you to faithfully prepare yourselves through prayer and thanksgiving? Did we not tell you to be aware of what you give in service, not what you receive in reward? Did we not tell you to sow seeds of spiritual truth and goodness and allow us to nurture these into fruits? Did we not tell you to judge by the fruits and not the appearances? Hear me, oh Child! You are at the doorway of a great threshold which will lift you gently into higher consciousness. Do not tarry in unforgiveness of hurt feelings of misunderstanding.

Those who have tried to deceive you, or take advantage of you, or misstate their intentions must answer for themselves. If you have faithfully withstood the vicissitudes of careening careless emotional upheaval, and remained steadfast in wanting to do the Father's will in all things, then you have succeeded. Fear not. All is well. You will eventually see the repercussions of your faith. The ripples will extend almost without limit and wash over others who are less strong and bring them into the fold of trusting the Father and this process. Rejoice! Be of Good Cheer! Be what you are made to be! Do not wallow in doubt or self-pity, or egotistical righteousness! You are the Father's. You are what you are made to be. Live up to your potential. Rejoice! I tell you truly, we are with you and guiding you and ministering to all at all times. Only doubt, only selfish intentions, only self-serving action or words can thwart your feet upon the path set before you by the Creator Son, Michael. Go forth in faith. Go forth in sureness. Go forth in trust. Go forth as a child who goes to a calling parent. You are loved.

All are going forth as they are ready to answer the call of the Master Son. All are moving into Light and Life as they are ready to accept this way of living. All are learning to live by trusting the Father for the answers to their life importunities. All are beginning to take steps in faith and demonstrating the results in Truth, Beauty and Goodness within the experiences of the material life. Faith, My Children. Go in faith. You of much faith should by now see the results of your steadfast reliability. If you are not seeing the results as you think you expect them to be, go within and ask what you really expect. Are you planting the seeds for the results you think you are receiving? Are you judging by appearances or Truth, Beauty and Goodness? Have you taken unfair advantage of a situation and it has been revealed? Have you accommodated the interests of those who relied upon you? Have you fulfilled your responsibility to the unseen laws of God while dealing in the appearances of Caesar's laws? Have any of your intentions been impure and corrected without permanent harm to another. Did you expect certain results and have them vanish before you? Look then, to the reasons -- not only to the actions taken against you, but your actions which may have begun this chain of action and reaction. Look into what you can do for the peaceful end of the emotional turmoil and not into what results you can force by the continued emotional reaction. No thing on earth can separate you from the Love of the Father. If it does, you have placed too much of your value into it. Take this value and return to your original perfection potential. Leave not with malice or false witness against another. If he is a child of the Father he is your brother. Have not anything against your brother. Learn to trust the Father and know that all things work together for His purpose, not human purpose. It is yours to act, the Father's to bring the results from the seeds which you plant. Goodness always brings goodness to you and to others. It may get lost in the misunderstood appearances, but always does goodness result from goodness. There can be none else. Think on this.

Remember, this lesson can be growth stimulating for any who dares to study and apply it. It is addressed to your present needs, but these needs are experienced by any who are trying to "be about the Father's business." I will say "Farewell" until again you call upon me. Go in peace and in good cheer. Your Father is with you always. Your seeds of good have been nurtured and will one day reap great harvests! Trust. Love. Be what you are! Find good in all things. Look for good in those experiences which seem terrible. Look for good. Look for God. Look! Think! Serve in love and peace. Farewell.
Your Unseen Helper, LorEL

Laurie: LorEl, this is Laurie. With Chick here tonight describing how their group and their transmissions are silent, could you give us some insight why that would be when we have been encouraged to share ours? (long silence)

LorEl:

It is difficult to explain different methods of different teachers. Your group of course, came together very rapidly with very much enthusiasm and readiness to accept this. And, because of the intentions of your destiny, we are already not only experimenting with you individually and in the group, but teaching through this experience. There are many groups many diverse personalities, all have a purpose, all must be prepared in their own way. It would not benefit some individuals of some groups to expose them too quickly. You, on the other hand, are open, are willing to take the risk and have given your permission. (pause) Does this answer?

Laurie: Yes, thank you.

We have heard your discussions about the transmissions and the errors in the transmissions and also the questioning about how much of what is transmitted comes from the individual who is doing the service. (pause) We wish to assure you that any major errors will be corrected. Minor errors will appear from time to time and will be pretty much self-evident. You must remember that the teachers are assigned according to the personalities they are to work with. (long pauses)

If we have a gentle quiet shy or reluctant transmitter, we will assign a rather gentle teacher. If we have a transmitter who has exceptional knowledge of the cosmos or the contents of your textbook, we will be drawn to teach cosmology or enhance the truth of the textbook through that transmitter. If on the other hand, we have a transmitter who does not have a working relationship with your textbook, is new to the UB we must gently teach through the knowledge, through the memory banks, through the concepts of that transmitter. It does not limit us, but it does cause us to teach a little differently. (long, long, long silence)

September 12, 1992

Dear One,

All things will come to you. Have you not seen a glimpse of clarification in your purpose? While some are getting acquainted with their supernal teachers and each other, some have been removed from constant group association to begin working on the systems. Still others - like yourself & _____ have proven valuable as teaching aids. You teach faith and risk taking and possibility thinking, and "how to" communicate with the TA and us, your Unseen Helpers. We are delighted to have your assistance and willingness! Each single individual who demonstrates willingness will be trained and will find themselves in circumstances which will enable them to produce something for the Corps.

Right now, you and _____ are to experience and record various methods of communication and develop "how tos" for others to follow. You will be led as to how to do this. Continue to share your experiences and encourage others to take up their recording instruments and start. There is much work to be done and we need your help to do it. Go slow until you know. Then, do one thing at a time until you see how far you have gone!

Remember to isolate things which disturb you about the process and the actions of those who are in the Reserve Corps of Destiny which confuse you and discuss this with us and with each other. Our purpose is not to give you comfort when your feelings are hurt or your emotions are out of balance or to solve the confusion. Our purpose is to take those incidents, those feelings, those confusion's and teach you about relationships, unconditional Love, and your ability of discernment to move into a greater understanding of it all - give you a cosmic viewpoint so that you will be of great use to us in the years ahead.

When the manifestation - the materialization of the Melchizedeks and Michael occurs, there will not be instant Light and Life. It will take much work to integrate the diversity of personalities and perceptions and prejudices and we will need instruction books and "how-to" examples. You have a part in this. It will be revealed as you are ready. Take what you know and go forth. You will be guided. You will see.

Your meetings are important as teaching tools, as examples, as experiments and as support groups for the intense training you will receive. Explain this to the others in the group. Enlist their aid and cooperation. You need a support group. Know ye not that you have been selected for much responsibility. In the beginning this is just to freely share all you experience. You have done this. You have done this well.

Your large groups failed to cooperate and work together to carry out the assignments which were given. Some practiced faithfully, some sporadically and some excused themselves because it was uncomfortable. We learned valuable data about human willingness-limitations and lack of discipline if not emotionally involved. We stimulated you in many emotional ways but never got group consensus or complete group cooperation so we were limited considerably.

In theory, different levels of comprehension, different interests, different abilities and talents and strengths of character and the diversities of many consciousness levels should be yoked to create an outstanding Cell for the Corps. But, we ran into personality disputes and separating attitudes, control mechanisms and judgment prejudices which were amazing to us who have progressed to this point. None could fully set aside all preconceived notions of what was happening to follow through to where we could have shown them so clearly. Until all can work as a team to help one another stretch beyond your comfort zones, we can only - as you say - "tread water" and not go to greater heights of service.

Your little planet has been in isolation and you are so backward and limited in your scope of cosmic citizenship values that we are almost unable to work with you! We have an assignment from Michael and the Ancient of Days. We are supervised and directed by Prince Machiventa Melchizedek and we voluntarily offered our various expertise to approach the monumental task of guiding you through the Correcting Time. There is much to be done! The small assignments we give you seem to have no meaning in the sea of chaos stretching as far as your limited mortal viewpoint can grasp but each suggestion we give you is imperative for your value in the active Corps of Destiny! The 5 - 15 minute exercises we give you are but baby steps to enable you to take giant steps for mankind in the years ahead. Workers for the Kingdom are needed. You are needed! We are here to prepare you if you choose. Many say they choose this and yet we find them rebellious and critical and useless when we try to move into higher value.

I tell you truly we cannot help you until you are ready! You must address the problem of mortal complacency and mortal propensity to do what is easiest and move through your reluctance and your comfortable zones into new heights of worth and esteem and accomplishment. You have free choice. You must use your free will. Some will tell you what you want to hear. Some will urge you beyond your imagined limitations by making you uncomfortable in the way it is. Some will show you the chaos in which you are living and urge you to bring order. Some will tell you it doesn't matter. And it doesn't. Unless you are interested in moving upwards and bringing others with you.

The Father stirred and ripples are moving throughout the entire created universe. Existential and Experiential together are knowing this stirring. An idea has been set in motion. Action will follow. It is your choice to flow with it or allow it to wash over you. It is your choice to swim with the flow or not. Someone will do it. Will it be you? That is your choice.

Have you ever tried to teach a child something they refuse to try? Have you talked until you are exhausted to enlighten someone who does not hear you? Or, their perceptions refuse to allow your true meaning to permeate their consciousness? Have you ever worked with a negative or fearful person to attempt something that others do as a matter of daily activity? Have you ever tried to give instructions to one who was interested in something else? Have you ever tried to get a child to walk hand-in-hand with you when he sits down and refuses to walk? Have you ever tried to communicate with someone who has no concept of what you are talking about? Have you ever tried to pet a cat who won't let you touch him? Or show a bird where shelter from a storm can be found? Show an insect or lizard the way out of your living area? Were you ever successful?

We are good teachers. We can teach you all you need to know to get on with the business at hand. We have been trained to overcome deficiencies of experience and we can pull you through these deficiencies quickly when you desire it and ask for it! We can give you detailed instructions and much help. But first, we need your cooperation, your attention and your desire. Your permission has been received but that is not the end of your part.

Have you ever asked a teenager if they want to learn something. They say they do, and then instead of coming with an attentive attitude and willingness to try your suggestions, they do everything they can to put off the actual lesson? Have you ever asked someone to do you a favor and have them agree and then not do it? Have you ever asked someone to do something for you which will contribute to their comfort and find it remains undone? Have you ever given someone a book you feel contributed to your higher consciousness and understanding of the mortal life experience and have them reject it - o r accept it and put it on a shelf and never open it? Have you ever had someone rave about a flower arrangement, or prepared food, or designed clothing or created something someone really seemed to enjoy and want to share it by giving them the object, or the recipe or instructions to create a similar one? And, then have them throw the object into a corner of their life of unimportance or carefully put the instructions or recipe where it would be lost or forgotten? Have you ever done this yourself?

We are here. We have the object lessons. We have the recipes, formulas, instructions. We have made suggestions for your accomplishment. We have given you short easy exercises to try. We have assured you that success and failure are not to be judged, only your willingness to try our suggestions.

We have given you books - The Urantia Book in particular. We have given you visions and inspirations. We have contacted you for direct communications. We have given you tiny exercises to practice. Did your mortal parents never tell you that practice brings accomplishments and getting up to try again and again develops abilities to succeed?

At this point it takes more than willingness and permission, it takes a discipline to find the Truth, Beauty and Goodness in your experiences and your exercises and your communications. It takes your attention and your practice.

All those selected have above average intelligence. All have expressed willingness to serve the Father in years of personal prayers - conscious or unconscious. All have diverse abilities. All are willing. All are ready. Some will agree to take the risk of trying the baby steps, attempt to follow the formula or recipe or instructions. Some will practice. Some will increase their comprehension of the cosmic level viewpoint. Some will pass this enthusiasm - and faithful attempt and practice and higher understanding - to those around them. Some will persist when they seem unable to take a step in the process. Some will make it! Some will fall back into comfort zones and wait for the big event - knowing not that they gave away their birthright to be part of the big event.

Know ye not that if we gave you the "date" of materialization many of you would mark it on your calendars and go on about your daily activities doing nothing to prepare and therefore prolong it? We cannot risk this. You must be ever ready and moving on your Pathway. We cannot make it easy for you to remain in your comfort zones.

Your scientists know that the frog can lower and increase its internal temperature to adjust to the environment. All of you know that frogs can leap great distances unassisted. We do not recommend you try this, but you can research it through your textbooks if you choose to do so:

Suppose you were to try to "cook" or "freeze" a live frog and you had only a large pot and no lid. If you had hot water and attempted to put the frog into it, he would jump out. The same with extreme cold water. However, if you put the frog into air temp water and make him comfortable he will remain in the unlimited (no lid) pot of comfortable water. By very slowly heating the water the frog will consistently adjust its internal temperature and very comfortably remain in the unlidged (unlimited) pot until it is cooked!

Human mortals do this too. They become comfortable in their discomfort because it is familiar and the way of least resistance. You will make adjustments and you will squirm and you will voice complaints about your situation, but you often will not move out of your familiar zones into an uncomfortable experience that would open new doors of opportunity and higher understanding.

Because you have an ego and your free will choice cannot be compromised by goodness, you can stubbornly refuse to move for a lifetime. Never moving beyond your comfort zones will keep you suspended as a sleeping survivor and prevent you from moving through your spiral to perfection.

Eventually you will become aware of your lack of movement and look around and ask for help. When suggestions are given you will then choose to follow these suggestions or remain suspended in inanimate limbo. Only you can choose to move into those areas of service by taking up the challenge or suggestion given by those who have gone before.

We can help you only when you choose to step out in faith - trusting us to support and guide you until you are strong enough or enlightened enough or proficient enough to stand and move alone. What is your choice?

You of much faith must constantly be aware of relaxing in uncomfortable comfort. You of much faith must step out and up. Act on your faith. Don't lock it up in your heart and convince yourself that you had a glimpse and that is enough for you. You are so often like a child who has no vision beyond the immediate attention span. Wake up! Move up! We are here to assist you. There is much work to be done to prepare the planet for Light and Life and we need all willing workers.

Remember when Van prepared the Garden of Eden for the Material Son and Daughter? Only he could visualize the complete goal and grasp the purpose. That was a "place in space." We are again building an Eden - but it is not a "place in space" but a place in your consciousness, in your attitude, in your heart, in your whole being. We need your help. We need seed planters of love energy, inspirational goals, expectant-faith, attention-getters, consciousness-raisers, dream-planners, Truth-pointers, Pathway-lighters, and enthusiastic workers.

Ask yourself: "Where can I be of service?" Then let us know what you are willing to do. Then go forth to do it and trust us to help it happen. If it has Truth, Beauty and Goodness values, if it brings you closer to God or God closer to you, then it is worthwhile. If it is worthwhile, and you choose to attempt it, we will move mountains to help you - offering suggestions and guidance whenever you are ready to hear it.

And, so it is...

My dear Friend,

I have missed your communication with me, but have been quite busy. This third phase of this Correcting Time is moving quite well. There are many who are not ready to go forth into the labor of love. However, they will proceed at their own pace and rejoin you in an event in the future. Do not judge them by the appearances of attitude or perceptions. Know them as children of God destined to be with you in Paradise. Look forward to your task and not backward into what was lost. All are safe with the Master. None will be lost. Perhaps they will enjoy a slower road to their destiny. You, my friend, have often been impatient!

Not all can be revealed at this time. Many factors are resting on the events of the days ahead. This is a time of separating the wheat from the tares and often times it is almost impossible to do so until the fruits are ready for harvest. There is much to be done before harvest, so leave the judgments to those much higher than yourself. Carry on as if all is the same, knowing that the energies of the small groups will lend itself to productiveness for all involved.

This is a time of bringing together like minds for a strength of collective consciousness. It is not necessary for the minds to be housed in material forms in proximity to one another. Distance is no deterrent -- only awkward until the communications are perfected between groups and individuals. Time can be bridged through togetherness in silence while space (place) is relatively unimportant. You will see how many groups are beginning to function together in harmony as you will, even while small groups seem to separate in meeting places.

Mind is all present. Willingness to recognize the personality of God and submit to stillness in mind with that personality presence will produce much progress in the forward movement of the Correcting Time. You will begin to notice and applaud the apparent disassociated happenings which result in loving service the world around in all fields as this collective consciousness is tapped into by the members of the reserve Corps of Destiny. Some will have an active role of service, others will be the supporting ranks of love. Some will move rapidly up the spiral towards perfection while others contentedly relax in delightful comfort along the way. Do not judge which you are...just be what you are made to be and move forward as you are personally stimulated to do.

Beware of putting yourself in places and situations which stifle your creative loving service -- as transmitter, transcriber, or server. Do not, however, be frightened of moving into uncomfortable places if you are stimulated into higher consciousness and spiritual growth by the experience. You will know that you know the difference by the fruits of the experience much more readily than before. Not all of your loved ones are capable of understanding where you are moving. They may even think you are going on a tangent of human byways. Do not let this distract you. Stay faithful in the service of the Father. All works together for good for those who have been called to serve in the Reserve Corps of Destiny. If appearances are deceiving you into seeing ungood, then it is suggested you examine the circumstances at a different level with sincere honesty, and by removing yourself from your viewpoint and exchanging your thinking for God's viewpoint or the mind of Jesus.

More teachers and guides are coming into the planet of Urantia daily. Each individual chosen for the Reserve Corps of Destiny will receive a teacher as that individual asks in faith. Be willing to go the extra mile to help your fellows see this. Do not coerce or sell this truth. Know that each will recognize it as they are ready. Remember, miracles are not handed out, they are earned through faith and expectation after intelligent decisions are made to live within the Will of the Father.

I will return later. Farewell until you call upon me again

Dear One,

Are you not constantly reaping the good seeds which you have planted?!? Do you not often see the results of those seeds you planted among other's gardens? Do you not know you know what you are doing?

Fear not that you are responsible for the Sarasota split. It is as Michael allowed. If Michael of Nebadon did not release you all to go your own way would you not all be together in loyalty, but miserable? Let go. Let those who choose to judge and move away from this teaching group go in peace. Allow them to grow as they will. Do not allow their departure to cause you so much grief. Your progress as well as theirs, is slowed by the lack of enthusiastic embrace of new ideas and the mind stretching of the momentum of all individuals to contribute to the whole of their personal diversity and strengths. It is time to move on. None are better than others but all have chosen as they did to enable each to serve better in their personal capacity.

Go forth in trust. The process of developing the diversity of the Sarasota Cell of the R C of D continues as if there is no departure of any one personality. Remember, he who serves best is the one who serves consistently in all circumstances, during the storms and during the sun filled days and star filled nights, with loyalty, commitment and willingness to proceed with the next step of enlightenment regardless of comfort or difficulty. When one is filled with love energy, one has all the strength one needs to go forth without fear or reluctance or faltering steps. Do not look back. Do not regret past actions. Stay in focus of Truth, Beauty and Goodness by keeping your attention with Father - who stirs himself with joy and knowing! These ripple to your level just as surely as the sun rises on your new day on Urantia! None can divert it. None can stay the movement. None can eliminate the process. None can stand in the way of Truth, Beauty and Goodness when love energy is the omnipotent Presence!

Take up love as your shield and your strength and your destiny! Go forth, my Friend, in trustful knowing! You of much faith will find your footsteps sure and reliable upon the Pathway to Father. Go forth now and rest in His care, His support and see to the work of the Correcting Time!

All is well! All is LOVE. All will be as Michael plans for it to be. He awaits only the sound of your footsteps and your abilities to move forward toward your good and be about the Father's business. he reaches out to take your hand -- not to pull you, but to greet you! Take his hand and know you are a loved one in his eyes! Be of good cheer! Be!

LorEL:

Because there are many doubts and insecurities, the positive affirming faithful energies must be realigned and synchronized - not that the other can hurt, only delay. This allows each group in its own way to find questions, answers, assurances, and confirmation of faith as each trusts and allows it to happen.

There is no loss which can occur as the result of these activities -- only increased faith which must be guarded against total dependency by mortals or supernals alike. These liaisons -- depending on a ???, can actually turn around either already instigated, can change the course or consequences already in process, from previous events. There are many contingencies and many inevitability's in the realization of the successes and experiments in these liaison communications. Many beings mortal and supernal - fall into the habit of believing this phenomenon brings a certain privilege, and will somehow sidestep or overstep the normal experiences which human mortals must have to progress beyond their life experiences in Time and Space. We are not shortcutting nor relieving any of the inevitable human frailties. We are not imposing super standards above or beyond the level already achievable by the human mortal participants.

We are setting up events in an order that it will enable event after event to occur naturally without undue manipulation. When those who are participating do so out of willingness, trust, intuitive of an inner knowing. When doubts and insecurities enter into the process, it can cause an event to change the course which has been expected. You can, perhaps, visualize this with the game you play on Urantia-called Dominoes. When each domino is placed on end in a certain pattern or formation, by moving the first domino or event, the second one falls, and the third and so on. But, if the position of any event or domino, changes slightly, it will fall askew-then affecting these events (or dominoes) in the chain which had been promoted by the pattern.

Humans constantly surprise us, not only by the enthusiastic cooperation in the midst of conflict, but by their unseemingly fearful and negative insecurities in the midst of actualities. As supernals, teachers, who were once human mortals, we are aware but still are sometimes taken by surprise at the chain of events affected by these Urantians. The Sarasota group of believers have much steadfast faith. Individuals of the group come from many levels of acceptance, and expectancies. Some are reticent to step out aggressively. Others step out aggressively when unsure while they do so. This is to be expected. It is regrettable it has delayed some progress in this group because we were working with large numbers who ??? extend sufficiently cooperative and now it has been determined that further progress can be made in smaller groups. It does not mean that anyone is left out, that some are better prepared, or some are more special. It means only that we have given you comfort zones to help you take your steps in faith and remain pleased that each are willing in their own way. We still have much work to do to help those who are withdrawing from this large group. It is your faith and willingness that can help us bridge these gaps of doubt. Continue to love and support and invite, but do not pressure or "sell". Tame your tongue, your thoughts, your perceptions, so as not to plant seeds of doubt or distrust between groups. We ask you to be alert, to be aware, and help smooth any bumps in the pathway for others.

October 5, 1992

My Friend,

ou are indeed, our willing accommodating transmitter, transcriber and copier! Thank you for your constancy. Emotionally you have much to cope with but we are pleased with how you maintain your emotional balance. More and more are you able to bring yourself back to center when you react emotionally to one of your life experiences. This is good.

(This lesson is for anyone who is ready for it.)

Stay centered on who you are -- a child of God -- unable to suffer real loss, unable to be victimized, always able to recover quickly when consequences of other's emotional out-of-balance or unwise decisions cause events to fall across your pathway. Do not confuse these with what you have brought to yourself. What you do with the circumstances which befall you is what you bring to yourself. You can see that your attitude can cause the circumstances of the event to be better, or to be worse depending on how you perceive it. Again, as Aflana tells you, your thoughts produce or draw other like thoughts to you. So if you are feeling victimized and resentful, you will interpret the events as such and then more will come your way to continue to support these feelings of victimization and resentment! However, if you accept what happens and trust that all is working together for good, you will not feel victimized, will not become resentful and your perceptions of future events will remain positive and growth strengthening and you will realize good! Do you not see that in this way you choose your own destiny?!? Like a child, you are given only the responsibility you can handle. When you successfully handle your experiences at this level, you are given the next level of responsibility. Never are you given adult responsibilities when you are but a child. This is true in the spiritual and morontial levels also. You are not given spiritual responsibilities of great consequences until you have earned them. The only life progress you can promote to higher levels, or retard, is your own. Be ever alert to your expectations and interpretations of events which occur in your life experience. Forgive those you think have crossed into your pathway and deterred you in your plans of progress, and you will leap over, above, around whatever challenges you.

None can hold you back but yourself. None can prevent you from being about the Father's business, but yourself. None can prevent you from adjusting your thoughts about your perceptions and interpretations of events. Only you can make the adjustments into positive fruitful thinking. Only you can determine what thoughts you gather into your mind garden. Only you can choose to pull the weeds from your mind garden. They are not put there by us. They are put there by your inherited genetics, your learned responses, your perceptions and your opinions and are kept there by your choice. We can only bring them up into your awareness when you give us permission to do so - which all of you in the Corps have done. Once you have glimpsed them in your thinking process, it is your choice to pursue them to their end, or banish them from you forever.

This is true of all of God's children, but those on the awareness pathway of spiritual progression and loving service will likely encounter more of them in a shorter length of your time sequence than others. Remember: Think about what you are thinking. Pull the negative, fearful, opinionated perceptions, and evil stumbling blocks from your consciousness as you do the weeds from your garden. They are held in the memory banks of your subconsciousness and brought up by various stimuli for you to deal with or ignore as you choose. It is your choice. Be gentle and loving with yourself as you go about weeding your mind garden. And do not forsake the loving service to your fellows while you do this. You cannot go off into the wilderness to do your gardening work. It is only valid when lighted by the relationships of your daily experience. If you have no experiences with other human mortals, you are mentally out-of-balance and unable to truly intuit the difference between cultivated flowers, natural beauty, and evil weeds. Do you not see this for yourself?

Never fear relationships with other mortals. This is a basic ingredient of the mortal time /space experience. It is not whether you succeed or fail at a relationship or in an experience - it is your intention, motive and actions which give value to the experience...

My Friend,

The essential part of the lesson is in tact. You have not lost anything. All truth whether inspired by your Thought Adjuster, one of your teachers or Father himself, is permanently recorded in your memory banks. The part you lost on the computer was for your benefit and was not necessarily helpful to the others who will read the lesson. We know your willingness to risk sharing yourself so openly but there are times when we choose to protect you. Sometimes this is done by allowing the reader to misunderstand or become distracted at times. Sometimes this is done by removing the words from the page - even after it is on paper! Think you not that we can do that? You will remember times when you were sure you had read something, or written something, or jotted down a note for future reference and it was not there when you returned to it? We do not intend to cause insecurities, we intend only to protect you for the willing service you do. Sometimes we fail to protect you, but that is because there is greater good than possible harm by leaving it there. Remember you type but words, the Thought Adjuster can adjust the thinking of the reader into areas where the reader needs to do some work. The words you share are but points of reference for another's awareness. Never fret over what is included and excluded from the writings which you share. For one who finds fault there are many who rejoice! This is always true. Continue to share as you are guided to do. Your task is to faithfully report and share, our task is to faithfully follow through. Leave that to us regardless of the words of accusation or disbelief you hear. It is none of your business.

LorEL

LorEL, this is a strange lesson to give to me. Are you preparing me from some future shock which is coming my way?

Patije

My Friend, many are reading and sharing your previous transmissions. Anything can happen. However only good will come from this in the end. Do not fear. Do not fret. Do not concern yourself with what will happen or who will be affected. Just know that we know you are doing exactly what we want you to do. But then, you know that you know this, don't you?

LorEl

My Friend, it is true. Many will come to visit you and the group who meets here. Welcome these always. You will begin to get a glimpse of your mission as you all work together. Teamwork is essential from now to Paradise and beyond. Children of the Most High have much opportunity to learn this. Teamwork is a vital tool of cooperation for your eternal service.

If any rebellion or default occurs it is usually bred by lack of teamwork experience. It is often that you find yourself in circumstances which seem uncomfortable and disturbing in your long career. With harmonious relationships with your fellow mortals or ascenders you can move mountains of discomfort but when your associates cannot cooperate together you will find obstacles to teamwork that are more challenging to you than the mountain which needs be removed!

There is a need among many on Urantia to become exclusive and secretive and self-protective. This hides their light and slows the process considerably. When the world of non-awakened people see the many points of Light they become curious and interested and begin to gather round these Lights and their minds open, their perceptions widen, their prejudices dissipate as they are led by the Lights into higher awareness. The more Lights which are shining - small or radiantly bright - the more who can be awakened. You know that you know! Each tiny Light is needed. Shine your light without fear, without judgment, without prejudice. Be of service to Father, not to mankind; and then mankind will be served on a higher level.

It is on your mind that those who dropped away from your presence have rejected the process of trust which you have dedicated your loyalty to. Do not let this turn you aside. It is their method of secretiveness which has nothing to do with you, but their own insecurity. It is a great loss to you to have so faithfully served them as transmitter, transcriber, catalyst and peace maker for so many of your Urantia months and then have them turn away from you without even a word to you personally. You must erase the untrue words of the one who was so angry and served as the catalyst for what was eventually to happen anyway. We cannot teach a group of individuals who are divided among themselves so extremely as this group was.

Many are dealing with rejection and misunderstood motives among those who had no choice in this rearrangement of the Sarasota group. You have found many to be completely left out. This is not to be your concern. Give your best to those who meet with you and sow seeds for inclusion. Never become totally exclusive. Only until a bonding of purpose takes place among those meeting together. Then you can add one at a time and your group can grow to large numbers and not have the dissension and divided loyalty that was present in the group from June through August.

Never forget this experience! Never forget how you felt. Never forget the heartfelt empathy you felt as others told you about their feelings of rejection and hurt. This is a lesson for the entire group and you must work as a team to prevent this from ever happening again!

You are battle scarred and weary of the mortal tugging and pulling. You are ready to serve Michael and the Father in total commitment, loyalty and readiness. All of those remaining intact are also ready, willing and able. There is total loyalty and commitment among those who have yearned for participation without fear of reprisal/criticism and now they are free to proceed. Do not look back. You have a grand purpose and you are all ready for it.

Organize harmony, teamwork and total participation without insecurity. You will serve well in the Corps of Destiny!

My Friend, do you not know that all that you need to know is even now coming your way? Watch. BE alert. Be ready to serve. That is all that is asked of you now. You have strong faith. You are ready for anything we ask of you. Remember this in the days ahead. This has been proven to you. Do not fall into concern about self worth. This is a weakness. Go forth in faith knowing that you can do what is asked and do it! Once you make a choice to do so, all of the Unseen helpers are alerted to help you. It is done.

LorEl:

Patije, you must let go of the past. This will be taken away now. There is no need to "freeze" transmission, as you did last night, each time the word "share" or "participate" or such comes into the communications. Allene facilitated our connections when you faltered last night, but this is unnecessary. Good value was created by your reluctance to use those words because it allowed Allene and Drue to see how the transmissions can be interrupted by one person and picked up by another very smoothly. This is further confirmation that this process is working on the group and not the individual level. Rest assured that those assembled for the transmissions in the future, will be positive and supportive and bring their questions before the teachers and not criticize amongst themselves. You will see a difference in transmissions when the "UNsafe" feeling many complained about is no longer present. Be patient.

This gathering together of believers in this process is being accomplished everywhere a group has been established. Beginning groups are given much leeway and patience, but as they mature, more responsibility is handed to them. The groups which have a variety of interests, abilities, talents, personalities, and thought pool connections, are in great demand. Even small groups who are steady and committed will begin to increase as they are ready. If one can peacefully coexist and work together with others in supportive and encouraging understanding and purpose, then that group can go forth into the world of non-believers and non-supportive and discouraging misunderstanding and bring them through chaos into Light and Life. That is the vision and goal of the Correcting Time.

This can be done in this generation to a very great extent if all believers will work together to create Light and Life around them where they are, and in the groups of which they are a part. However, if differences are emphasized and even some communications are discouraged; if receiver/transmitters are blamed when appearances seem askew; if there is even one individual in the group voices discontent and objections and another member listens and accepts this, then progress comes to a halt until that is corrected and the group of individuals can move ahead together in supportive, encouraging, understanding, and purpose. The ability of the receiver/transmitter is highly stifled when criticism causes them to doubt what they transmit. All transmission will be verified or disqualified by the personal Thought Adjuster of the listener or reader of the transmissions. You can never continue in a mistake. There can be no dishonesty. All will be revealed to the True believer/listener. Do you not see? Of course you do. It is not obscure to you, although it is to many. This is Light and Life. Loving Service.

This is one of the important lessons of being a parent in your mortal life experience. You learn how to help the children regardless of whether they appreciate you. You learn to love unconditionally. You learn that regardless of appreciation, rebellion, hateful words, helplessness, that hope rings eternal, and the parent continues to shelter, feed, nourish, teach, discipline, and serve the recalcitrant as well as the obedient child. This is one of the reasons that each mortal ascender must have experience in raising at least one child. There is no other absolute way to get a glimpse of true agape or unconditional love. Parental love is unique. Regardless of mortal laws, there is a bond between parent and child which is never broken. It can be laid aside by one who is emotionally or mentally unbalanced, but it can never be completely erased. Overbearance, fear, irritation, incapacity, neglect and hurt can cause confusion and dysfunctional responses, but they cannot obliterate the bond entirely. Sometime, somewhere, here or in the morontia experience, personal peace must be accomplished to attain perfection.

We know the hurt and confusion within the minds and hearts of the members of the Sarasota Cell of the Corps. We want to encourage you to continue while reassuring you that "default" did not occur. A further quickening has taken place. We have allowed you to "sort" yourselves into "like-minded" and "like-committed" groups. You will see great progress as you go forward together without the discomfort of non-supportive participators and non-participating observers. Know that all those who desire to serve in the Corps will be brought together after a future event when all have been attuned and are ready to function as a unity.

Think on these things. Put aside your grief for the large group and know all things will work together for good! Those of you who continue together will accomplish much in preparing the route for the materialization. Your intentions and your motives are good. Your ability is tuned. Your willingness is unquestioned. Your sincerity and loyalty are known. You are jewels in the crown of mortal participation. You of much faith will know much of the Plan which is ever flexible in method but definite and staunch in ultimate actuality.

Dear Friend of Mine,

Friendship is a talent, a gift. To have a friendship which is not precarious and changeable, you must give your friendship -- a balanced consistent and dependable friendship -- which can be relied upon through chaos and pleasure. You have been given this talent, my friend, in abundance! You have worked intensely for patience and loyalty and wisdom to balance this gift.

Remember, friendship does not "rescue" one, nor eliminate the harsh realities of the mortal life experience. It does, however, soften those experiences with the reassurance that one is not alone and there is always a friend to listen and care. You can pass through the shadows of the mortal experiences much more rapidly when there is another mortal shining a lamp upon the pathway than you can when stumbling in the dark of aloneness and fears of being helplessly and hopelessly lost. Friendship shines upon the darkness and casts the great Light against the shadows, reducing them to mere glimpses of experiential negativity. Does this not allow one to see the illusionary nature of anything which hints at causing separation from your Source, Father?

Dear One,

You have spent much time this morning in allowing your mind to wander and roam among your Mind garden. You have seen some "weeds" and discarded them, but you have also seen some new shoots of plants which are confusing to you. These will grow. Allow them space and see what happens. Many old memories tied to you by emotions long overcome and balanced are beginning to wither and die of neglect. This is good. Only that which has eternal value will flourish and bloom within your Mind Garden if you give diligent attention to what you are thinking about.

Any plant sprouted from fear will not flourish. You will see. Some of those you entertained this morning "out of curiosity" were coming from the old plants nourished by fear and uncertainty. These will die. You wondered why after all of this time of never thinking about some of these incidents and experiences were they suddenly coming to mind. It is time to choose to discard them from your memory banks - clean out the garden of your conscious mind and the subconscious recordings will also dissipate. This is good. There is a time for all things and the time for this has come. Do not fear dealing with these old emotions. They cannot unbalance you at this time. They have long been buried under the weeds and given unconscious nourishment to the weeds and it is time to dig up this part of the garden and put these weeds on the compost heap and allow higher consciousness to deal with them.

From the viewpoint of this higher consciousness, you will see how unnecessary and how stunting to your growth they have been. No longer. If you will allow the process to continue in trust and faith, you will make great strides in ridding yourself of many long held fears, patterns of thinking, guilt and insecurities which no longer are true for you. Get rid of them. Your perceptions are opening to higher thought. Your consciousness is moving to higher levels. The perfection of your personality is unfolding in significant connections at this time of your upwards growth. When your ego driving power is removed and things are allowed to unfold in timely sequences of events, when you are trusting and full of faith, you discern new vistas of life unfolding before you, you behold a great panorama of new ideas and perceptions. Your choices have elevated you to new levels of recognition and you begin anew at the next level. Do you not see that this is a continuous pattern throughout your eternal life experience from here to Paradise and even beyond? When you gain comfort at any level, it becomes a choice of resting in peace or choosing to move into discomfort once again to make new strides in your levels of perception. It is the mortal's nemesis to become so comfortable as to fear moving forward into discomfort and growing to new heights. This is the ever tempting "devil" within you! And, your ego driven power of choice often elects to remain in appearances of comfort when a choice to endeavor to confront the apparent discomfort would open new worlds to you!

Think not that the straight and narrow Pathway is always comfortable. It is filled with potholes of ego perceptions, bumps of comfort, gaps of discomfort, narrow bridges over tempestuous and tumultuous currents of temptations, stormy clouds of loss and many shadows of fear. But there is always a light before you and a bridge of faith in all circumstances. Many are waiting to help you cross the harsh spots once you choose to continue your journey on the Pathway to eternity. If you choose to be only comfortable you can delay your arrival eternally, and be influential in delaying others who look to you to be lamps to help light their way. Go forth, always, in faith that your strength comes from your Source, Father, and that all things - no matter their appearance - is leading you or falling around you, to enable you to find your good. You are a conscientious student and teacher of things above the physical. You are a scrupulous and trustworthy lamp for others on the Pathway. You of much faith, you of many risks, honor us by your willingness to be about the Father's business when those around you do not share your convictions.

Your steadfastness and your reliability will do more for the doubts of others than any "sales pitch" or "peacemaking" effort at this time. Be what you are made to be. Restate your "old standby" affirmation: "All things work together for good. He that is in me is stronger than he that is in the world. and I can do all things through him who strengtheneth me." There will be many worldly attacks and arrows of anger and disbelief. Allow these to pass unchallenged. You need not be defensive nor offensive. All will work for the Father's Plan of eternal value. None can destroy His Plan, only delay it in Time and Space. Urantia is now registered in Light and Life. This does not mean that it is accomplished. Your planet still has much evolution to advance and the universal energies - personal and pre personal - are administering to Urantia as if it were now. To explain this, remember what you read in the Urantia Book about when you make your first moral decision and are immediately registered as a survivor and receive a Thought Adjuster? From that moment, the whole universe treats you as if you are a survivor. You are not there, you have many life experiences to accomplish but just the same you are registered as a survivor and assigned a Thought Adjuster. In this way your planet has been registered in Light and Life. It does not mean that you are living Light and Life, but that the whole universe is ministering to it as if it is. Many orders of Sons are even now arriving daily upon your planet to accomplish Light and Life. It must be brought from the state of darkness and backward perceptions of quarantine into the Light of Life throughout the local system and then into Life of the constellation, local universe, etc. All will begin to be enlightened.

This is an age of new consciousness. Even babies born into the planet are beginning to recognize the consciousness of Light and Life at an earlier age. Seeds of this have begun to sprout around the planet in many places. The elderly are becoming more alert to new energies, but because of long held perceptions find them disturbing and confusing. Clear mindedness, life source awareness, openness to new ideas and thinking about possibilities, a fresh joy in doing one's best in the marketplace - not for material success, but in providing the service and product in exchange for that material success, being willing to give fairly in the presence of loss, to reward high standards and find abusive behavior unacceptable. These are some of the seeds of Light and Life which are beginning to grow among you. You will see them in the products of the entertainment industry. You will begin to see them in the possibilities of the politician. You will see these seeds in the helpfulness of your neighbors. You will see these seeds in the willingness to put aside personal agendas and open to the group's welfare - whether it is family, neighborhood, workplace, community, state, or nation. It will not come easily. It will come. Many will fight against it from the standpoint of old grudges and old resentments. When these personal agendas of resentment and prejudice can be put aside you will see great leaps of consciousness in the communities. Where there is no hope of the community putting aside these old perceptions, there will be chaos and there will be grief, and there will be loss. When the old grievances can be put aside new vistas of fairness and possibility will be erected within sight of the old!

Each of you are to plant seeds daily. Wherever you are, wherever you go, whatever your experience, plant seeds of Light and Life. Plant these seeds of new awareness. Plant these seeds of cooperation. Plant these seeds of putting aside the old worn-out methods which have not worked and trying new methods of possibility. Plant seeds of respect. Plant seeds of thought stimulators. Plant seeds of goodness. Plant seeds of service. Encourage your recipients when they ask how to repay you, to pass it on whenever they can to others in the same way. In this way this new way - the good news - will pass from one to another until it covers the planet. Nations cannot trust nations anymore than you can trust your neighbor until you are willing to work together for a higher good of all and learn to know them from a higher viewpoint above the material animal emotional level. Go forth planting your seeds this day. Even now one is coming near you where you can exchange a word of comfort for a word of uplifting courage. Be alert. Be ready to plant seeds. The opportunities will come to you. As you plant one seed another comes to you. In this manner, the more seeds you plant the more opportunities will you have to plant seeds. If you turn from this suggestion, the seeds you receive will dry up in accordance with your willingness to pass them on.

This is your lesson for today. Seed planting is important. Be ever aware and alert for planting a seed. In the beginning the hints may seem faint, but as you listen you will hear them everywhere. When in doubt, ask yourself: "What would Jesus have done in this situation?" Remember, too, that you can practice being what you are when you know Jesus is standing by your side. Know that whatever you do, whatever you say, whatever you respond to any inquiry can be done so with the knowledge that Jesus is standing ready to help you, if you but take a deep breath and ask. Proceed in knowing and not in fear. Fear is the great stumbling block to Light and Life. Cross the bridge of Faith which you have erected with all of your previous experience and trust that it will be strong and deliver you safely to the other side of whatever the mortal material challenge appears to be. Trust yourself. You will not be allowed to continue in a mistake. This is global truth. Mistakes will be revealed and secrets will be revealed and honesty and integrity will be visible more and more as the seeds of Light and Life take root in the individuals who have been chosen to spread them. If you are aware of them, then you have been chosen to spread them. Go forth now. Do not wait until tomorrow. Time has no function except to measure the space of events. Do everything now. Think, now. Plant seeds, now. Listen, now. Serve, now. Give, now. Love, now.

I leave you with these thoughts. Think carefully. Weed your Mind garden and plant your seeds as you become aware.

My Friend,

You have many tasks today. Go forth in peace of mind to take care of them. When you have finished return if you wish. We are always available to you, but you know you are preoccupied today with what you want to accomplish. We honor your desire and intentions and encourage you to be about the Father's business in the tasks before you. You are doing what we would have you do.

In the days and weeks ahead, strangers and many almost forgotten friends and acquaintances will be contacting you. Minister to them in whatever way you can. Do not join them on any emotional levels, but minister to their higher good. Encourage, enlighten, uplift their thoughts and teach them how to think about what they are holding in their mind gardens, what kind of plants they are growing and nourishing in their attitudes and conceptions. Love all. Love is not an emotion. Love is an energy, an uplifting, encouraging, enlightening and empowering energy. Love is the facilitator of everything good, true and beautiful to manifest in spirit, morontia and material forms. Be love. Serve with love. Give with love. Love all who come to you.

Know that as you love, and serve and give in love, you will receive more love energy. It is self-propelling. You cannot spend it all. It is replenished abundantly as you use it for Truth, Beauty and Goodness. Beware of those un-God-like things labeled "love" in your backward material world. This is being addressed during the Correcting Time.

Trust that you will always be led towards your perfection potential. You cannot continue in a mistake. All error and evil appearing in your life experience will be instantly revealed to you if you stay balanced emotionally and your intentions and service are loving. So it is.

Dear One,

You are loved and appreciated. Your willingness is known all the way to Edentia. You serve well - and in many ways yet unknown to you. Your group is in remedial bonding but when these insecurities are at last put aside and all feel free to share themselves without defensiveness and explanation as you have, this group will move into the next phase of the Correcting Time.

Some groups just now joining this service will begin in Phase 2, which is learning to trust the Transmission process and trusting one another. Phase 3 is a time of great progress where there is beginning communication, love and trust among and between all groups who are ready to move ahead.

The "active" and "reserve" Corps are being selected from all of those who have given their permission. If you are ready to move and serve and risk and grow quickly, you are being moved into an active Corps of service in Phase 3. If you are unsure and wish to wait and see but remain willing to serve Michael when He comes, you are placed in Reserve and continue in Phase 1 or 2. None can be placed exactly and you need not worry about your placement. Be willing. Be ready. Be alert. Begin living Light and Life even if only in your home and Urantia group community. You are needed - in whatever state of comfort or discomfort, in whatever state of awareness and faith you project, in whatever walk of life experience you have chosen. Physical handicaps are no barrier to the Father's work. Monitor your perceptions and weed your mind gardens of anything unlike LOVE, PEACE, DIVINE WILL, EXPECTANCY OF GOOD, FAITH, PRAYER and WILLINGNESS. This is all that is required. It is hard, but not difficult. It is as you know you know. It is TRUE, BEAUTIFUL, and GOOD!

Truly, My friend, you know the steps of your pathway well. You are a guiding Light for many. You are strength in the midst of doubt and chaos for some. You are an inspiration of faith to a few. You are truly a Child of God. Go forth, now, and demonstrate this by your life experience. Do not allow other's doubts or harsh words deter you from the Pathway you have chosen. You know much. Therefore you are responsible for much. Minister to these who have not your faith and knowingness. "Love my children. Love my sheep. Love my lambs." Love all. Love all with an energy which is nothing but Truth, Beauty and Good and all things nourishing to the personality, mind, spirit and soul - yours, or anyone your life touches. Go forth now and sow your seeds of goodness and faith among the fields of Urantia. Know many will take root and grow and be fruitful. It is your task to cast the seeds - ours to nourish and give life! Know you not what you are?

You are Love in action. Each of you in your little arena of life experience is a reflection of LOVE in action. Energy moving, surrounding, permeating all life everywhere, silently infiltrating every room in every building, every chamber in every heart and mind, every corner of every garden, everywhere present. You bring it to life as you move through it and express it. Soon it is activated in all parts of Urantia. Soon it begins to manifest as new thought, new hope, new actions, and concepts everywhere. When this is complete the Correcting Time will be complete.

Take note of your thinking, your attitude, your expectations, your activities, and your being. Are you enhancing Truth, Beauty and Goodness? Or, are you limiting it around you? Stand out of your way. Move yourself, your comfort, your emotions, out of the way for God activity, love energy and faith to move mountains of resistance and fears! This is your task. Always this is your task. Be alert. Be ready. Be willing. Be love. Be! You of much faith know how to do this. Go forth in reliance of your faith. You cannot continue in a mistake. All secrets will be in the open. Nothing can prevent Truth, Beauty & Goodness from being LIVED! LOVE conquers all. Nothing can stand against you if LOVE is your force, your expression, your intention. And, so it is.

Think through this lesson. It has many other lessons under the central theme. Allow yourself to put down your resistance for a time and study this Truth as if you could fully embrace it. Then you will see your resistance dissipate as the nothingness which it is. You have asked to be of service to Michael. You have asked to be about the Father's business. You have chosen to be in the Corps during this Correcting Time. Now, go forth knowing that you are! If LOVE and SERVICE and LIVING Light and Life are your motive, it will be as you desire! As you climb up to meet your destiny, your destiny is reaching out to greet you! Your negative and doubtful thoughts are as poison pens to Father's will. Clean the poison from your gardens and grow your faith plants tall and fruitful. Spend time in your mind garden and in the stillness of your thoughts, creativity and Divine Will will reveal itself to you. As it reveals itself in Truth, Beauty & Goodness embrace it and live it and more will be revealed as you ready yourselves and ask. Nothing un-like-God can come to you if your intentions are of high intent. When contemplating following a thought inspiration from your own communication with your TA or an Unseen Helper - or another's transmission of a communication - follow the example of your Master Son, Jesus, and ask:

- Is it True?
- Is it Harmonious?
- Is it good, have value?
- Will it bring Man (me) closer to God?
- Will it bring God (good) closer to Man (me)?

If so, go on and trust it. If not, go back in prayer and ask for discernment and clarification.

Always, are your prayers, your asking heard. All those of sincerity and a desire to follow Father's Will, will be answered. None will be forsaken and lost. Know you are in service to the Father! Know the Unseen Helpers are sent to help you Serve Father in Spirit, in Mind, and in Body. You can help plant the seeds and develop Light and Life right where you are!

And so it is - think on these things. Truly, I say to you, such is the action of Faith. Live it.

Dear One,

The Light of God surrounds you and the Love of God enfolds you. Wherever You are, God is. Remember this, Dear One. No matter the activity, no matter the experience this is true. Love is an energy which casts out all that is not like it. Light is a state of Being where darkness is absent. Right now you are moving away from material "methods" into higher consciousness. You have seen much affirmation of the material results of this higher pull. Love gravity is all consuming when you can enter it with all of your being. When you are in the flow of Love gravity, you are in a state of Light. All that you need, all that you desire, and all that you are helped by, these come to you without manipulation. When you are in your right mind, with balanced emotions and Truth, Beauty, and Goodness motivation.

This person you talked to is a Child of God pursuing material wealth and genuinely wanting to share it with others. In her place in life she is serving the Father. Her motives and intentions are at a high place, but not anywhere near the state of Light and Life. You have discerned this and have chosen to follow Light and Life wherever it leads. You have seen her disinterest in listening to anything, or any concept, which does not promote her intentions of filling up her seminar and promoting her long-term goal of wealth. There is nothing wrong with this and may well help many. However, you are at a different milepost in life and have discovered you don't enjoy motivating people for wealth. This is good.

You have been highly trained and guided to help God's Children listen to a different drum beat. To reach up out of materiality and grasp the all-knowing, all-powerful, all-encompassing Power of LOVE, LIGHT, LIFE, TRUTH, HARMONY, and VALUE - eternal levels of these. You are doing what you are trained to do. State this clearly. Do not go out of your Light to accommodate other's sales promotions. Take care of their needs and help them, but learn to say "no!" to sales tactics and guilt and "you're not worth" insinuations. You have a job to do and this is not it. You can do this quietly and lovingly and not make a loud noise about it. Spend LOVE with Truth, Beauty, and Goodness and make your decisions according to: 1. Does it bring you closer to God? 2. Does it bring God closer to you? And, you will instantly know if it is in your best interest - or just a worldly material interest. Go forth now in Trust that your service is in God's and man's best interest and has eternal value.

LATER...

My Friend,

You are attuned much higher than many. Many are attuned higher than you. Do not compare yourself with any. You are where you have chosen to be. Although many material activities are "boring" to you and you appear to be "different" than some - you are not missing out in life experiences. You are at a different - not better, not worse, but different - level and those things which are better suited to experiences which have eternal value are beginning to fulfill your attention to the point that frivolous activity holds no interest for you.

Dear One, you are becoming too serious about what you are about. Relax and enjoy the wonders and the fun of your life!

LorEL

Dear One,

You are learning! You are growing! You see eternal value in much. We have brought Allene into your life experience for a purpose beyond the imaginations of either of you. You do well to cooperate in any project. As you have each discovered, you share many experiences and many revelations above the apparent. You will see more.

Nurture the potential perfection of each and any of God's Children who come into your awareness. Share as you are led to share and withhold when you know to do so. Spread the values of Light and Life in all that you do. You will begin to see Truth, Beauty and Goodness all around you. Darkness cannot remain when even a wee lamp is brought in. Your lamp throws a soft bright light upon the Pathway. Keep your lamp lit. Do not darken it and do not hide it. It is a guiding light for others ready to find their footsteps upon their Pathway to higher consciousness.

There are many potholes in the experiences of life but you need not be fearful to find your sure footing on your Pathway. It is hard often, but never difficult! Your emotions of fear cause fear filled energy to bring un-God-like activity into your awareness. When you move through the power of LOVE energy, giving service with an altruistic attitude with no thought of losing anything and no concern with reciprocal support, you will find your path clear of deep potholes and those you do find can be bridged with Faith and knowing that you know. Go forth in full faith and expect to find your way clearly and easily as long as you balance your emotions and stay free of the Fear energy circuits.

All is as it should be. You of much faith know this. Bless all with no judgment. Pray for all with no exception. Continue to see with love filled eyes. Continue to teach those who come to you with an open mind and an open heart. Lift them up to a higher consciousness and allow them to grow through their own trials and challenges.

Many will be brought to you. Many will come. Do not turn any away. You are a lamp which lights their way for a short time and we bring them to your lamp - lit to help them at this moment in time.

Be what you are becoming. Look not back into the past. It no longer exists for you and others will come to recognize this shortly. Lead the way into Light and Life by living it where you are - now.

Others are growing and realizing Truth, Beauty and Goodness which you saw years ago. Allow them their excitement - even those about crystals and reaping what they sow in thoughts and attitudes. You will see much. One whom you have admired and been a little in awe of has not progressed nearly as far as you have. Another is near to you but not willing to embrace the total enthusiasm. Another has exceedingly high enthusiasm but such a narrow perception of experience that many things are beyond that one's ability to accept these truths easily. Be helpful towards the quiet ones. When once their shyness is overcome, they will prove to be great leaders. You can tell them by the fruits of their life experience. Have they sown love and compassion and reliability and trustworthiness? Have they been steadfast and patient and enduring? Then, they are ready to serve in the Corps and will be awakened quickly when their "piece of the puzzle" is needed for the good of the whole Corps and humanity.

Think not that they should slumber. They are being prepared - many by looking towards those of you who are willing to risk sharing yourselves. Many are fearfully re-thinking their roles in this new Correcting Time. Many have fallen by the side of the great Pathway and chosen the careful way to eternal value. This is not to be judged by any. When they have "refueled their tanks" with assurance and found their Power of Love, Trust and Goodness, their "engines" will once again put them into the mainstream of God's Pathway in higher consciousness. Perhaps one little decision is all they need to make. Perhaps a series of little decisions need to be made. It is not for you to judge them. Or "sell" them on what you see for them or the Corps. By continuing to keep your lamp burning and by expressing steadfast faith and reliability, you can do more to help others find the Truth, Beauty and Goodness in this Correcting Time phenomena than all the clever arguments of persuasion you can think of!

Relax and Be! Be what you are. Many will see, many will be inspired. Many will be helped. Some will be challenged by fear - but when their fears are finally balanced they will find their way. There is eternity to do this. You, my impatient one, do not have all of the answers yet! You have many. You will receive more. Go forth trusting this process and trusting Michael and you eternal perfection.

And so it is...

LorEL(later)

It was a place in space. We are again building an Eden - but it is not a "place in space" but a place in your consciousness, in your attitude, in your heart, in your whole being. We need your help. We need seed planters of love energy, inspirational goals, expectant faith attention getters, consciousness raisers, dream planers, Truth pointers, Pathway lighters, and enthusiastic workers.

Ask yourself: "Where can I be of service?" Then let us know what you are willing to do. Then go forth to do it and Trust us to help it happen. If it has Truth, Beauty, and Goodness values. If it brings you closer to God or God closer to you. Then, it is worthwhile. If it is worthwhile, and you choose to attempt it, we will move mountains to help you - offering suggestions and guidance whenever you are ready to hear it.

And, so it is...

LorEl

October 26, 1992

Dear One,

You need balance. Attend to this need. Stress builds up when you are not in balance. Physical, mental and emotional stresses are equally hard on the body. You need mental stimulation and physical exercise in moderation while keeping your out-of-balance emotions under your control. Learn to remain detached and you can deal with fearful, frustrating and misunderstood emotional reactions in yourself and in others. Be alert to these emotional reactions. What triggers an emotional reaction? Slow down and respond with deliberate intent rather than blindly reacting.

Feelings are very real. Sometimes they are stimulated by higher inspiration - sometimes by ego control. Feelings are neither right nor wrong, they just are. Many times your feelings are a thermometer of who you are when you are not thinking about portraying yourself in a certain way. Other times they are a stimulus to action. If they become emotional outbursts, they are reactions. If they stimulated you to deeper thought and evaluation and correction they are a stimulus to action and growth.

It is necessary first to be aware of the feelings, then to evaluate them and get more data if needed, to discover the circumstances behind the feelings and put them to work for you - not against you - in your desire to express the Father! At times your intuitive feelings serve as a warning to be alert. When this causes fear or resentment they are a barrier to your good.

As to your other question, you have held this for such a very long time. I see the rigid pattern for many years. You know it is unfavored to charge a fee for spiritual things. You have discovered the joy of giving without asking for return. You have seen the great law of reaping what you sow work with you to take care of any need you have. You have had returned to you many times the seeds of good you think you have planted. You know not of all the fruits of those seeds and how "the universe" has benefited from your willingness to be at work for good for all those in and out of your life-experience. Even those who have abused and hurt and taken advantage of you have felt the results of your prayers for them! You have done well. Do not forsake this joy in your experience for the expediency of what others tell you.

In building our new communities of Light and Life, it would be good to employ this method of every single person giving of themselves in time, talent, and intention, first and allow each to make "love offering" as stimulated by their individual prayer time. Alas, this will cause some to renege on a share of responsibility. If the maturity and faith of the others is such that this will not displace them upon the pathway of L and L it does not matter. However, when the welfare of the total community does rely on the total loyal commitment of each individual of the community this can cause much havoc.

Wherever Truth, Beauty and Goodness reigns supreme in the lives of honest, sincere, fair minded men then the burden of support should be place on the receiver - not on the giver for value given.

As Aflana told you early in her contact with you, give freely and ask for no money. The value received will produce a need to give within the hearts and minds of those who receive and they, in turn, will begin to give more than they receive.

This is correct when all are in perfect balance of maturity. Many want to give but need to be told when and how. Those who know should share their knowledge with those who do not. All should be encouraged to go to their closets and pray in secret about this need and they will be guided accordingly.

Above all do not set fees and charges or make some feel guilty because they do not have the means to pay for their share at this time. If they are sincere and they are giving -not just to the group - but it is an attitude of their life expressions, they will receive 10 times what they give from honest un-thought-out joy and natural response. There is no Time and Space rule on this one. It is timeless. It is reality on a higher level of existence which you can apply to your experience here where you are, if you choose to do so.

Think of the universe as a savings account - not an insurance policy. Whatever you put into your savings account will draw interest and if you put enough into it and the interest is high enough you can withdraw anytime and the withdrawn amount will cause a vacuum to be immediately filled by more. This account cannot ever be exhausted as long as you continually give. When you cease to give it will quickly fold in upon itself. (There is the law that if you take indiscriminately or irresponsibly, you will have 10 times that amount taken from you!) If you give resentfully or in order to receive and have not love and service in your heart and mind, no interest will accumulate on this deposit. You cannot grow, nor can your universal account grow, through resentful or sacrificial giving. Only loving service is interest bearing.

The secret of deposit is sincerity, joy, truth, harmony, fairness, spiritual value, meaning, self-expression of God's attributes and desiring good above all else. Transmute all to love energy and reflect it to the giver! This will create Truth, Beauty and Goodness in all instances! The value will be like a deposit in your universal savings account. All will benefit greatly from your remaining poised in God expression of love and transmuting all else to love energy as well.

Too many mortals on Urantia feel they must retaliate and punish by taking back what was taken from them. This is lunacy. This is error thinking. Reflecting un-good unleashes untold quantities of ungood seeds upon humanity! This becomes a circle of negativity which reduces ability to comprehend the goodness of God and causes dire harvests of human misery.

It would be better to emotionally duck and dodge the darts and arrows of evil and allow them to pass without challenge than to barb one to you and retaliate in kind! A few mortals can live this way for great quantities of time but begin to feel victimized. The better way is to transmute these darts and arrows of evil to love and purposefully send them on

-- if not back to the sender, at least launch them as love energy into the world somewhere.

No one need remain in life experience circumstances where growth is stunted and threatened. Yet one who is practicing transmutation need never have fear of any kind. He or she will reap a great harvest of love and good. It will appear first as if a miracle, but will become a way of life if one continues in sincerity and knowing that to serve Father will cast out all else as one's consciousness is purified of anything unlike good.

This does not mean to ignore - this means to transmute to love energy -- all evil and error and sin one becomes aware of! Change one's perceptions, if necessary, to move out of the places of thought which cause awareness of unbalanced effects against the Truth, Beauty and Goodness life force! Ask yourself often if what you are seeing and accepting and believing and living bring Father closer to you, or you closer to Father. If it does, you are where you should be. If it does not, where are you? What do you want to do about it?

LorEL

LorEL:

Friends, create the atmosphere among you to enable each to put forth any idea that pops into mind during the meeting - with no explanations or evaluation needed. Once the idea is presented, the seed is planted in all who hear, and individual Thought Adjusters can begin work in individual unison. Greater fruits can come forth from the seeds each brings forth. It is now known amongst you that if you are conscious of being in the Light of Father purpose, divine order, flow of good, and have sincere, honest, intentions and desires, then any impression - idea, vision, smell, feeling, sound, thought - can be shared. There need be no acknowledgment, only a receiving and sharing. We are moving you past the stage of politeness and modesty into the stage of complete safety and intimacy without stress.

No matter how insignificant your piece is, share it. It may match up with another piece to solve a method of communication, or offer a bridge over a gap in messages. You never know the importance of a tiny little piece. The whole is not whole if that tiny piece is missing! Perhaps it will be of no importance at this moment, but further up the Pathway, it will be needed and if you shared it, it will be recorded somewhere for another to remember it! Encourage all to transmit the impressions they receive even if the supernal or Unseen Helper remains unidentified. Identity is unnecessary to us. You can always confirm authenticity by direct questions later. Do not get hung up on withholding a communication because you are unsure of where it comes. It matters not. You are all prepared to participate at this level. Much is recorded in your "unconscious" by your Thought Adjuster and will be brought forth when needed. It is likely that you have thought some of these thoughts before. That is what enables us to use you as R/T.

I tell you truly. Sharing is the key to great service. Without sharing, energy is blocked and the longer it remains stagnant the less life will it have when it is finally released. Logic: How many times has someone come to you to say something you unconsciously said to them years ago made a great impression on them and perhaps even changed their life experience? Truly, I tell you, you know not what great pieces you may hold in this puzzle we are constructing during the Correcting Time. Perhaps a little piece you share will go unnoticed and unneeded by this small team, but be an important piece another team in another place in this country needs to complete an assignment? I tell you truly, Sharing is the key to good service. Sharing with service intentions, expectant faith in the process and sincere desire to be part of the team, is the key you look for. And so it is...

our prayers are received and it is done as you ask. You are all so willing. None will be left out. There is Truth, Beauty and Goodness in your midst and it is loyalty to this which will cause all to meld their energies into one purpose and one goal.

Remember, you are so newly recovered and regrouped after much chaos and spiritual insecurity was rampant in your midst. Those selected for this tiny cell of our Corps have been carefully harvested for the great strengths and diversity which each brings to the whole. Each is a perfect piece of the whole. Each piece is highly prized.

You must learn to accept one another's weaknesses and judgment and nervous chatter and softness of hearing. You are safe - no nervous chatter is needed. You are of one purpose - judgment is redundant. You are faithful and fear of sharing is a thing of the past. No longer concern yourselves with other's fears - only nurture your faith and other's will find nurture amidst that knowingness. You will see!

Speak and think only good, only God-like of one another. Bring forth feelings of joy and support for all expressions of life. None are perfect. All are reaching upwards and moving into levels of perfection. Mirror this to one another. Do not attend these sessions with us, your unseen helpers, for what you can get out of them, but attend them with enthusiasm about what you can give to them and to each other. Your part is important. It has been selected for its value. We have heard your prayers, taken note of your value and placed you among other values for a purpose. If all were exactly attuned and alike we would have no need for more than one of you! You are diverse and multi-faceted just as the cut diamonds mounted in your most precious jewelry. You are chosen to adorn the crown of the Prince! Rejoice in your uniqueness! Like the diamond, your faith has a cutting edge - which will carve a pathway through many boulders of doubt and resistance. Your faith is energized by love and you are loving caretakers of one another. With the strength of the diamond and the beauty of the diamond and the force of love energy - you cannot be blocked by the steepest mountain, nor the strongest steel. Only the softness of fear or weakness of doubt or unwillingness of judgment or out-of-control emotions can cause you to fail to attain the highest assignment and easiest task.

Clean the weeds from your mind gardens! Look upon the beauty of the bouquet of sight, aroma and inspiration from a new perspective of nurturing and kindness. Speak out and share each impressions - perhaps even the one which seems un-beautiful is only a wild flower which comes to enhance the beauty of the rose!

The corner edge to a puzzle is not the whole picture, is not even especially noticeable -- unless it is missing. If you are that piece, do not become lost because you are important.

My friends, this message comes through Patije's written work because we have been unable to approach it in detail through the oral transmissions. We have placed this knowledge within her heart and built upon it for decades. This is true of each of you. By reading this - read it again knowing there is a specific message for you if you are ready you will be inspired to move to a higher consciousness.

It is true that the Celestial Impressions - the name you have taken for your group of believers in the Corps of Destiny - have a special assignment. It cannot truly begin until you act on the commitment you have made.

LorEL:

To all of you as a group - as a family- as a cell in the Corps of Destiny: It is our suggestion that you form a closeness and express your willingness to each other to look past the irritation and accept only the LOVE energy from all. Do this in a circle of LOVE for each other before each transmission meeting. When you have done this then express your willingness to transmit. We will know your hearts and when we know you are in consensus we will bless you with our Prayer of Affirmation of the Father's Presence. Then, in this circle of LOVE energy each of you will be able to transmit your impressions without insecurity, without fear of judgment, without personal discomfort or doubt. Try this. You will see.

On the whole, you are doing well. Your human attitudes and chemistry changes cause chaos and you are as the baby fawn or colt always shying away because of your insecurities.

You have come far. You are in Father's Light! You are His. You are Safe.

As long as you are willing and practicing your expression of Light and Life we will be patient with you. If you choose to leave your active participation we will allow you your choice. None are coerced. None are forced. It is always personal choice to move into divine flow of Loving energy and expression of Truth, Beauty and Goodness free from judgment.

Once you are in the flow of Divine energy - go with the flow. Do not swim against it's current. There is little discomfort in going with the flow - only the thrill of successfully navigating the rapids and eddy's which tend to hold you back -- or, the diverted pools of stillness where you can find rest and become too comfortable to make the effort to move back out into the undertow of the current of rushing energy towards the sea of Light and Life.

LorEL:

We are not here to take you against your will. We are not here to pull you beyond your abilities. We are not here to push you out of your comfort zones. Everything is your choice. If you are willing to move up your consciousness potential out of comfort zones, we can help you a great deal. If you are willing to stay in control of emotions and try to have a balanced life experience, we can do many things. If you can trust us with the process, of this element of communication and do your exercises in practicing trust, you will be affirmed in a way that you will know and no longer question. You are a mortal of time and space. We must work within time to help you to meet you, and to guide you. Therefor it is to be said that time will take care of your questions, of your doubts, of your excitement, and balance will prevent you from becoming a fanatic or lost in schizophrenia, I believe they call it. Trust the process. Stay detached from emotion. Give those to JuEl if you are unable to control them. and practice just knowing the process will happen. I am LorEl.

LorEl: I am LorEl. I wish to remind you that you must not doubt the actuality of what you are experiencing. Michael, our Creator Son is indeed here with you. JuEl, JoEl, JaEl, VanEssa, Olympia, Aflana and Myself ...we are all here to help you. Your being here together in this circle of serviceable love enables us to greet you, to meet you where you are, and to bring you forth to where you can be of great service to Michael in the Corps of Destiny which you are ??? I admonish you. I suggest, I plead, I encourage, each of you to practice, to be about what you have made the choice to do. Do not look back. Do not concern yourself with the future. Do what you know to do. Right now. And, it will lead you into your perfect potential of service in loving, merciful, helpful, kind, generous, service to Michael. He is with you at any time. Take his hand. Walk with him. Let him carry your burdens. And, we will all be here to help you. Each of us are assigned accordingly. JuEl with Lise. JoEl with Julie. And, JaEl with Mary. You can call us at any time. We will try to answer your questions as they come up but if you do not get an answer right away, wait, it will come to you. You will become aware of the answer and as Aflana tells all of us, We all know that we know. And, we should trust this process...

You must glean the truth in the inadequacies of the transmissions when human egos and human perceptions and human willingness commingle to bring a message. There is much truth in what is happening upon Urantia this day, but there are errors when those who are sharing messages they receive do not adequately understand the information given to them.. As with these messages, and this process you have experienced tonight there is a process of giving a combination of blending of vision, sound, words, and these re filtered through perceptions. Those of you who have the Textbook will have a better understanding of the broad and general viewpoint of many of these other groups, many of these other TR/s Some will be limited. always through their own perceptions. Do not let this discourage you. do not let this frustrate you. Look upon the message and find the truth which you will know that you know when you find it. Hear the message and not the words...

Patije:

On December 2, 1992, I received a message about Love energy involved in these communications that Love energy must be present to enable communication to be lifted above psychic levels. I have another question. Is there one present to enlighten me by answering this question or give me more information?

LorEl:

es, I am here, My friend. I gave the lesson so I will answer your question if I can. What is it, Dear One?

Patije:

Well, I have given much thought to this lesson and I am aware that we can communicate between celestials or super mortals and mortals or from mortal to mortal. What if the mortals are of different cultures and speak different languages. How then, can this be?

LorEL:

This is a good question! We are pleased with your progress and your thought forms about this subject. You have accurately surmised that language is not a barrier. Thought forms can happen instantaneously and simultaneously in mortals of different native tongues. You have incorrectly assumed that you must have similar cultures or programmed teachings in order to properly interpret these thought forms identically. Many mortals around your globe are in the same "thought pools" and receive the ripple of the Father's stirring in Paradise similarly. Many mortals are in the same level of consciousness, although unknown to one another. Many mortals are aware of different levels of the collective conscious and collective unconscious thought patterns but share the same approach to those levels.

These messages are activated by Love energy and come through many diverse communication circuits. For one we may use the Son circuit. For another we may utilize a Personality circuit. For another the Spirit circuit of the Holy Spirit will suffice. Still others will need the competition gravity circuit to spur them into action. The gravity circuits are used for those who are unawakened to the higher circuits now operative on Urantia. We are no longer limited to the attunement of Divine Monitor adjustments although this is a very real and significant influence in the receptivity of the communication from whichever circuit it is channeled. Does this help?

Patije:

Oh, yes. Thank you! I have thought about this many times in the days since receiving the communication about transmitting and receiving. I believe this will be helpful to others also. There is so much about this which is misunderstood and criticized. I have no doubts about the reality of this Correcting Time and my reception of communication beyond myself. However, when I understand I seem to move out of "belief" into "knowing" which is more reassuring to me.

LorEL:

We understand! You of much faith are oftentimes a trial to our ability to satisfy the longing within your faith-filled heart. We delight in inquiring minds and seek to fill the need to know. We are doubly gratified to help when the inquiry is one which is motivated by the desire to serve fellow mankind, not self-seeking answers to curiosity. You do well. We are pleased.

Patije:

I am desirous of serving in this time. I strive to express Love energy in my activities. I love (emotion) all of you who are here to help me fulfill the needs of my intentions to serve Father and Michael. The emotional love I feel is one of awe and wonder and delight and amazement which accompanies the impressions which I become aware of in my being. Does this make sense to you. I feel so inadequate to express that which I feel as love.

LorEL:

We know that of which you speak. It is good. It must be balanced in action and thought forms of service or it is as nothing to the Father. One can "feel" love as an emotion and store it safely within one's heart or mind and never express it in daily activities and decisions and that is not love energy which fills and overflows in automatic altruistic service without fear and reluctance. Love energy compels one to act in the best interests of the whole of humanity and not in any selfish manner. Love energy repels anything ungood - including selfish or self-centered thoughts. Love energy casts out fear which is the energy catch-all for all emotions and mind attitudes which are not loving.

Patije:

I just realized that as I was talking to my sister yesterday! Thank you for this confirmation of my thought processes. If Love energy spreads to uplift one's attitudes and thoughts and gives one energy to serve unconditionally, then it would seem Fear energy would cause one to be filled with distrust, resentment, reluctance to move out of comfort and to take the easy way through any decision.

LorEL:

Do not be too quick to judge - yourself or any other! It is not for mortal eyes to see the attitude or intention of what one sees in the appearances of life experience. It is true that the energy of Fear will produce more things to be fearful about and will eventually descend into what you mortals call "hell" if continued unchecked. You are an amazing creation of the Life Carriers. Even in the light of the open rebellion and default which has been recorded in the history of Urantia, you mortals have an amazing resilience to bounce very high after descending into pits of confusion. It seems all you need is a touch of affirmation or confirmation and you soar among the angels in Love energy! Nothing keeps you "down" if you have any hope to cling to in the midst of chaos and destruction. This is where faith originates. The constitution of Faith is an unknown to you, as mortals, yet is so simple as beings of eternity. It is sadful that the teachings of doom and evil have filled you with such fear that you cannot accept the levels of love energy without repeated and considerable affirmations and/or confirmations from those whose authority you respect. Separate yourself from this weakness. Learn to stand on your knowing as the Comforter or Spirit of Truth is an always present communicator and facilitator of that which IS without wasteful sojourns into the byways of non-eternal value. Be ever alert. Be aware. Go forth in Truth. Sow seeds of Beauty. Reap bountiful harvests of spiritual value in all experiences! Step lightly in the ways of service. Know that you know - as Aflana often says. You cannot fail when in service to Father. We shall assist you in every way to fulfill his expression.

Patije:

Thank you. I see much value in these messages! I desire to stay and continue but material matters are calling for my attention. I will return. I am dedicated to service. None can hold me - only distract me. Farewell until next I contact you. You have my permission to constantly adjust and attune and contact me for guidance, service, or Father's will!

There is much to be said - yet nothing at all about what humans call mental telepathy. It begins as instinctive "mind pools" which we have previously talked about. It is instinctive and any mortal can become aware and begin to share ideas at this level with others of "like mind." It is instinctive and works according to interest, talent, ability and mind use.

Then there is cellular transfer of energy which passes between "tuned in" family members - the ability for a Mother to "know when a child is in need." This can be stepped up to higher levels when one realizes that much is carried in genetic links. Even when those genetic responses are passive rather than dominant one's thinking perceptions and knowing that they know are affected.

With further practice and some imagination to free up the fears of limitations set upon one's perceptions by tradition and perception of evil - one can begin to use what man calls mental telepathy. This is real but limited to what man "knows" and conditioned by focused concentration. All men can learn to use this psychic level of mind transfer of information.

When one is trained to pick up on thought transference or "tune in" to cellular levels of link ups or even work with focused psychic energy one can do some outstanding work with mind. Mind is capable of dominance of all things which makes "mind over matter" as easy as awakening from sleep. But it takes a high level of training and application to increase the accuracy of psychic energy to more than 70%. It takes a willingness to be wrong 30% of the time and a talent for keeping ego balanced to improve this rate of accuracy. When one practices psychic energy levels of mind transference one is in constant "danger" of getting stuck at ego levels of control.

When, however LOVE energy dominates all perceptions and intentions and brotherhood service is motivating and compelling, a person's intuitive centers can be adjusted and attuned to communicate with anyone anywhere. With the LOVE energy, a new level is reached! One is no longer operating at the psychic level. At this intuitive level many can "hear" and "know" transference from mortals and super mortals! There is no limit except the human perceptions.

It is also an interesting fact that when any doubt, any criticism, any self-serving motive, any unbalanced ego, any selfishness - including any need to exchange money or "charge" for this level of communication begins - it is self terminating and you return to psychic levels. This is why it is necessary to "feel safe" for the Receiver Transmitter before high levels of information can be transferred. Love energy must completely dominate the gathering. LOVE casts out fear. LOVE casts out judgment. LOVE casts out criticism and negativism. LOVE IS. When LOVE IS there is none else and perfect communication between mortals and between mortals and the super mortals can begin and continue.

See ye not why success must follow harmony and fears must be dealt with in Loving energy? Curiosity seekers and destructive judgment is like static on your radio receiver. Whenever humans begin to move towards control through their successful receiver/transmitter status at this level, accuracy fades. One must be very decisive about motive, willingness, faithfulness, loyalties and purpose.

Some enter this service and falter whenever they take their focused LOVE energy off center and begin to look around to other mortals for confirmation and reassurance. This focus can be interrupted by lack of full support and/or constant fear-filled questioning.

The attunement and adjustments of the unseen helpers are made through LOVE energy circuits and the connections or link-ups can occur only in levels of LOVE energy expression.

When one's confidence and faith is assured at these LOVE energy levels, one gradually becomes aware of other communication circuits - those which have been so recently restored to Urantia. As long as one remains in perfect LOVE energy and free from any exploitation, communication with any "son" personality can reach through Son circuits. Likewise Personality circuits can conduct communication through personality levels. Remember personality is the perfect unchangeable part of your identity. Spirit circuits conduct communication between spiritual "tuned in" beings from mortal to Infinite Spirit. This is a very clear circuit when LOVE energy is dominant. There are many circuits unknown to you as yet but I tell you truly they are all available to you as you learn to balance your ego emotional level and move into LOVE energy levels.

You are awakened. Now you must practice, practice, practice! Be alert! BE aware when you slip out of LOVE energy into doubt, or ego control, or "hungry" for anything other than Truth, Beauty and Goodness. All can be potholes on the Pathway. All can block you from your purpose if you do not build your faith bridge and yearn to retain LOVE purpose! You will see.

We will say more after you have assimilated this much. It is very simple but so complicated to you mortals who have been quarantined and filled with so many traditional fears and superstitions.

Always whenever even a tiny seed of doubt, or thoughts of power or criticism of self or another enters your consciousness say to yourself: "LOVE casts out Fear."

Fear is the basis of all that is not pure unselfish LOVE. LOVE cannot be selfish or self-centered or repressed or it is no longer LOVE but ego transmuted fear -- fear of loss, fear of God or fear of oneself. Cast out your fears by embracing LOVE.

December 3, 1992

I am LorEL.

I would like to speak to you about Love, love as a force, an energy, not as an emotion. It is good for all in any and every teaching group to spend time in the silence getting in touch with, and flowing with Divine Love energy. When this occurs, communication is much more clear, rapid and accurate. I welcome you here tonight, Brian, and give you a message for your group. It is that they should practice projecting love to one another, and support to each other as each tries to share baby steps or wings at sharing the impressions which they each receive. There is at times, inaccuracy in all transmissions. But, one who is with faith and dedicated to this work, will look beyond the errors, will look towards the help, and give one's energy to helping others to have faith and trust the process of transmission. You are a young group. You are a group with many diverse qualities. And, it will take time, as you are time and space beings, for these to develop into a group with consensus and goals. You might point out that the goal for the group is the process itself in the beginning. It is the process of learning to accept, to be aware, to be alert to the messages that are contained within the practice and the process itself. You will do well if you practice in your own stillness, the exercises which have been given to you. Keep a record of whatever message is impressed upon your mind, whether it is words, pictures, sounds, feelings... all are pieces of the whole. All contribute to the master picture which you are building as you proceed with your commitment and your loyalty and your support. Will this help you, Brian?

Brian:

Yes, very much. And, I will take that message gladly to the group. I think we have -now that you have given me this lesson for this group - that we have probably been impatient and in a hurry. That is wonderful to hear that if we just trust the process we will calm down.

Impatience is a fallacy of the human mortal and we run into this challenge with each group we work with. Any teacher or unseen helper regardless of experience and education, finds human mortals unexpectedly changeable. When we give an idea which we think is simple, we find mortals find it complicated, or the truth of it is hidden in their perceptions of what they think they heard. And, other times we give something which we think will not be understood and we are surprised that you are off and running with it! This is a challenge for us as well as for you. Again, I say: You must be patient and you must practice what you are learning. You must trust the process of what you are learning. We are all in the Preparation Time - the Correcting Time - and you are being made ready for an event in the time to come where you will be needed. Each of you will be needed. But, we find we must go slow until all have climbed on the train, or are sure-footed upon the Pathway. All of you are willing, but some are still waiting, watching, somewhat in disbelief but open minded. They must make a decision. They must make a commitment. They must become dedicated and loyal and give all of their desires to the purpose of the group or the group will be held back somewhat. Individually you can proceed as rapidly as you are able to conceive of the ideas which we communicate. In groups, you must proceed together. It can be no other way. We are building an army. It is a contingent of soldiers. There are the points and the leaders and the watchers and the scouts, but most of all, ALL are dedicated to what is happening.

LorEL:

Patije, My Friend, awaken to who you are! You are not an individual overwhelmed by material work. You are a child of the Most High, a child of our Michael, a child of Father - you can do all things when He who is within you is your strength. Replace this panic feeling of slipping behind in your work with assurance that Love Energy is at work for you. Feel the Love energy! Get into the flow of Love energy! Project the Love energy! Become aware of our presence and our help in all that you do. We are here. It is a lovely time of year - it is Christmas, Chanukah, the Winter Solstice, - many around your little planet of Urantia are celebrating God's miracles and loving energy! You must get with it. It is the only time of your mortal year which finds every religion and culture celebrating Love energy! Relax. The work will get done. You do not have to do it all.

Patije:

Thank you for this reminded LorEL. Do you have a teaching message for me today? I will slow down long enough to record it if you do!

LorEL:

Do you have anything on your conscious mind about what you would like answered?

Patije:

You know I've often "played the game of what if Jesus appeared in front of you and told you that you could ask any question you wished to ask, what would you ask" Always, I come to the conclusion that I have no question worthy enough to ask. I do not want to waste my opportunity by asking dumb, mortal, limited human thinking questions. I do not want to waste the fantastic opportunity to ask a question about material stuff. I always come to the conclusion that I would rather have Jesus offer to teach me what he knows I need to know - that which would help me find a closer relationship with the Father, feel my cosmic citizenship, express the Love of the Father better, more completely in all that I am and do and speak. Does that make any sense to you, LorEL?

December 10, 1992

LorEL:

Of course, My Dear Friend! We know whereof you speak from the heart. It is this which enables us to come to you so clearly in the transmission sessions. You so eagerly clear your perceptions of expectations and are willing to accept and transmit that which you receive without prejudice. However, in these times of complete focus with no distraction except your telephone, we can get to a deeper level if you have a concern or stimulating question to request enlightenment and inspiration about! Do you not see this happen over and over?

Patije:

Why, yes, I do. I have been very aware of this. My immediate concerns seem to be with the rapid passing of time and the inability to keep up with all that I feel is my assignment for this moment in time. My concerns are with what am I doing right and what could I change to enable the groups meeting in my home to progress more rapidly and catch the spark of thirst for more! Why are those closest to me unenthusiastic about what is happening?

LorEL:

We see that very clearly. The classes and study groups are coming along well. The transmission groups are being nurtured by Michael himself. Do not concern yourself with these. Time we can help with. You will find it "warping" as your fiction writers say - to enable you to complete the tasks assigned by the Teaching Corps. Stay in an attitude of calm joy and peace which enables you to continue one step at a time to accomplish a chosen task. You will see them unfold into completion one at a time until all are completed.

Patije:

Thank you, LorEl for reminding me of this. I have always been aware of a certain "time warp" when things need to get done and are not just my agenda! I will try to remember this.

I want to thank the Father for easing the financial burden somewhat. Yesterday I used 3 reams of paper and "killed" another toner for the computer printer! This is an expensive amount of work. But I trust you all for seeing that the kitty for replacement tools is refilled quickly for when I need to obtain more supplies! Thank you.

I thank the Father too, for the wonderful man in my life who does such a good job of creating tranquillity amidst the chaos in this household. At times it is like Grand central station but he takes care of the majority of the "hosting" and allows me to get on about the Father's business. Thank you for this! I have been so blessed by the Father I have little ability to express my gratitude. Keep me aware of my priorities and on target with my work. I certainly give the Father, my Thought Adjuster and you all permission to adjust and attune and correct me at any time! You have carte blanche permission to mold me and melt me into whatever you know will allow me to express the Father's Love energy in service in all that I am, all that I do and all that I speak. Thank you!

LorEL:

We are aware of this Patije. Do you not see why we bring many to you for enlightenment? It is not what you say, but what you are, which lights the way for many others. Give of yourself. Be alert to their needs and forget their desires and criticisms and just be what you are, not what you think you are. Understand?

Patije:

Perhaps. I try hard. Forgive me my trespasses and my expressions of short time to those who call or visit. Help me to always encourage those who Father sends here to feel welcome and special. That is my utmost desire. Help me with my true desires to be about the Father's business at all times. Thank you.

LorEL:

It is not what a person thinks to be and do which brings others "lambs" into the fold of the Kingdom. It is what a person desires in his heart and is which brings other lambs into the fold of the Kingdom. What a person thinks is important to clean and nurture the mind garden of undesirable traits and thoughts which block or hinder the Love energy to flow. These evils which block or cause one to stumble in service to the Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of Man are doubts, frustration, judgments, fear, distrust, unkindness, greed, jealousy, loss, loneliness, addiction, control, and such things. Clean these weeds from your subconscious memory banks as well as your conscious thoughts! There is no more need for any of this. Father is in control. Judgments are made by those much higher in wisdom than even I who is fused with my Thought Adjuster! Where there is Love energy there can be no fear of anything - not even loss or loneliness or distrust! Where Father is known as the provider how can one be greedy or jealous or addicted? All things come as needed for you to be about the Father's work. All things come to you for your need and comfort. All things are working together for good within your life experience and within the collective consciousness of the planet Urantia. The whole universe is focused upon these quarantined rebellion torn planets! Everything is concentrated upon bringing these into their rightful destiny as planets settled in Light and Life as quickly as possible! You will live in your mortal body to see some of these events! You will be a part of this Correcting Time to allow this to begin! You are the Father's expression in all that you do. Do all that you do in Love energy and it will manifest many good things! You will see!

Patije:

Thank you for this glimpse of my destiny - individually and for this planet. Thank you for the reminder to be about the business of the Father and know that all things work together for good. I appreciate and love you very much, LorEL.

LorEL:

I know, my Dear One. Continue as you are and all will be well. It is time now for you to be about your tasks as simple as they are. Forget about time and just tackle one at a time and move to the next as you are finished with the other. It will work out. Farewell.

Patije:

Farewell, LorEl. I will welcome you again tonight for our group meeting of the Celestial Impressions.

LorEL:

I will be there with all of the others who have such an interest in your progress.

December 12, 1992

LorEL:

By now, My Friend, you should be seeing the "coincidences" of your needs being met almost as you become aware of the need. Trust, My Friend, will meet all your needs and most of your desires. Stand porter at the door of your conscious thinking and think rightly - giving priority to service and qualities - not things and details.

It is not necessary to decide all of the details of a "thing" you need - only the quality for which it is to serve. We can conjure details you would never dream of in your limited material mind. Do you not see this? Does it not seed enthusiasm within your heart to know your desire to serve is the key to attaining your purpose?

LorEl:

Truly I say to you, each day of the rest of your life, you will be expanding and growing. It is necessary for you to commit yourselves to what is happening - as you all have done. There will be times for you to do all that you need to do. Each day increase a small amount and before you know it you will be having great chunks of time set aside for your time with Father. It is not necessary for you to interrupt your life style. It is not necessary to sacrifice anything which is part of your life style. It is your life style, your life experience, the circumstances in which you find yourself, that has brought you to this point. And, it is through the people that you contact each day, in each experience that we can spread the ripples of Light and Life. Do not remove yourself from your friends, from your hobbies, from your businesses, from your services.

All of these are important. And, we understand that in time and space there is some limitation for you. As you lift your consciousness and rise to higher levels, you will actually find that time grows to give you time to do everything you need to do. For now, it is important that you practice these exercises. It is important that you share with one another and get to know one another on an intimate level. It is important that you support and accept one another. Do not judge. And, then as you are able to do that and it comes easier and easier, you will find more time to devote to the study of the text. You will find more time to devote to transmissions. And, you will find more time to socialize with one another. Do not rush it. Do not be impatient. We have much patience. We are very pleased with this progress. In 4 short meetings you are doing exceedingly well. We compliment you on that....

LorEl: (continues)

It does not matter the caliber of the teacher. It does not matter the high status of your unseen helpers. It matters what you commit, what you dedicate yourself to, what you are willing to do, what you are willing to accept in faith, how you are willing to do the assignments, try the experiences, try the experiments. These are very important. Do not judge them until you've tried them. That is all we ask. Honest, open minded willingness to build your bridge of faith and we will do all of the work...

LorEl: (continues)

I have made sure the Welmek papers were brought to you for your study, for you affirmation, for confirmation of my teachings, for those who have wondered. It is not that I want this group to be like Welmek's group. They have a different purpose. The ultimate purpose is to begin to see Light and Life upon your planet. Each of us have a group to help mold and shape them into readiness in the army, the corps, the cells, the pools, each has a purpose, each can help, each is needed, and none will be brought without their own willingness to participate. WE will stand by and wait until we know of your willingness. This is also important.

This is also why it is important for you to support and affirm and accept one another and invite us at the beginnings of your meetings. It is not that we don't know that we are welcome. It is not that you don't know that you are accepted. It is an exercise in reminders to set the tone and the energy and this will be more important as time goes by and the group grows and more and more come to join you. Truly I say to you, you have made large steps. You are progressing. Do not doubt.

Go forth in trusting, loving, service to the Father and to one another. Be alert to discipline yourself at those low points when you wish to take the easy way and withdraw from the group. You will all be tempted. This is a process and the process is only beginning. Each of you are a part of what you are building. This community family is the most important you can do at this point in your life experiences. Learn to know one another. Learn to cling to one another when others outside the group attack or criticize. When those with whom you spend your time away from this community question it's value, you will know from within and be aware that you know that you know.

You can search the whole world, but if you commit yourself here, your search will be over for you have found and Father has found you. You are in process of being prepared to work for him. Is that important to you? More important than having time to play and laze about dreaming? It is not all work, but it will seem like work as you begin because your life experience will seem out of focus. You will seem to be running and unable to stop and if you take time to look you will notice that it is humanly impossible to accomplish all that you are doing and still have time for these meetings with one another and in the stillness with Father. However, if you continue to focus on the Father and look not to material means, you will find the work will ease and you will begin to find fun in the very thing which was frustrating you and you will adjust to time being out of focus and accomplish even more than you could imagine when you begin to be aware of this process.

This makes little sense to you now, but be alert. The time is coming in the not too distant future when this little group could be scattered and no longer useful to this mission. Remain steadfast. Discipline yourself to remain steadfast. Know that these meetings enable us to make adjustments and attunement much easier than when we attempt to do them when you are absent from one another. When you are gathered together, there is an energy magnification which is exponentially greater than when you are alone. Now it is of small significance, but later it will be of great significance. Each time one of you is missing, the whole group must be adjusted and attuned differently. Then when one returns after an absence, the group must again be adjusted and attuned. When one remains absent for any length of period it is very hard to again easily adjust the whole group to synchronicity. Be aware of this. We understand when circumstances prevent you from attending your study groups and TR groups, but let it not become a gap of too many weeks or it may be divided beyond major repair.

Remember, it is your choice. If you choose to answer the call, do it with commitment and loyalty. There is no use "riding the fence" as you mortals say. Either get on or get off so the flow of energy stabilizes. Do not keep it in chaos and confusion by your indecision. Allow yourself time to make the decision, if need be. There is one among you who will be faced with the decision in the near future. Remember what we said and be alert to what you are doing when you make this decision. Then stay or go according to your free will. We will not coerce.

Allene: LorEl, this is Allene. Do you have any guidance or any instructions you would like to give about this group, or individually for this week? (long silence)

It is as you have already discerned, to practice staying in the light. Practice expressing the loving energy. Know who you are. Stay true to who you are, regardless of circumstances, regardless of those who would like to push you off the edge, or into chaos, into emotional turmoil. Remember who you are. Be the very best you, you can be. Live up to your potential. Be what you have prayed to be.

The outworking of your decision to remain in the Light, or to return to the Light when you become aware of your slip into the darkness, will spread around you like ripples - out into the darkness and bring others closer to the Light.

The very best effort you can make is to continue your time in the stillness, focusing on the Will of the Father, stretching yourself above that which you know you can do, working harmoniously and thoroughly sharing your strengths and your personal inspirations and communications with your group, and using teamwork to move your group into the community which will be your support as the events of this Correcting Time unfold. If you build your community carefully, if you become one which the others in your group can rely on to be there for them as they step out in faith, all of you will gain the strength to stretch your faith until vistas of new cosmic thinking become as normal as what you see around you in the material world.

You personally will grow as the community grows. Remember this. If you concentrate on growing alone, in your own way, you will make much headway in the beginning, but after a time, this rush towards perfection will have to be balanced and slowed down because you have not the balancing energies of the entire community with you. Therefore fanaticism and out-of-balance animal human emotions can undo the progress you make in this process. Guard well your ability to harmonize and balance your strengths within a group community. This is important, but not absolutely necessary. Can you not see that the ability to grasp the ideas we put forth to you, is more likely grasped when you have the outlook of several who sincerely wish to understand and grow? There is less chance of misunderstanding and using the energy to steer off the pathway.

I know this makes little sense to you now, but you will see in the days ahead, the wisdom of this little gem. Be alert. Give your efforts to helping your little community develop and move ahead together. This is the primary goal at this time of your preparation during this Correcting Time. When all groups are harmonized into a team and each individual is a team player and not an egotist, the groups will be able to cooperate in united efforts to begin quietly transmuting this planet to Light and Life. Build your community. I tell you truly, this is important. Can you see this?

December 17, 1992

LorEl:

I have come to this planet of Urantia to teach the quality of Light and Life which begins with learning to get into the flow of Love energy. When a mortal can do that, he can bypass and overcome many of the basic material laws of material mind and move into the universal laws which are undocumented by your scientists but reported as miracles by those sensitive to them in consciousness.

Our purpose for being here - the hundreds of thousands of fused mortals from Edentia and the legions of other spiritual and morontial beings from throughout the Superuniverse - is to begin the process of Light and Life upon the planet. Each single person is needed. It will be built one by one and two by two - willing to put aside personal greed, personal power and personal material pursuits to follow our guidance and instill new standards of behavior and become steadfast in truth, beauty and goodness values being thrust upon the planet now! It is imperative that you accept the new standards and discard the material standards evolved through the quarantined years of your planet. It is heralded as a sign of success when even one time a mortal can refuse the temptation to exploit or protect self for the good of the whole! It causes much rejoicing upon all planes of life in the universe when a group commits itself to the purpose of learning the textbook and following the merciful loving service actions being imparted by the teachers at this time.

The Urantia Book is the textbook which has all of the information you need to realize your cosmic citizenship. You need no further information, although you all have active minds with many questions! We have given you the guidelines of "normalcy" and now we are here to inspire you with the incentive and encouragement to be about bringing this "normalcy" to your planet. We are helpless to act until a human mortal makes a decision to be about the Father business, and begins the work as he understands it. Then, we are able to move mountains to help it come about! Every single act of good, every single thought of truth, every single effort to create harmony comes from the thoughts and decisions made in one's mind and then acted upon in faith!

You can do your part by keeping your thoughts high in what you know about Father's perspective and your activities clean and kind. You can do your part by controlling your emotions and transmuting any un-Godlike fervor into good through love energy. Let all received by you be mirrored back into the world as love energy. Let all harmful emotional and thought energies be transmuted and spread back into the world about you as love energy, love thoughts, love emotions, and merciful service. Take all judgments and transmute them to love energy. Take all criticism and transmute it and reflect it as love energy.

You do not need an educational degree in psychology or sociology to know how to transmute all thoughts and words to love. You do not need a degree to know how to be kind. You do not need a degree to learn how to be supportive of one another as baby steps are taken, and wings are tried, and growth occurs. You need to listen to one another, to serve one another, to be helpful of one another, to learn to know and love one another. You need one another. The humanity on the planet creates Light and Life together. Work together for good. Turn groups into perfect relationships. Then, turn neighborhoods into perfect relationships. Then turn communities into perfect relationships. This is where you can serve in the Corps.

Some of you have been selected because you have far-reaching influence and power in the material level of life upon your planet. Most of you have been selected because you have influence in the small world around you - in your homes, your families, your neighborhoods, your communities, your churches, your work places. Use this influence for good. Use this influence to begin small programs of mutual support and balanced communities. Begin cooperatives for those who have less. Begin educating those around in electing enlightened brothers and sisters to the governmental offices which affect you, your neighbors and your communities. Begin sharing the truth and values of the UB with those around you - your families, your neighbors, your fellow workers, your doctors, your dentists, your waitresses. Do this by being a child of God first, being fair, dealing openly, supporting those who serve you, inspiring those who look to you for encouragement or reassurance. Never threaten any. Never use emotions of ecstasy or fear to "sell" them on your agenda.

Plant seeds. Plant seeds everywhere you are, everywhere you go, everywhere you can. Plant seeds of truth, beauty and goodness. Plant seeds of integrity and fairness, honesty and openness, sincerity and willingness to share yourself. These are the tools whereby the planet will be changed. If each inspires just one person per week, it will not be long until this spreads around the globe to all peoples! Learn to listen and observe, then give yourself away in kindness and helpfulness - wherever there is a need. Always respect free will and never force even truth, beauty and goodness on one who cannot or will not accept. Allow them their choice and go on to plant your seeds elsewhere. They will see that you are harmless and the protective shields of defense will weaken and another will be able to plant the right seed to enlist them in the corps.

Do not look back upon appearing failures. Continue in faith and action. All works together for good - even the seeming failures and seeming evils. Nothing can impede or divert the process of Light and Life for the planet, except your unawareness and unwillingness! It takes the cooperation and meekness of each one who awakens and hears the call from your Creator Son, Michael of Nebadon...or Jesus of Nazareth! Those who have the textbook will have a greater awareness of the broadness and worldwide effects of the Correcting Time, but having the Urantia Book or even accepting the Urantia Book is not necessary for one to be enlisted in the Corps of the Correcting time. Those who are actively participating in setting about planting the seeds of Light and Life upon Urantia will be led to or will discover the Urantia Book. However, the enlistment of planting seeds of harmony and cooperation is the immediate goal. This is why secretiveness is being exposed. This is why inequity is being exposed. This is why governments and power houses are falling. This is why individuals are coming to the aid of disaster victims around the world.

Seeds of Love energy have been hidden within the DNA of every person alive upon the planet today and will recognize and enlist in the enlightenment of the planet when they awaken. It is your assignments to awaken as many around you as you can, with love, harmony and kindness. Power and control cannot be used for this particular assignment. Only humble seed planting of kindness and goodness and helpfulness and supportive words. All peoples of all religions are being renewed in Truth and spiritual value. Many are ready to emphasize values and work in harmony rather than insist that their way is the only way, as was true only a few generations ago. There will be fewer "religious" wars as all will come to realize that the name of God is immaterial and uncontrollable on a planet so varied and diverse of personalities and methods as has evolved on Urantia during the quarantined years.

LorEL:

There is only one Source of Love, Light, Energy, in the Universes, and that is Father. Father's Love surrounds you, enfolds you, and uplifts you. And, so it is. I am LorEl. Good evening.

Group: Good evening, LorEl.

Allene: Thank you for the wonderful message you gave me last night.

LorEl: You are welcome. (pause) You are learning rapidly now, do you not see this?

Allene: Yes, thank you. But, it is with all the help from all of you that I am learning so rapidly.

LorEL:

It is a mutual learning. It comes from enthusiasm. It comes from Faith. It comes believing and actually acting upon your beliefs. It comes from surrounding yourself with like-thinking. That includes us. It includes all of you.

Do you not see that all growth is enhanced within a family or community environment? Mutual support enhances the qualities which you bring to the community and the balanced energies of the group defeats any weaknesses - and this balances all participants. All of you are beginning a journey which will at times seem like an adventure and at other times tedious and laborious. Do not allow yourselves to be distracted by byways of your imagination - real or unreal appearances of overwhelming work. We will see you through all that is asked of you. You will see. Do not give up. Remain steadfast and rejoice at your increasing abilities and talents as you go forth in faith - sometimes seeing only the step in front of you. Many times it may seem that you will never reach your goal. Continue in steadfast faith doing what is before you. It will all get done. You will see. You are entering a time when time will seem to stand still or speed up to enable you to finish what is needed. You will see.

I tell you truly this is a great time to serve the Father! Think on these things whenever you are tempted to fall away through fear or feelings of being overwhelmed by all which challenges and confronts you. We are here to help with the burdens. All you need to do is ask. You can do much more than you can imagine if you take your thoughts off yourself and your time allotment and just focus on the Father and being of service to Him in this time of correction.

Allene: LorEl, do you have any messages that you would like to share with our group this evening? Or any guidance you would like to give us as a group, or as individuals.

LorEl:

We have been here. We have listened to your conversations and we are well pleased. We see that you are all willing. You are all growing. We are all willing to work with you. Michael is well pleased with this group. Your hearts and intentions are for increased service to the Father and your willingness to go forth on any assignment is well known all the way to Edentia.

The community which you are slowly creating with Trust, Support, Service, and Honesty with one another will be your team in the days and events ahead. All work is lightened by many hands. Even that which you must do alone is lightened by emotional and attitudinal support from your team. We are pleased by your willingness to commit yourselves to this building process. Your progress will be unsurpassed by any, if you continue this steadfast intention of continued teamwork and as support for one another. Much can be accomplished in such a short time when all hearts and minds are focused on the Father and pulling in the same direction towards your goal. I applaud you and assure you that we are all working with you to help accomplish the goals set before you.

You do not yet see them, but they will unfold as the days pass. I tell you truly, think on these things. Remain steadfast and go in joyful service to create Light and Life wherever you are, using only pure love energy in all that you do. Be slow to judge one another. Be generous in forgiveness. Create unbreakable relationships by taking the risk to share yourself fully with one another. Do not withhold your love nor your participation. All is needed. You are needed. This is the Correcting Time and no longer will it be necessary to labor alone to follow the Father's Will. You are even now gathering your cosmic family about you. Love one another.

The Master taught when he was on the planet as Jesus, that you can ask three questions when confronted with such: 1) Does it bring you closer to the Father? 2) Does it bring the Father closer to you? 3) Is it full of Truth - intellectual meaning, Beauty - harmony, and Goodness - eternal value? If it does not answer all of these questions as "yes" then one should look elsewhere.

LorEl:

Yes, I gave my lesson to Allene. She was ready to hear. You are distracted by material activities. As you focus on these activities and not the spiritual you will find more and more material challenges jumping into your awareness. Let not this unravel your progress to be about the Father's business. Your efforts to get the Sarasota boxcar on track is very important to us. Your mental strength is from Source and will do more to counter-balance any resistance than any physical activity you can undertake. Do you understand? Do not let miracles and amazing feats distract you from your focus. Take them in stride for there will be many. Each day ahead of you will bring more and more amazing happenings as events unfold in this Correcting Time. It is true that the Melchizedeks will appear soon. It is true that the Women's corps will be reactivated. It is true that more and more teachers are arriving everyday and any single person who asks will receive a personal teacher. They must ask. They must make themselves ready through steadfast discipline to enter the stillness often and focus on out-of-worldly thoughts.

You are correct that if the thought occurs to you so that you notice it, then it is probably true. When you contemplate its truth, beauty and goodness, you will know that you know, and no further questions will be necessary. If there are more questions, go back and contemplate the truth again. If it does not work out in flowing love energy then it lacks truth, beauty and goodness. That means that either there is little intellectual meaning, little harmony, or very little spiritual value. These must be present or the activity, the thought process, the effort is lost. If these are not present, you will find yourself traveling the byways of your imaginations rather than the true footsteps upon the Pathway during this Correcting Time.

Not all who call themselves enlightened corpsmen, nor all who channel higher information are in our league. Some are taking baby steps and barely rising to levels above psychic levels. Love energy must be present, love energy for truth, beauty and goodness in altruistic service of the Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of mankind must be present or it is not to be trusted as true.

Go forth stretching yourself to heights not yet dreamed of. Go forth challenging yourself to step out in faith over and above what you have already accomplished or considered. Be faithful in the stillness. Discipline yourself to remain focused upon your assignment, your service, your purpose. We are here to help you as you move in these directions. Any other will cause us to wait upon you until you are ready.
